2.0 New Items

2.1 Mrs. Katten will present SBAC Data

- Mrs. Katten presented SBAC Data for our 4th and 5th grade students. The data was pulled from all 5 feeder schools and is a very raw baseline. Based off the data presented 62.4% passed the Math SBAC and 63% passed the Reading SBAC.

2.2 Ms. Shank will present MAP Data

- Ms. Shank presented the Fall MAP Data. We will look at this data again in January after grades K-3 have taken the winter assessment to focus on student growth.

2.3 Mrs. Katten will present the School Performance Plan

- Mrs. Katten gave us the SPP. She reviewed the the goals and action steps. Members will fully review the SPP and come to the next meeting with questions.

2.4 TECHNOLOGY. Discuss technology programs to purchase. Kristin McCallister will present Reading Eggs and Courtney Schoen will present on iReady Reading and ST Math.

- Our new Humanities position will be teaching grades 3-5 Health Standards and K-2 will be focused on technology. Therefore, we need to purchase a program to be the focus in the computer lab.
- Kristen McCallister presented Reading Eggs and Reading Express for purchase for grades 1&2. Kindergarten already has the program.
    - Reading Eggs mainly focuses on phonics, sight words, word families, and rhyming.
    - Reading Express mainly focuses on comprehension, spelling, and writing
    - Both programs have a digital library for students to read books and have books read to them
    - Mrs. McCallister showed some of the demos
    - Total cost to add grades 1 & 2 would be about $1400.
- Courtney Schoen presented ST Math
    - This program is a visual program and has students use the spatial temporal reasoning to work out math problems
    - Mrs. Schoen showed us some game demos for different standards.
    - We received a $7,000 grant for this program
    - For the first year for grades K-2 it would cost $24,000 and $3,000 for each year after that
- Mrs. Katten is going to confirm with grade levels that they for sure want ST Math and Reading Eggs/Reading Express before we vote to purchase the programs for grades K-2. Grades 3-5 would like to see this year's SBAC data before making a decision on getting a technology program.

2.5 BUDGET

- Mrs. Katten reviewed the current budget for CCSD Textbook Money, CCSD SPA Money, CCSD General Money and SGF.
