Name: Vest	Grading Quarter: Q4	Week Beginning: March 25
School Year: 2023-24	Subject: Greek and Roman History

Monday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: Monday - Tuesday - We'll look at the historical origins of the Roman Republic and start talking about the great conflict that led to Rome becoming the dominant power in the area - the 3 Punic Wars with Carthage.	Academic Standards:
Tuesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: Monday - Tuesday - We'll look at the historical origins of the Roman Republic and start talking about the great conflict that led to Rome becoming the dominant power in the area - the 3 Punic Wars with Carthage.	Academic Standards:
Wednesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: Wednesday - end of semester project work day (I'll check on where everyone is on this by the end of the day)	Academic Standards:
Thursday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: Thursday - Roman Republic military stuff - What was a legion? How did it work? How did Roman soldiers differ from Greek hoplites? Who served in the armies of the Republic? Why was Rome like a horror movie villain?	Academic Standards:

Friday	Notes:	Objective: Lesson Overview: Friday - No school FYI, next week you'll have a quiz over what we've covered so far on Rome, and I'll give you some reading on the Gracchi brothers - we'll talk about Roman politics and how similar or different it was to American politics today.	Academic Standards: