
MISSION

The Student Assistance Education Advocate Program helps teens involved with Juvenile justice and their families navigate the educational system.

ELIGIBILITY

Referred students must be returning to King or Pierce County from a DSHS Juvenile Rehabilitation Institution or be involved with Pierce County Juvenile Court.

Education Advocate services are free to students, parents, schools and juvenile justice staff in participating agencies.

ARE YOU A TEEN INVOLVED IN THE JUVENILE JUSTICE SYSTEM?

DO YOU NEED HELP GETTING BACK INTO SCHOOL?

LOOKING FOR A MEANINGFUL EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM?

CONTACT

Kevin Ikeda

Director, K-12 Systems Engagement
kiked@psed.org | 425-917-7859

Gabriela Granados Alvarado

Program Coordinator
galvarado@psed.org | 253-778-7837

dor.psed.org

REFERRAL FORM

PSED Dropout Prevention & Re-Engagement provides skill development and case management to youth needing transitional supports from the Juvenile Justice System.

EDUCATION ADVOCATE PROGRAM

Providing transition support to teens involved in the juvenile justice system for access to a meaningful education

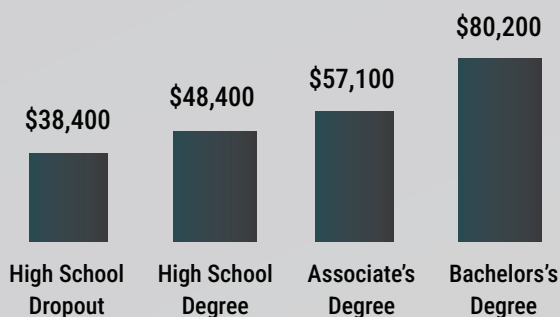

TRANSITION SERVICES

Education Advocates help students and families negotiate with juvenile justice systems, schools, vocational programs, colleges and community agencies.

Using academic and community success plans, we help teens find ways to achieve a diploma, college enrollment, a career and the ability to earn a living wage.

Students that learn more, earn more!
Average annual income:

Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2024

OUR GOALS

Re-engage all youth & their families

by supporting academic and community success plans that lead to high school completion and post-secondary pathways.

Improve student academic success

through strong community partnerships, collaboration, and coordinated support.

Expand student access to learning

by strengthening both academic and social-emotional skills.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- Consultation for parents, school staff, and juvenile justice personnel
- Design and implementation of academic and community success plans
- Assistance in locating and enrolling in school, college or vocational programs
- Assistance in obtaining ID, birth certificate and Social Security cards
- Skill building sessions and career exploration with individuals and groups
- Coordination of trauma informed student care supports and resources

PARTNERS

King County

Washington Office of Superintendent of PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Washington State Department of
CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILIES

Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration (JRA) King/Pierce

Pierce County Juvenile Court - Remann Hall

REFERRAL PROCESS:

The Education Advocate referral process starts when a youth involved with the juvenile justice system, or preparing to return from a Juvenile Rehabilitation Institution, is identified by a school, court, or community partner.

REFERRAL FORM

