Dr. Gajewsky reported on behalf of Mrs. Southern. NISD currently has 180 students. The two employees of the month are Amanda Baros and Sylvia Trevino. NISD has been working on the TIA grant for two years and the final submission for data collection is in October. PTO will host a book fair in October. NISD is scheduled to host the football game at home but our field may not be ready because of the rain. The field will be amazing for our students and community once it takes off. NISD submitted the EOP for review and will have to make updates to meet the TxSSC requirements. The AC in room 3 is completely out and must be replaced. We have temporarily relocated the counselor to another room. NISD is ready to start phase two of the ramps and decks for the portables. Stairs must be added for a secondary exit and the added walkways will greatly enhance the portable buildings and our expansion. Based on the cafeteria meal pricing, NISD will not adjust prices for the 2025-2026 school year.
