Rule 1	q always followed by u
Rule 2	c before e, i, or y says s
Rule 3	g before e, i, or y may say j
Rule 4	a, e, o, u usually say their 2nd sound.
Rule 5	i and y say 1st sound
Rule 6	y not i, is used in an English word
Rule 7	5 kinds of silent final e's
Rule 8	5 spellings of er
Rule 9	One syllable words, one vowel, and end in one consonant 1-1-1
Rule 10	Two syllables, ends in one consonant, with one vowel. 2-1-1
Rule 11	E's dropping
Rule 12	i before e, except after c
Rule 13	Use sh at end or beginning
Rule 14	ti, si, ci to say sh in the middle
Rule 15	Si says sh if preceding an "s" syllable
Rule 16	si may also say zh as in vi sion
Rule 17	Double l, f and s (will, off, miss)
Rule 18	Use ay to say a at end of base word. Never a alone
Rule 19	i or o may say I o if followed by two consonants
Rule 20	Letter s almost never follows x
Rule 21	All written alone has two l's but when it has another syllable, only one l.
Rule 22	Till and full written alone have two l's, but when with another syllable only one l
Rule 23	dge may be used only after a single vowel .
Rule 24	Use i instead of y when ending is ing.
Rule 25	Ck may be used only after a single vowel
Rule 26	Capitalize proper nouns
Rule 27	Beginning with the sound z, are always spelled with z, never s
Rule 28	ed has 3 sounds
Rule 29	Words are usually divided between double consonants of base word.