

TEACHING AS A PROFESSION

Information shared is exclusive to the Teaching as a Profession Pathway offered at PCCA. Course sequence may differ at other county high schools

START ▶

COURSE 1: ED 2130 EXPLORING EDUCATION

Semester: Spring 2026

Location: PCCA Campus

Time: 1st Period, 9:00 -10:10 a.m.

Instructor: Georgia Highlands College Faculty/PCSD instructor

Format: In class 5 days a week until February Break

After February Break:

- In-Class: 2 days/week at PCCA
- Field Experience: 3 days/week in a middle or elementary school classroom

Transportation:

- Students may drive or ride the bus from their home high school to PCCA
- Students must provide their own transportation to assigned school sites for field experience (can walk from their HS to an adjoining elementary or middle school)

COURSE 2: ED 2110 CRITICAL & CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN EDUCATION

Semester: Fall 2026

Location: PCCA Campus

Time: 1st Period, 9:00-10:10 am

Instructor: Georgia Highlands College Faculty/PCSD Instructor

Format:

- In-Class: 2 days/week at PCCA
- Field Experience: 3 days/week in a middle or elementary school classroom

Transportation:

- Students may drive or ride the bus from their home high school to PCCA
- Students must provide their own transportation to assigned school sites for field experience (can walk from their HS to an adjoining elementary or middle school)

COURSE 3: TEACHING AS A PROFESSION

Semester: Spring 2027

Location: Field Experience Site

Time: TBD by Site Supervisor

Instructor: PCSD Instructor

Format:

- Field Experience: 5 days/week in a middle or elementary school classroom
- Portfolio Required

Transportation:

Students must provide their own transportation to assigned school sites (can walk from their HS to an adjoining elementary or middle school)

