Title I Family Engagement

Caring for the Children We Share

<https://bit.ly/RMEGingerbreadEscape>

This week in 4th grade, I introduced a new topic: Organization. We talked about why organization is an important learning skill but also why it's an essential LIFE skill. We read A Little Spot of Organization that gave us tips on how to sort, label, and manage an organizing task. "There's a spot for everything and everything is in its spot." In the book it also talks about other ways we use organization like when reading information or when we are experiencing big emotions.

The true test came when I made a mess all over the floor and students had to help me get it properly arranged. They were naturals! I also pointed out that organization is personal. People have to make their plans for structure make sense to them.

Mini Decluttering Wins

QUICK & EASY GENERAL IDEAS

..... Ordinary & Happy .....

1 Pick 5 items to recycle or toss.	2 Toss anything broken you can't repair.	3 Put 5 items back where they belong.	4 Choose one drawer or shelf to quickly declutter.
5 Clear one surface in the house.	6 Start a donation box	7 Clear 20 photos from your phone.	8 Declutter your wallet or purse.
9 Choose one category of items to declutter (e.g., books, mugs, cutlery).	10 Set a 10-minute timer and do what you can in that time.	11 Toss 5 expired items.	12 Pick one color and choose one item in that color to give away.
13 Pick up your shoes and place them where they belong.	14 Take 10 minutes to declutter general decor items.	15 Set a 10-minute timer to sort through the mail.	16 End each day with a 5-minute reset of the house.

As we enter this busy season, extra clutter can add to extra stress. I found a calendar that guides you through decluttering and cleaning small things one day at a time. I am going to get started on December 1st. I invite you to join me! Bring the family into it. If you have a 4th grader, you definitely have an advantage.

Wishing you all a special
Thanksgiving,
Ms. Napor

The PAX Post

Now that the PAX trainings for staff are complete, teachers are reinforcing PAX Leader behavior throughout students' time at school. The PAXIS Institute shares a monthly calendar for students that helps to inspire PAX, not only at school, but in their family and community as well. Take a look!

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1 Write a Tootle to a neighbor.	2 How will you be a PAX Leader this month at school?	3 Homework break! Set a timer and see how many push-ups you can do in 30 seconds.	4 Find a winter themed book to read.	5 Write a Tootle to yourself to celebrate your success this week.	6 Donate some of your unused toys or books.
7 What was your biggest success from last month?	8 Design some holiday Tootles for your friends!	9 Focus your energy on using a 0-inch voice when others are talking.	10 Tell a grown-up why they are a PAX Leader.	11 Give three people a PAX thumbs up today!	12 Tootle your teacher today.	13 Watch a holiday themed movie with family or friends.
14 Happy Hanukkah!	15 Clean out your desk, cubby, or locker.	16 Spend 10 minutes reading today.	17 Give 3 compliments to your family and friends today.	18 Let a friend or sibling go first in a game today.	19 Happy Friday! Watch a movie with family or friends.	20 Have a cup of hot chocolate!
21 Bundle up and play outside with friends.	22 Clean your room today.	23 Help with a chore at home without being asked.	24 Happy Christmas Eve!	25 Merry Christmas!	26 Happy Kwanzaa!	27 Enjoy a board game with family or friends today.
28 Pick up after someone else.	29 What are some of your PAX goals for 2025?	30 Sleep in today!	31 Happy New Years Eve!
