7. COMMUNICATIONS TO THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

A. Chula Vista Classified Employees Organization

President Angela Reed noted she has served four years as President and thanked the Board for its support of CVCEO. She shared that this was her final Board meeting as her term concludes. President Reed also thanked Dr. Reyes for recognizing October as Breast Cancer Awareness Month, acknowledging CVCEO members currently battling the disease. She closed by expressing appreciation for the assistance provided to classified employees and the collective growth and improvements achieved on their behalf.

B. Chula Vista Educators

President Rosi Martinez thanked the Board, Dr. Reyes, and Asst. Supt. Jessica Morales for promptly addressing Wolf Canyon staff concerns, and urged continued, collaborative problem-solving. She highlighted onboarding for five new Community Schools (Montgomery, Otay, Castle Park, Vista Square, Lauderbach), praised MTSS's integration into the RLFA plan, and raised implementation needs in Dual Immersion (authentic Spanish materials, TWIG quality, NGSS training, literature resources) while asking for broader teacher input options. She closed by commending assistant superintendents for their exemplary work.

C. Administrators Association Chula Vista

President Theresa Corona reaffirmed the District's shared purpose, emphasizing that the focus must always return to the heart of the work—the children of CVESD—who are our purpose, responsibility, and ultimate measure of success.

8. ORAL COMMUNICATIONS

A. Oral Communications Guidelines

The Oral Communications section provides the public with an opportunity to address the Board on non-agenda items.
