    - ELC (training other Pre-K's in the district to help ensure that all students entering MCS kindergarten classrooms are prepared)
    - 8 Elementary Schools
    - MSGA, Marietta Middle, Marietta High
    - 13 Superintendents since 1892
- Family Focus-Dunleith, then moved to Park Street, SRE, MSGA, moving toward Hickory Hills
    - Will they cycle back through schools? That is the goal. They are looking at how they can make that happen.
- Reviewed graduation rates, scores, etc.
- Top notch nutrition program that researches various cultures to include foods that prepare them for learning
- Marietta College and Career Paths

IB Update from Christy Grubbs

- Evaluation Report
    - Highlighted the main strengths and opportunities for growth
        - Strength: since of community, student support, overall culture, learning environments
        - Opportunities for Growth: coherent curriculum (central ideas and lines of inquiry), strengthen approaches to learning within the students to develop lifelong learners, inquiry based learning when the opportunities arise (knowing that there are limitations), teacher support for all staff members (not just new teachers)
    - Programme Development Plan
        - Strengths: fostered student agency, professional development, IB lead team (but spread it, too)
        - Growth: align to school improvement plan, wider range of stakeholders
        - Do we need shorter milestones?
    - Next Steps
        - 5 year plan for professional development for veteran teachers
        - Strategic courses for different groups of people
        - Can we go see it at other PYP schools in the area?
        - How can we further explain what IB is to our families?
        - Can we buddy up with ALB to create groups for trainings?
        - Can we highlight good instruction practices that align to IB learning practices?
