Ballston Area Recreation Commission

Ian Gerber Scholarship $500

Ballston Area Rec Commission (BARC) is a non-profit community organization that provides low cost recreational, educational and athletic activities to students in grades K-12 in the Ballston Spa and surrounding areas.

In order to apply for this scholarship you have had to be either a participant in one of the BARC programs or part of the instructors/coaches team.

Please submit answers to the following three questions. Your responses can either be in a written format or a video submission. Feel free to use more space if needed.

1. How has being a part of BARC impacted your personal life? Please give examples.
2. Why do you feel community recreation programs are vital for youth development? How do you see yourself contributing to the field of community recreation in the future?
3. Explain how winning this scholarship would help you achieve your educational and career goals?
