Important Update Regarding an Unsubstantiated Rumor

We want to address a rumor that has been circulating about a possible threat at tomorrow's Halloween dance at Hawthorne Middle School. After thorough investigation in coordination with law enforcement, including discussions with several students, we have confirmed that this rumor is unsubstantiated and not credible. It's crucial that we rely on verified information rather than hearsay during times like these.

EVERY DAY MATTERS

November 2025

On Time, In School, Every Day!

We're Grateful You
Choose PCSD 25!

Your local public school district is home to Idaho's highest teacher retention and graduation rate among large districts!

This season, show gratitude by helping your learner build consistent habits that last all year. Encourage 20 minutes of reading together each night—whether it's picture books, graphic novels, or chapter stories, reading regularly strengthens skills and supports classroom success.

Celebrate the little wins and keep showing up—because Every Day Matters, and your learner belongs right here.

WELLNESS QUEST SPOTLIGHT!

We asked and you answered! At PCSD 25, we believe wellness isn't a destination – it's a shared journey. Our staff are taking steps toward greater balance, connection, and joy through the Wellness Quest! REMINDER: Share a photo or short reflection from your quest by emailing fisherco@sd25.us to earn bonus raffle entries! Your responses may end up on our social media pages!

Rhonda Garrett-Bellusci wrote, "I wasted no time starting this awesome challenge. Abraszewski trail is only 5 minutes from my school. What a wonderful stress reducer to go on a short but wonderful, nature-filled walk!"

Monique Gannon, a teacher at Wilcox Elementary School, wrote: "I love taking walks over by the Stephens Performing Arts Center this time of year. The trees are so beautiful! I also love taking walks on my ranch with my horses. I'm able to recharge and refocus my mind and emotions!"

When it comes to building connection and belonging, Highland High School's Shelley Huelsman sets the bar high – literally! Shelley, Highland's bursar, took the Wellness Quest to a whole new level by organizing a FREE Highland Staff Night at Studio B Fitness, where 21 staff members joined in for a fun and energizing Barre/Fitt class.

Assistant Principal Jena Wilcox wrote, "Shelley Huelsman is our bursar and resident activity director. She is often scheduling fun staff outings and activities for the simple joy of having us get together outside our normal work grind. She put this group activity together and highly encouraged everyone to participate. I think she expected maybe 5-6 people, and we ended up with 21. We had so much fun laughing, working, sweating, and suffering together."
