Tuesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will demonstrate an ability to synthesize and utilize information related to learning objective Lesson Overview: Readings for this week: For LO 5.7, pages 387-396 (though don't worry too much about the details of which states seceded when, just get a feel for secession - the arguments for and against, how close the votes were). Also, for this section, please read these links to the writings/speeches of Abraham Lincoln. They are in order and intended to show his evolving position on secession, union, the war, and slavery. You don't need to read the entire 1st inaugural address - it's very long. Just get a feel for it, focus on the first two pages: First Inaugural Address. Horace Greeley's "Prayer of Twenty Millions". Lincoln's Response to Greeley. Second Inaugural Address. For LOs 5.8 and 5.9, pages 400-401, 405-415, 424-428. I'm skipping over the military history in the text. I'll try to summarize that in class. You can read for that detail if you want, up to you. Tuesday - LOs 5.8-5.9 - Civil War, Part I	Academic Standards: APUSH learning objective 5.7-5.9
