Questions:

1. Q: Is it okay if a bidder offers two separate bid responses?

   A: A bidder may not submit a second separate bid. The bidder's bid response should meet the specifications set forth in the bid documents. However, the MSBSD is also interested in alternative proposals that offer cost savings or increased functionality. To that end, a bidder may include an alternative cost proposal with the appropriate accompanying specification sheet as part of their bid submission. The alternative proposal must be clearly labeled as an alternative offering. The MSBSD reserves the right to accept or reject the alternative proposal at our discretion.
