QUOTE OF THE DAY:

"We must find the time to stop and thank the people who make a difference in our lives."
~ John F. Kennedy

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

COLLEGE IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB) is a premier public research university known for its globally recognized academic programs, collaborative atmosphere, and beautiful campus location. UCSB is one of only 71 research-intensive institutions elected to the prestigious Association of American Universities, and the faculty includes eight Nobel Laureates. The campus is ideally situated on a bluff overlooking the Pacific Ocean, featuring its own lagoon and over a mile of coastline with direct beach access. This unique environment provides unparalleled opportunities for marine biology research, surfing, kayaking, and simply enjoying breathtaking ocean views and sunsets.

YOSEMITE TRIP

Please join us in the Moeller Gym, during lunch, on December 3, for an informative meeting about Roseville High School's trip to Yosemite National Park. This trip is open to anyone in the school and provides an excellent opportunity to learn classroom and life lessons while in one of the world's most special places.

PET FOOD DRIVE

The SPCA pet food drive is starting. It will run from December 1st to December 5th. We are looking for SEALED, unopened pet food for dogs, cats, and bunnies. The top three winners will receive a Chick-fil-a gift card. Donations can be dropped off at Ms. Dodds classroom, room 600, at the start of second period.
