

Alive with 'The Sound of Music'

Victoria Soares and Cyrus Vaghefi dazzle audiences in a production of "The Sound of Music," held at the Bolles Middle School Bartram Campus.

Bolles students Victoria Soares and Cyrus Vaghefi captivated audiences as Maria Rainer and Captain Georg Von Trapp in The Bolles School's production of "The Sound of Music."

The three-day run of the Rodgers and Hammerstein classic took place at Parker Auditorium on the Bolles Middle School Bartram Campus from Nov. 13 to 15. Laura Rippel, Bolles director of fine and performing arts, directed the performance, which was accompanied by a live orchestra led by Bolles Choral Director Dr. Julian Bryson.
