Irving RDSPD is proud to host ASL class for Beginners! This class is free to all Irving ISD families, faculty and staff who would like to learn basic ASL. This is a come and go class! We are excited for you to learn ASL with us!

ASL classes will meet most Tuesday's from September 9-April 10, 2026. We will meet at Gilbert Elementary in the Library from 4-5pm. Your ASL teachers will be Valente Coronado and Katie Beard. Please contact Holly Cates at hcates@irvingisd.net or 972-600-0404 if you have any questions!

We would love for you to come to our classes every time! However, we understand if you can't. Here's the link to the lessons if you would like to practice at home.

This will help you with the basics, however, learning from a Deaf native signer is the best way to become fluent! Enjoy the class!
