

Name: Vest		Grading Quarter: Q4	Week Beginning: April 8
School Year: 2023-24		Subject: AP Government
Monday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: READING: CH 12, which is also an opening into talking about economics. So, get 11 and 12 read by Tuesday if possible (notes less important at this point, this is more theory and application and less factual content). We'll be watching some short films on economics in class Tuesday and Wednesday. That isn't as terrible as it sounds, trust me. We'll take breaks between them and talk about how these economic concepts apply to public policy and political ideology (the focus of CH 12). So, be ready to argue... Monday - We'll finish up on political culture and shift to public opinion. We'll finish up political culture presentations by table.	Academic Standards: AP Government learning objectives MPA 1.A1, 1.B1, 1.B2, 1.B3
Tuesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: Tuesday - More on public opinion - how it is measured, why we care. Second of half of class we'll begin to look at specific public policy topics and how government and economic issues (the "political economy", as it is often called) intersect.	Academic Standards: AP Government learning objectives MPA 1.B4, 2.A1, 2.B1, 2.B4, 4.E1
Wednesday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: Wednesday - Public policy and ideology (how ideology influences policy) - we'll look at We The Economy short films and talk through how the 4 topics (taxation, governmental regulation, monetary policy, healthcare) are issues of economics, governance, and political partisanship.	Academic Standards: AP Government learning objectives PMI 4.C1, 4.D1, 4.F1

Thursday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: Thursday - Finish up public policy/ideology as needed. WE ARE DONE WITH TURNING IN NOTES FOR THE YEAR. You're either doing the work or you aren't by this point, plus we're hitting content that needs to be read and absorbed but isn't as conducive to detailed notetaking. Vocabulary quiz today on the PUBLIC POLICY VOCAB list, the first 43 terms, (yes, I know there are 43 of them. It's brutal. That's part of the reason notes are NOT due today)	Academic Standards: AP Government learning objectives PMI 4.C1, 4.D1, 4.F1
Friday	Notes:	Objective: Students will develop and demonstrate an understanding of the key concepts, terms, and events of the events in the lesson overview. Lesson Overview: Friday - see above, either finish Unit 4 content with exam likely next Tuesday, or move to Unit 5 if we're doing a combo exam on 4 and 5. Political Profile papers due today.	Academic Standards: AP Government learning objectives PMI 4.C1, 4.D1, 4.F1
