Supporting Your Writer	Learn how to support your student in writing at home.	Rogers, Elliott, Burgess	Literacy night writescore.gmas.pptx	E140
iReady	i-Ready Learn how to interpret and use iReady data to help your student.	Torres, Moore, Williams	iReady	E106
Literacy in the Real World	Connecting Literacy to Real Life - This session will draw connections between the Language Arts curriculum and various resources that students have access to via Classlink. Participants will take away ideas for boosting literacy skills and building literacy-rich experiences outside of school to enrich understandings of the world and to support school literacies.	Burnett, Davis, Harlan	Literacy Support at Home	E136
Speed Book Dating	Pick a Book - Speed Dating - Parents and students who attend this session will participate in either a musical chairs or speed-dating exercise with books (either from the book fair or donated from teachers or the community). They will preview the books with the potential to take some home. The purpose of this session is to increase reading at home.	Magis, Hester	Literacy Night	E101
Cognates--World Language	Vocabulary with Color. Learn cognates and Spanish vocabulary with color!	Balza, Rodriguez, Galeano	Literacy Night Spanish Presentation	E114
1st Person Narrative	1st Person Histories - Write narratives from the point of view of a person living at a certain period of time in history. The literacy strategy is to have students visualize themselves in that period of history and use details from their learning to imagine what life would have been like then. During this session, teachers can also have parents write narratives with their students.	Dunalp, Camejo, Barrett	I was there	E121
