LOCKHART K-8 SCHOOL AND CHARLOTTE AMALIE HIGH SCHOOL CAMPUSES CLOSED FOLLOWING LOCKDOWN

On Monday, November 10, 2025, Lockhart K-8 School and Charlotte Amalie High School on St. Thomas were placed on lockdown after a call was received through 911, reporting a potential threat to the campuses. The schools immediately activated safety protocols, and students were evacuated to the designated staging areas to ensure their safety.

Due to limited K-9 resources being available, the Virgin Islands Police Department (VIPD) estimated the time to conduct a thorough search of both school campuses would exceed multiple hours. Lockhart K-8 School and Charlotte Amalie High School were dismissed at 11:00 am and the campuses were closed, due to the expected lengthy interruption to school operations.

The Virgin Islands Department of Education, in conjunction with the VIPD, will conduct sweeps of the Charlotte Amalie High School and the Lockhart K-8 School to clear the campuses before the next school day begins.

All potential threats to campus are taken seriously and the safety of our students and school personnel remains our highest priority. Students are reminded of the seriousness of making any kind of threats that could compromise the safety of fellow students and school personnel.

This matter remains under investigation by the Virgin Islands Police Department and other law enforcement agencies.
