School Improvement Focus

Instruction	Culture and Climate
Professional Learning Communities Theory of action: If we implement professional learning communities, including professional development opportunities and collaborative work time, then teachers and staff will effectively implement district curriculum that monitors student growth. As a result, students will receive rigorous instruction that supports their growth as evidenced by increased proficiency on common classroom formative assessments by the end of the 2024-2025 school year.	PBIS Theory of action: If we implement PBIS, including relationship and community building and developing expectations and procedures, then teachers and staff will promote a positive welcoming space where students understand expectations and feel a sense of belonging. As a result, students will display positive behaviors and attend regularly as evidenced by increased school-wide attendance by the end of the 2024-2025 school year.

School Vision and Values

School Vision

We are committed to providing high-quality instruction and promoting inquiry so that all students have the ability to achieve their full potential. We will prepare our students to be productively engaged in their community by incorporating family-centered social-emotional skills and culturally sustaining practices.

School Values

The classroom is the most important place in the school.

Children will receive a holistic, high-quality education that fosters critical thinking and emphasizes rigor.

Burdick is a safe and inclusive environment that welcomes students and families from diverse backgrounds.

The community includes students, parents, employees, and other community stakeholders. Burdick is an integral member of the neighborhood.

Administration and all staff support student achievement.
