

Inclusive Schools Week 2025

December 8th-12th

Children First: Building A Stronger Tomorrow!

Join the SEC Department in a week of celebration!

Date	Theme for the Day	Suggested Activities
12/8	“Hello from Everywhere”	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Choose at 4-5 students/staff members to say “hello” in their native language.Morning Announcement for Inclusive Schools Week.
12/9	“Diversity within our Community”	<ul style="list-style-type: none">K-5: Students use a graphic organizer to record their birthplace and share with classmates. (city/state/country)6-12: Students use Canva to create a graphic that represents their city of birth, state of birth, and country.
12/10	“Inclusion in Action”	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Students and staff dress in native clothing or their favorite festive attire to celebrate their heritage.
12/11	“The Art of Belonging”	<ul style="list-style-type: none">K-5: Using paper or a paper plate, students will create a picture of what inclusion means to them.6-12: Students will use Canva to create a social media post to create a graphic of what inclusion means to them.
12/12	“Let’s Connect”	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Students and staff complete “Getting to Know You” Bingo card to learn more about each other.

Note: All week long, use #SEC_ISW25 to tweet pictures and activities! Be sure to tag the SEC Department @FCS_SEC

Activities for Inclusive Schools Week 2025

Monday (12/8): “Hello from Everywhere”

NOTE: 4-5 students will greet students and staff by saying “hello” in their native language before morning announcement below.

Morning Announcement for Inclusive Schools Week 2025: “Children First: Building A Stronger Tomorrow.”

“This week, we celebrate Inclusive Schools Week in Fulton County Schools!

What is Inclusive Schools Week?

“Inclusive Schools Week is an annual international event celebrated the first week in December. It’s a time designated to acknowledge the hard work and commitment of teachers, administrators, students, and parents in making our schools more inclusive. It is a time when schools and communities continue the journey toward providing a quality education to all children regardless of differences in ability, gender, ethnicity, language, and cultural heritage.

Our theme for Inclusive Schools Week 2025 is Children First: Building A Stronger Tomorrow! Today, we kick off our week-long celebration of inclusivity in our schools!

Tuesday (12/9): “Diversity within our Community”

NOTE: Don’t forget to tweet your pictures of students and/or staff participating in activities. Please tag @FCS_SEC using the hashtag #SEC_ISW25

- K-5: Students use a graphic organizer to record their birthplace and share with classmates. (city/state/country)
- 6-12: Students use Canva to create a graphic that represents their city of birth, state of birth, and country.

Graphic Organizer K-5

Wednesday (12/10): “Inclusion in Action”

NOTE: Don't forget to tweet your pictures of students and/or staff participating in activities. Please tag @FCS_SEC using the hashtag #SEC_ISW25.

- Students and staff dress in native clothing or their favorite festive attire to celebrate their heritage.

Thursday (12/11): “The Art of Belonging”

NOTE: Don't forget to tweet your pictures of students and/or staff participating in activities. Please tag @FCS_SEC using the hashtag #SEC_ISW25.

- K-5: Using paper or a paper plate, students will create a picture of what inclusion means to them.
- 6-12: Students will use Canva to create a social media post to create a graphic of what inclusion means to them.

Friday (12/12): “Let's Connect”

NOTE: Don't forget to tweet your pictures of students and/or staff participating in activities. Please tag @FCS_SEC using the hashtag #SEC_ISW25.

- Students and staff complete “Getting to Know You” Bingo card to learn more about each other.

Getting to Know You Bingo

