

Flexible Instructional Days (FID) Information

Palmerton Area School District
2025-2026

What is a Flexible Instructional Day?

- An alternate approach (virtual) approved by the PA Department of Education (PDE) to delivering instruction if circumstances (inclement weather or other emergencies) arise that prevent in-person instruction.
- PASD has been approved to use five (5) Flexible Instructional Days (FID) for each of the following school years:
 - 2025-2026
 - 2026-2027
- These days will not be used for COVID related closures.

Will there still be snow days?

- PASD is still required to include make-up days in the district calendar
- PASD will use the two (2) built-in make-up days first and then FID days will be used in place of any additional school closures.
- 2025-2026 Make-up Days:
February 13 and April 2

What is the benefit of a Flexible Instructional Day?

- Implementation of a Flexible Instructional Day (FID) will not require additional make-up days when school is canceled.
- A Flexible Instructional Day (FID) is considered a school day and counts toward the number of instructional days and hours required under the PA Department of Education Board regulations.

How will I know if the district calls a Flexible Instructional Day (FID)?

- PASD will:
 - Provide an automated call to notify families of a Flexible Instructional Day
 - Post the notification on the district website
 - Post the notification on the local news/media sites

On all announcements PASD will designate if the school closure will be a Flexible Instructional Day (FID)
