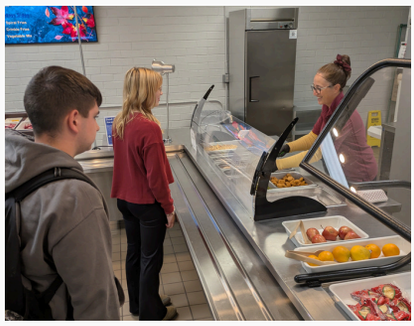
Did You Know?

Aramark serves Poquoson City Public Schools an average of 1,215 meals every day. This includes 362 breakfasts and 853 lunches, which ensures that students have the nutrition they need to focus, learn, and perform at their best. Research shows that students who eat nutritious meals at school have improved attendance, attention, and academic success. In Poquoson, healthy meals are not just served, they're thoughtfully prepared with care, pride, and a focus on quality.



Meet the Team

Where experience, service, and heart meet to support our students

Poquoson's Food & Nutrition Services program is led by Tina Wolf, Food Services Director with Aramark, who brings more than 30 years of experience in school nutrition and holds the School Nutrition Specialist designation. She leads a highly dedicated team of 20 staff members, including a trained chef at the high school and several long-serving employees such as Ms. Jeanette Dryden, who has been supporting PCPS students since 1980. The program also receives oversight and operational support from Keeley Sullivan, the division's Operations Specialist, who helps coordinate logistics, compliance, and communication more broadly across the district. This team strives to serve the nutritional needs of all students to support their health, learning, and overall well-being
