

SOUTH WARREN MIDDLE SCHOOL NTI SCHEDULE

Should Warren County have inclement weather this year, the Board of Education and KDE have authorized the use of Non-Traditional Instructional Days. These days may be used in lieu of making up snow days at the end of the school year. It is important that, if we use NTI, all students closely adhere to the following schedule and check in to each class for attendance and instructions. Attendance at virtual check-ins is counted just like attendance in person; students who do not check in will be counted as absent. If a student has technical issues which prevent him/her from checking in, then the student's teacher must be notified ASAP so other arrangements can be made. Below is a schedule that will be used for any NTI days; these days will be announced along with school closings on major media outlets. Google Meet links will be included in each teacher's Google Classroom along with daily assignments.
