PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Drone shot of our Literacy Night at The Hank. Check out the view!

Welcome back, everyone. I hope you had a relaxing week to celebrate with loved ones and friends. We are excited to get back into the swing of things before December flies by. Our basketball teams are on a roll already. Both teams defeated West Brunswick this past Friday night to get their regular seasons started. This week Wrestling makes their debut with a match tomorrow vs. Aynor High. All students should have received their 2nd quarter interims on the Friday before the Thanksgiving break. Please be sure to take care of any missing assignments in the days ahead to ensure you are in good standing before the nine weeks ends on January 16th. Please also note that this Saturday is our first Saturday School Attendance Make-Up opportunity. Students must be on time to participate. Doors will be locked at 8:00 am sharp. If you have any questions, please see Mr. Mundy or Ms. Chandler. Have a great week, Chiefs!

CHIEF SPOTLIGHT

This week our Chief Spotlight goes to our students participating in our Christmas Angels event. This yearly event, sponsored by Ms. Cathy Threath and Ms. Beth Brown, supports over 300 students from our cluster schools in the NMB area during the Christmas holidays. Thank you to all of our students who have raised funds for this year's event. Stay tuned for a total amount after December 13th.

UPCOMING DATES:

December 2: CTE Showcase 9 - 11 am

December 3: Mu Alpha Theta Virtual Meeting

December 5: NMB vs. Loris Basketball 6:00 pm

Student Section Theme: Neon Night

December 6: Saturday Attendance Make-Up 8:00 am

you must be on time to participate*
