

Students and staff help build a school in Africa

Students experience real-world cutting-edge technology and internship opportunities

