Unit Title: Unit 1 Module A - Living Together: This Is Home

Overview: This unit of study focuses on living together and the value of home. Students will engage with the quest to model civic-minded, globally aware, and socially responsible citizenship and contribute to their local, state, national, and global communities. Considering multiple perspectives, valuing diversity, and promoting cultural understanding are the goals.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.GeoPP.1 - Explain the different physical and human characteristics that might make a location a good place to live (e.g., landforms, climate and weather, resource availability).
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.1 - Determine what makes a good rule or law.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.2 - Cite evidence that explains why rules and laws are necessary at home, in schools, and in communities.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.3 - Analyze classroom rules and routines and describe how they are designed to benefit the common good.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.4 - Explain why teachers, local community leaders, and other adults have a responsibility to make rules that are fair, consistent, and respectful of individual rights.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.3 - Explain how individuals work with different levels of government to make rules.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.4 - Explain how all people, not just official leaders, play important roles in a community.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.5 - Describe how communities work to accomplish common tasks, establish responsibilities, and fulfill roles of authority.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.1 - Describe why it is important that individuals assume personal and civic responsibilities in a democratic society.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.2 - Use examples from a variety of sources to describe how certain characteristics can help individuals collaborate and solve problems (e.g., open-mindedness, compassion, civility, persistence).
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.3 - Explain how diversity, tolerance, fairness, and respect for others can contribute to individuals feeling accepted.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.2 - Use evidence to describe how democratic principles such as equality, fairness, and respect for legitimate authority and rules have impacted individuals and communities.
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.1 - Use maps to identify physical features (e.g., continents, oceans, rivers, lakes, mountains).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.2 - Describe how maps are created for a specific purpose (e.g., school fire-drill map, route from home to school, learning centers in a classroom).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.3 - Identify and describe the properties of a variety of maps and globes (e.g., title, legend, cardinal directions, scale, symbols,) and purposes (wayfinding, thematic).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.4 - Identify examples of geospatial data (e.g., landmarks on the school grounds, the spatial location of each student's assigned seat in the classroom, needs more thought).

NJSLS ELA Reading

- RL.CR.K.1. - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).

Social Studies Grade K

- RL.CI.K.2. - With prompting and support, identify the central message and retell familiar literary texts, including key details (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.IT.K.3. - With prompting and support, identify characters, settings, and major events in a story.
- L.VL.K.2. With prompting and support, ask and answer questions to help determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on kindergarten reading and content.
- RL.TS.K.4. Recognize common types of literary texts (e.g. storybooks, poems) and identify features of print (front cover, back cover, and title page of a book).
- RL.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a story and define the role of each in telling the story.
- RL.MF.K.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the story in which they appear (e.g., what moment in a story an illustration depicts).
- RI.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a text and define the role of each in presenting the ideas or information in a text.
- RI.MFK.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the text in which they appear (e.g., what person, place, thing, or idea in the text an illustration depicts).

NJSLS Reading Foundational Skills

- L.RF.K.1. - Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.
- L.RF.K.2. - Demonstrate understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes).
- L.RF.K.3 - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding and encoding words.
- L.RF.K.4. - Read emergent-reader texts (decodable texts, including words with one-to-one letter-sound correspondences) orally with sufficient decoding accuracy to support comprehension.

NJSLS ELA Writing

- W.NW.K.3. - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate real or imagined experiences or events.
- W.WP.K.4. - With prompts and support, recognize that writing carries a message and should make sense to others.

NJSLS ELA Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.K.1 - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about kindergarten topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
 - A. Follow agreed upon norms for discussions (e.g. listening to others with care and taking turns speaking about topics and texts under discussion).
 - B. Continue a conversation through multiple exchanges.
- SL.II.K.2- Confirm understanding of a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media by asking and answering questions about key details and requesting clarification if something is not understood.
- SL.ES.K.3 - Ask and answer questions in order to seek help, get information, or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.K.4. - Describe familiar people, places, things, and events and, with prompting and support, provide additional detail.
- SL.UM.K.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.
- SL.AS.K.6. - Speak audibly and express thoughts, feelings, and ideas clearly.

Interdisciplinary Connections:

The texts/activities in this unit will support the learning and understanding of the necessity of rules, character education, different perspectives, good sportsmanship, collaboration, and the relationship between the needs of different plants or animals (including humans) and the places they live.

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s):

Performance Based Assessment:

- Social Studies Task: Brainstorm, Collect information, Scholars will discuss about their home-What is it like? What do they do there?-Why is it a good place to live?
- Narrative Task: Children will choose an animal from Where Is Home, Little Pip? or A House For Hermit Crab. They will tell about the animal and its home.
- Scholars will:
 - draw a picture of an animal and its home.
 - draw, dictate, or write one thing that could happen at the animal's home.

Student Self-Assessment(s):

- Social Studies - Turn and Talk: What is Little Pip's home like? What kind of home is Hermit Crab looking for?

Unit Title: Unit 2 Module B - Understanding Then and Now

Overview: This unit of study focuses on understanding change over a period of time. Students will engage with the quest to model civic-minded, globally aware, and socially responsible citizenship and contribute to their local, state, national, and global communities. Considering multiple perspectives, valuing diversity, and promoting cultural understanding are the goals.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.GeoPP.1 - Explain the different physical and human characteristics that might make a location a good place to live (e.g., landforms, climate and weather, resource availability).
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.1 - Determine what makes a good rule or law.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.2 - Cite evidence that explains why rules and laws are necessary at home, in schools, and in communities.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.3 - Analyze classroom rules and routines and describe how they are designed to benefit the common good.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.4 - Explain why teachers, local community leaders, and other adults have a responsibility to make rules that are fair, consistent, and respectful of individual rights.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.3 - Explain how individuals work with different levels of government to make rules.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.4 - Explain how all people, not just official leaders, play important roles in a community.

Social Studies Grade K

- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.5 - Describe how communities work to accomplish common tasks, establish responsibilities, and fulfill roles of authority.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.1 - Describe why it is important that individuals assume personal and civic responsibilities in a democratic society.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.2 - Use examples from a variety of sources to describe how certain characteristics can help individuals collaborate and solve problems (e.g., open-mindedness, compassion, civility, persistence).
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.3 - Explain how diversity, tolerance, fairness, and respect for others can contribute to individuals feeling accepted.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.2 - Use evidence to describe how democratic principles such as equality, fairness, and respect for legitimate authority and rules have impacted individuals and communities.
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.1 - Use maps to identify physical features (e.g., continents, oceans, rivers, lakes, mountains).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.2 - Describe how maps are created for a specific purpose (e.g., school fire-drill map, route from home to school, learning centers in a classroom).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.3 - Identify and describe the properties of a variety of maps and globes (e.g., title, legend, cardinal directions, scale, symbols,) and purposes (wayfinding, thematic).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.4 - Identify examples of geospatial data (e.g., landmarks on the school grounds, the spatial location of each student's assigned seat in the classroom, needs more thought).

NJSLS ELA Reading

- RL.CR.K.1. - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.CI.K.2. - With prompting and support, identify the central message and retell familiar literary texts, including key details (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.IT.K.3. - With prompting and support, identify characters, settings, and major events in a story.
- L.VL.K.2. - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions to help determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on kindergarten reading and content.
- RL.TS.K.4. Recognize common types of literary texts (e.g. storybooks, poems) and identify features of print (front cover, back cover, and title page of a book).
- RL.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a story and define the role of each in telling the story.
- RL.MF.K.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the story in which they appear (e.g., what moment in a story an illustration depicts).
- RI.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a text and define the role of each in presenting the ideas or information in a text.
- RI.MFK.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the text in which they appear (e.g., what person, place, thing, or idea in the text an illustration depicts).

NJSLS Reading Foundational Skills

- L.RF.K.1. - Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.
- L.RF.K.2. - Demonstrate understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes).
- L.RF.K.3 - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding and encoding words.
- L.RF.K.4. - Read emergent-reader texts (decodable texts, including words with one-to-one letter-sound correspondences) orally with sufficient decoding accuracy to support comprehension.

NJSLS ELA Writing

Social Studies Grade K

- W.NW.K.3. - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate real or imagined experiences or events.
- W.WP.K.4. - With prompts and support, recognize that writing carries a message and should make sense to others.

NJSLS ELA Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.K.1 - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about kindergarten topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
 - A. Follow agreed upon norms for discussions (e.g. listening to others with care and taking turns speaking about topics and texts under discussion).
 - B. Continue a conversation through multiple exchanges.
- SL.II.K.2- Confirm understanding of a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media by asking and answering questions about key details and requesting clarification if something is not understood.
- SL.ES.K.3 - Ask and answer questions in order to seek help, get information, or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.K.4. - Describe familiar people, places, things, and events and, with prompting and support, provide additional detail.
- SL.UM.K.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.
- SL.AS.K.6. - Speak audibly and express thoughts, feelings, and ideas clearly.

NJSLS Career Readiness, Life Literacies and Key Skills

Standard	Performance Expectations	Core Ideas
9.4.2.CI.1	Demonstrate openness to new ideas and perspectives.	Brainstorming can create new, innovative ideas.
9.4.2.CI.2	Demonstrate originality and inventiveness in work.

Central Idea/Enduring Understanding:

Social Studies:

- Creativity and innovation have led to improvements in lifestyle, access to information, and the creation of new products.

Reading/Writing:

- Readers understand that asking questions helps them understand a text.
- Writers understand that they can state an opinion through words and illustrations.
- Learners understand that people’s lives “then” were similar to and different from our lives today.

Content:

Social Studies:

- Farming Then and Now by Charles R. Smith
- An informational text comparing farm work

Essential/Guiding Question:

Social Studies:

- How has creativity and innovation led to improvements in lifestyle?
- How has creativity and innovation led to the creation of new products?
- How has creativity and innovation led to the improvements in access to information?
- What role has science and technology played in the transition from an agricultural society to an industrial society, and then to the information age?
- How has the development of communications systems led to increased collaboration among people?

Reading/Writing:

- How do readers ask questions to help them understand informational texts?
- How do writers use illustrations to help them state an opinion?

Skills(Objectives):

Social Studies:

- Creativity and Innovation
- Advances in Science and Technology

Unit Title: Unit 3 Module B - Predicting Change

Overview: This unit of study focuses on predicting change. Students will engage with the quest to model civic-minded, globally aware, and socially responsible citizenship and contribute to their local, state, national, and global communities. Considering multiple perspectives, valuing diversity, and promoting cultural understanding are the goals.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:
NJSLS Social Studies

Social Studies Grade K

- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.3 - Identify cultural and environmental characteristics of different regions in New Jersey and the United States.
- 6.1.2.Geo.PP.1 - Explain the different physical and human characteristics that might make a location a good place to live (e.g., landforms, climate and weather, resource availability).
- 6.1.2.Civics.CM.2 - Use examples from a variety of sources to describe how certain characteristics can help individuals collaborate and solve problems (e.g., open-mindedness, compassion, civility, persistence).
- 6.1.2.Civics.CM.3: Explain how diversity, tolerance, fairness, and respect for others can contribute to individuals feeling accepted.

NJSLS ELA Reading

- RL.CR.K.1 - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.CI.K.2 - With prompting and support, identify the central message and retell familiar literary texts, including key details (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.IT.K.3 - With prompting and support, identify characters, settings, and major events in a story.
- L.VL.K.2 - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions to help determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on kindergarten reading and content.
- RL.TS.K.4 - Recognize common types of literary texts (e.g. storybooks, poems) and identify features of print (front cover, back cover, and title page of a book).
- RL.PP.K.5 - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a story and define the role of each in telling the story.
- RL.MF.K.6 - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the story in which they appear (e.g., what moment in a story an illustration depicts).
- RI.PP.K.5 - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a text and define the role of each in presenting the ideas or information in a text.
- RI.MFK.6 - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the text in which they appear (e.g., what person, place, thing, or idea in the text an illustration depicts).

NJSLS Reading Foundational Skills

- L.RF.K.1 - Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.
- L.RF.K.2 - Demonstrate understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes).
- L.RF.K.3 - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding and encoding words.
- L.RF.K.4 - Read emergent-reader texts (decodable texts, including words with one-to-one letter-sound correspondences) orally with sufficient decoding accuracy to support comprehension.

NJSLS ELA Writing

- W.NW.K.3 - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate real or imagined experiences or events.
- W.WP.K.4 - With prompts and support, recognize that writing carries a message and should make sense to others.

NJSLS ELA Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.K.1 - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about kindergarten topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
 - A. Follow agreed upon norms for discussions (e.g. listening to others with care and taking turns speaking about topics and texts under discussion).
 - B. Continue a conversation through multiple exchanges.

Social Studies Grade K

- SL.II.K.2- Confirm understanding of a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media by asking and answering questions about key details and requesting clarification if something is not understood.
- SL.ES.K.3 - Ask and answer questions in order to seek help, get information, or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.K.4. - Describe familiar people, places, things, and events and, with prompting and support, provide additional detail.
- SL.UM.K.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.
- SL.AS.K.6. - Speak audibly and express thoughts, feelings, and ideas clearly.

Effective strategies for accessing sources of information and historical evidence, determining their validity, and using them to solve a problem or find a solution to a public policy:

Skills	K-5
Chronological Thinking	-Place key historical events and people in historical eras using timelines -Explain how the present is connected to the past
Spatial Thinking	-Determine locations of places and interpret information available on maps and globes -Use thematic maps and other geographic representations to obtain, describe, and compare spatial patterns and information about people, places, regions, and environments.
Critical Thinking	-Distinguish fact from fiction -Identify and interpret a variety of primary and secondary sources for reconstructing the past (e.g., documents, letters, diaries, maps, photos, etc.).
Presentational Skills	-Use evidence to support an idea in a digital, oral, and/or written form -Share information about a topic in an organized manner (e.g., provide a coherent line of reasoning with supporting/relevant evidence details, speaking clearly, and at an appropriate pace.

Holocaust Education is an important area of a balanced and inclusive Social Studies program. It is infused into teaching by including the following topics:

- Exploring the Uniqueness of Each Person
- Understanding and Applying Respect, Trust, and Caring
- Bullying
- Friendship
- Cultural Contributions of Ethnicities
- Prejudice
- Standing Up for What is Right
- Laws and Rules for Peace and Harmony

Amistad Bill (A1301), which became law in 2002, calls on New Jersey schools to integrate the history and contributions of African-Americans into the social studies curriculum, in order to provide an accurate, complete, and inclusive history.

9.1.5.FP.4	Explain the role of spending money and how it affects wellbeing and happiness (e.g., "happy money," experiences over things, donating to causes, anticipation, etc.).	Spending choices and their intended and unintended consequences impact financial outcomes and personal wellbeing.

Central Idea/Enduring Understanding:

Social Studies:

- The world is composed of nations that are similar to and different from the United States.
- In an interconnected world, it is important to consider different cultural perspectives before proposing solutions to local, state, national, and global challenges.
- Regions form and change as a result of unique physical/ecological conditions, economies, and cultures.
- Cultures include traditions, popular beliefs, and commonly held values, ideas, and assumptions that are generally accepted by a particular group of people.
- Cultures struggle to maintain traditions in a changing society.
- Historical symbols and the ideas and events they represent play a role in understanding and evaluating our history.
- The cultures with which an individual or group identifies change and evolve in response to interactions with other groups and/or in response to needs or concerns.
- People view and interpret events differently because of the times in which they live, the experiences they have had, the perspectives held by their cultures, and their individual points of view.

Reading/Writing:

- Readers understand that characters have similar experiences in different stories.
- Writers understand that using time-order words puts events in sequence.
- Learners understand that different cultures share similar experiences.

Essential/Guiding Question:

Social Studies:

- How are other nations similar to and different from the United States?
- Why is it important for people from diverse cultures to collaborate to find solutions to challenges?
- How does human interaction impact the environment?
- How are the regions of the United States similar and different?
- How is culture expressed through and influenced by the behavior of people?
- How have various cultural groups dealt with the conflict between maintaining traditional beliefs and practices and adopting new ones?
- How do people celebrate national holidays?
- How can an individual's beliefs, values, and traditions reflect more than one culture?
- How can one's experiences and events be interpreted differently by people with different cultural or individual perspectives?
- Why is it important to understand the perspectives of other cultures in an interconnected world?

Reading/Writing:

- How do readers compare and contrast the experiences of different characters?
- How do writers identify the sequence of events in a story?

Social Studies Grade K

Unit Title: Unit 4 Module B - Learning About Each Other and the World

Overview: This unit of study focuses on learning about each other and the world. Students will engage with the quest to model civic-minded, globally aware, and socially responsible citizenship and contribute to their local, state, national, and global communities. Considering multiple perspectives, valuing diversity, and promoting cultural understanding are the goals.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.HistorySE.1 - Use examples of regional folk heroes, stories, and/or songs and make inferences about how they have contributed to the development of a culture's history.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.1 - Explain how national symbols reflect on American values and principles.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.3 - Explain how historical symbols, monuments and holidays reflect the shared values, principles, and beliefs of the American identity.
- 6.1.2.EconEM.1 - Describe the skills and knowledge required to produce specific goods and services.
- 6.1.2.EconEM.2 - Describe the goods and services that individuals and businesses in the local community produce and those that are produced in other communities.
- 6.1.2.EconEM.3 - Identify the ways in which people exchange(d) goods and services today, and in the past (e.g., purchase, borrow, barter).

NJSLS ELA Reading

- RL.CR.K.1. - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.CI.K.2. - With prompting and support, identify the central message and retell familiar literary texts, including key details (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.IT.K.3. - With prompting and support, identify characters, settings, and major events in a story.
- L.VL.K.2. With prompting and support, ask and answer questions to help determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on kindergarten reading and content.
- RL.TS.K.4. Recognize common types of literary texts (e.g. storybooks, poems) and identify features of print (front cover, back cover, and title page of a book).
- RL.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a story and define the role of each in telling the story.
- RL.MF.K.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the story in which they appear (e.g., what moment in a story an illustration depicts).
- RI.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a text and define the role of each in presenting the ideas or information in a text.
- RI.MFK.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the text in which they appear (e.g., what person, place, thing, or idea in the text an illustration depicts).

NJSLS Reading Foundational Skills

- L.RF.K.1. - Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.
- L.RF.K.2. - Demonstrate understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes).
- L.RF.K.3 - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding and encoding words.
- L.RF.K.4. - Read emergent-reader texts (decodable texts, including words with one-to-one letter-sound correspondences) orally with sufficient decoding accuracy to support comprehension.

Social Studies Grade K

NJSLS ELA Writing

- W.NW.K.3. - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate real or imagined experiences or events.
- W.WP.K.4. - With prompts and support, recognize that writing carries a message and should make sense to others.

NJSLS ELA Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.K.1 - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about kindergarten topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
 - A. Follow agreed upon norms for discussions (e.g. listening to others with care and taking turns speaking about topics and texts under discussion).
 - B. Continue a conversation through multiple exchanges.
- SL.II.K.2- Confirm understanding of a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media by asking and answering questions about key details and requesting clarification if something is not understood.
- SL.ES.K.3 - Ask and answer questions in order to seek help, get information, or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.K.4. - Describe familiar people, places, things, and events and, with prompting and support, provide additional detail.
- SL.UM.K.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.
- SL.AS.K.6. - Speak audibly and express thoughts, feelings, and ideas clearly.

9.1.5.FP.4	Explain the role of spending money and how it affects wellbeing and happiness (e.g., "happy money," experiences over things, donating to causes, anticipation, etc.).	Spending choices and their intended and unintended consequences impact financial outcomes and personal wellbeing.

Central Idea/Enduring Understanding:

Social Studies:

- The world is composed of nations that are similar to and different from the United States.
- Cultures include traditions, popular beliefs, and commonly held values, ideas, and assumptions that are generally accepted by a particular group of people.
- Cultures struggle to maintain traditions in a changing society.
- The cultures with which an individual or group identifies change and evolve in response to interactions with other groups and/or in response to needs or concerns.
- People view and interpret events differently because of the times in which they live, the experiences they have had, the perspectives held by their culture, and their individual points of view.

Reading/Writing:

- Readers understand that information in texts may have a variety of text features.

Essential/Guiding Question:

Social Studies:

- How are other nations similar to and different from the United States?
- How is culture expressed through and influenced by the behavior of people?
- How have various cultural groups dealt with the conflict between maintaining traditional beliefs and practices and adopting new ones?
- How can an individual’s beliefs, values, and traditions reflect more than one culture?
- How can one’s experiences and events be interpreted differently by people with different cultural or individual perspectives?

Reading/Writing:

- How do readers use text features to better understand an informational text.

Unit Title: - Unit 6 Module A - Exploring Communities

Overview: This unit of study focuses on exploring communities. Students will engage with the quest to model civic-minded, globally aware, and socially responsible citizenship and contribute to their local, state, national, and global communities. Considering multiple perspectives, valuing diversity, and promoting cultural understanding are the goals.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies:

- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.1 - Describe roles and responsibilities of community and local government leaders (e.g., mayor, town council).

Social Studies Grade K

- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.2 - Investigate the importance of services provided by the local government to meet the needs and ensure the safety of community members.
- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.4 - Investigate the relationship between the physical environment of a place and the economic activities found there.
- 6.1.2.EconET.5 - Describe how local and state governments make decisions that affect individuals and the community.
- 6.1.2.EconGE.2 - Explain why people in one country trade goods and services with people in other countries.
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.1 - Use maps to identify physical features (e.g., continents, oceans, rivers, lakes, mountains).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.2 - Describe how maps are created for a specific purpose (e.g., school fire-drill map, route from home to school, learning centers in a classroom).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.3 - Identify and describe the properties of a variety of maps and globes (e.g., title, legend, cardinal directions, scale, symbols,) and purposes (wayfinding, thematic).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.4 - Identify examples of geospatial data (e.g., landmarks on the school grounds, the spatial location of each student's assigned seat in the classroom, needs more thought).

NJSLS ELA Reading

- RL.CR.K.1. - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.CI.K.2. - With prompting and support, identify the central message and retell familiar literary texts, including key details (e.g., who, what, when, where, why, how).
- RL.IT.K.3. - With prompting and support, identify characters, settings, and major events in a story.
- L.VL.K.2. - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions to help determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on kindergarten reading and content.
- RL.TS.K.4. Recognize common types of literary texts (e.g. storybooks, poems) and identify features of print (front cover, back cover, and title page of a book).
- RL.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a story and define the role of each in telling the story.
- RL.MF.K.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the story in which they appear (e.g., what moment in a story an illustration depicts).
- RI.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a text and define the role of each in presenting the ideas or information in a text.
- RI.MFK.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the text in which they appear (e.g., what person, place, thing, or idea in the text an illustration depicts).

NJSLS Reading Foundational Skills

- L.RF.K.1. - Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.
- L.RF.K.2. - Demonstrate understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes).
- L.RF.K.3 - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding and encoding words.
- L.RF.K.4. - Read emergent-reader texts (decodable texts, including words with one-to-one letter-sound correspondences) orally with sufficient decoding accuracy to support comprehension.

NJSLS ELA Writing

- W.NW.K.3. - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate real or imagined experiences or events.
- W.WP.K.4. - With prompts and support, recognize that writing carries a message and should make sense to others.

Social Studies Grade K

NJSLS ELA Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.K.1 - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about kindergarten topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
 - A. Follow agreed upon norms for discussions (e.g. listening to others with care and taking turns speaking about topics and texts under discussion).
 - B. Continue a conversation through multiple exchanges.
- SL.II.K.2- Confirm understanding of a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media by asking and answering questions about key details and requesting clarification if something is not understood.
- SL.ES.K.3 - Ask and answer questions in order to seek help, get information, or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.K.4. - Describe familiar people, places, things, and events and, with prompting and support, provide additional detail.
- SL.UM.K.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.
- SL.AS.K.6. - Speak audibly and express thoughts, feelings, and ideas clearly.

NJSLS Social Studies Skills Table -

Effective strategies for accessing sources of information and historical evidence, determining their validity, and using them to solve a problem or find a solution to a public policy:

Skills	K-5
Chronological Thinking	-Place key historical events and people in historical eras using timelines -Explain how the present is connected to the past
Spatial Thinking	-Determine locations of places and interpret information available on maps and globes -Use thematic maps and other geographic representations to obtain, describe, and compare spatial patterns and information about people, places, regions, and environments.
Critical Thinking	-Distinguish fact from fiction -Identify and interpret a variety of primary and secondary sources for reconstructing the past (e.g., documents, letters, diaries, maps, photos, etc.).
Presentational Skills	-Use evidence to support an idea in a digital, oral, and/or written form -Share information about a topic in an organized manner (e.g., provide a coherent line of reasoning with supporting/relevant evidence details, speaking clearly, and at an appropriate pace.

Holocaust Education is an important area of a balanced and inclusive Social Studies program. It is infused into teaching by including the following topics:

- Exploring the Uniqueness of Each Person
- Understanding and Applying Respect, Trust, and Caring
- Bullying
- Friendship
- Cultural Contributions of Ethnicities
- Prejudice
- Standing Up for What is Right

Social Studies Grade K

- Laws and Rules for Peace and Harmony

Amistad Bill (A1301), which became law in 2002, calls on New Jersey schools to integrate the history and contributions of African-Americans into the social studies curriculum, in order to provide an accurate, complete, and inclusive history.

Read alouds of exemplary children’s literature that include characters from various ethnicities, African-American contributions, problem solving, friendship, and leadership readily meet the requirements of including Holocaust Education and Amistad in the Social Studies curriculum.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies and Key Skills

Standard	Performance Expectations	Core Ideas
9.4.2.GCA:1	Explain why people in one country trade goods and services with people in other countries.	There are benefits to trading goods and services with other countries.

Central Idea/Enduring Understanding:

Social Studies:

- Rules and laws are developed to protect people’s rights and the security and welfare of society.
- In a representative democracy, individuals elect representatives to act on the behalf of the people.
- The United States democratic system requires active participation of its citizens.
- Spatial thinking and geographic tools can be used to describe and analyze the spatial patterns and organization of people, places, and environments on Earth.
- The physical environment can both accommodate and be endangered by human activities.
- Patterns of settlement across Earth’s surface differ markedly from region to region, place to place, and time to time.
- Economics is a driving force for the occurrence of various events and phenomena in societies.
- Interaction among various institutions in the local, national, and global economies influence policymaking and societal outcomes.
- Personal, family, and community history is a source of information for individuals about the people and places around them.

Essential/Guiding Question:

Social Studies:

- How do rules and laws created by community, state, and national governments protect the rights of people, help resolve conflict, and promote the common good?
- How does government function at the community, county, state, and national levels, how are services provided, and what is the impact of policy decisions made at each level?
- How are the fundamental rights of the individual and the common good of the country dependent upon active participation of its citizens?
- What kind of information can be found on a map of a community?
- How does human interaction impact the environment?
- Why are some locations more suited for settlement than other locations in New Jersey and the United States?
- How are goods and services exchanged?
- What is the relationship between businesses in a community and the people that live there?
- How have local and state communities changed over time and what are the reasons for the change?

Unit Title: Gr.K Holidays/Observances/Events

Overview: This unit of study focuses on the recognition of the nuances of one's own and other cultures. Students will engage in the quest to use academic, experiential, and interpersonal skills to increase their understanding and appreciation of cultural differences and similarities within, among, and between groups of people.

Social Studies Grade K

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies:

- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.4: Explain how all people, not just official leaders, play important roles in a community.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.5: Describe how communities work to accomplish common tasks, establish responsibilities, and fulfill roles of authority.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPD.1: Engage in discussions effectively by asking questions, considering facts, listening to the ideas of others, and sharing opinions.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPD.2: Establish a process for how individuals can effectively work together to make decisions.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.1: Explain how national symbols reflect on American values and principles.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.2: Use evidence to describe how democratic principles such as equality, fairness, and respect for legitimate authority and rules have impacted individuals and communities.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.3: Explain how historical symbols, monuments and holidays reflect the shared values, principles, and beliefs of the American identity.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.1: Determine what makes a good rule or law.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.2: Cite evidence that explains why rules and laws are necessary at home, in schools, and in communities.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.3: Analyze classroom rules and routines and describe how they are designed to benefit the common good.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.4: Explain why teachers, local community leaders, and other adults have a responsibility to make rules that are fair, consistent, and respectful of individual rights.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.2: Use examples from a variety of sources to describe how certain characteristics can help individuals collaborate and solve problems (e.g., open-mindedness, compassion, civility, persistence).
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.3: Explain how diversity, tolerance, fairness, and respect for others can contribute to individuals feeling accepted.
- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.1: Explain how seasonal weather changes, climate, and other environmental characteristics affect people's lives in a place or region.
- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.3: Identify cultural and environmental characteristics of different regions in New Jersey and the United States.
- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.1: Use multiple sources to create a chronological sequence of events that describes how and why your community has changed over time.
- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.2: Use a timeline of important events to make inferences about the "big picture" of history.
- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.3: Make inferences about how past events, individuals, and innovations affect our current lives.
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.1: Use primary sources representing multiple perspectives to compare and make inferences about why there are different accounts of the same event.
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.2: Use evidence to demonstrate how an individual's beliefs, values, and traditions may change and/or reflect more than one culture.
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.3: Use examples from the past and present to describe how stereotyping and prejudice can lead to conflict.
- 6.1.2.HistorySE.1: Use examples of regional folk heroes, stories, and/or songs and make inferences about how they have contributed to the development of a culture's history.

Social Studies Grade K

- 6.1.2.HistorySE.2: Analyze a variety of sources describing the same event and make inferences about why the accounts are different (e.g., photographs, paintings, cartoons, newspapers, poetry, novels, plays).
- 6.1.2.HistorySE.3: Use historical data from a variety of sources to investigate the development of a local community (e.g., origins of its name, originating members, important historical events and places).
- 6.1.2.HistoryCA.1: Make an evidence-based argument how and why communities change over time (e.g., locally, nationally, globally).

NJSLS ELA Reading

- RI.CR.K.1. - With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in an informational text (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RI.CI.K.2. - With prompting and support, identify the main topic and key details of an informational text (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RI.IT.K.3. - With prompting and support, describe the connection between two individuals, events, ideas, or pieces of information in a text.
- RI.TS.K.4. - Recognize common types of informational texts (e.g., biography, recipes, how-to manuals) and identify features of print (e.g., front cover, back cover, and title page of a book).
- RI.PP.K.5. - With prompting and support, name the author and illustrator of a text and define the role of each in presenting the ideas or information in a text.
- RI.MF.K.6. - With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the text in which they appear (e.g., what person, place, thing, or idea in the text an illustration depicts).
- RI.AA.K.7. - With prompting and support, identify the reasons an author gives to support points in a text.
- RI.CT.K.8. - With prompting and support, identify basic similarities in and differences between two informational texts on the same topic (e.g., characters, experiences, illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).

NJSLS ELA Writing:

- W.AW.K.1. - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose opinion pieces on topics or texts (e.g., My favorite book is...)
- W.IW.K.2. - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose informative/explanatory texts to convey ideas. (Introduce a topic. Develop a topic with at least two facts or other information and examples related to the topic, including pictures).
- W.NW.K.3 - Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate real or imagined experience or events (Provide a reaction to the experience or events.)
- W.WR.K.5. - With guidance and support from adults, generate questions through shared research in response to a topic, text, or stimulus (e.g., event, photograph, video, book).
- W.SE.K.6 - With guidance and support from adults, recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.
- W.RW.K.7 - With prompting and support, engage in brief but regular writing and drawing tasks.

NJSLS ELA Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.K.1. - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about kindergarten topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
 - A. Follow agreed-upon norms for discussions (e.g., listening to others with care and taking turns speaking about the topics and texts under discussion).
 - B. Continue a conversation through multiple exchanges.

Social Studies Grade K

- SL.II.K.2. - Confirm understanding of a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media by asking and answering questions about key details and requesting clarification if something is not understood.
- SL.ES.K.3. - Ask and answer questions in order to seek help, get information, or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.K.4. - Describe familiar people, places, things, and events and, with prompting and support, provide additional detail.
- SL.UM.K.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.

- Women's History month is celebrated to honor the important contributions and accomplishments of women.
- Diversity Month is observed in April. It is a time to recognize and honor the diversity that surrounds us in all aspects of our lives.
- Emancipation Day is a holiday in Washington D.C. to mark the anniversary of the signing of the Compensated Emancipation Act, which president Abraham Lincoln signed on April 16, 1862.
- Earth Day and Arbor Day are used to display support for environmental protection.
- Asian Pacific Heritage Month is a celebration of Asians and Pacific Islanders in the United States. It is a month dedicated to exploring and honoring the cultures and to recognize the contributions of Asian Americans and Pacific Islander Americans to the United States.
- Memorial Day is observed on the last Monday of May. It commemorates all men and women who have died in military service for the United States.
- Flag Day is celebrated on June 14 in the United States. It commemorated the adoption of the flag of the United States of America.
- Juneteenth is a celebration commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States. The Emancipation Proclamation became official on January 1, 1863 but it wasn't until June 19, 1865 that the news reached Galveston, Texas that all enslaved were now free.
- Labor Day was created by the labor movement in the late 19th century. It became a federal holiday in 1894. Labor Day pays tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers.
- Commodore John Barry was an important figure in American history. He is known as "The Father of the American Navy". He was given the important task of putting together our navy as the American colonies were fighting for independence from England and was made a Captain in the Continental Navy. Commodore Barry remained head of the navy until his death on September 13, 1803. The Commodore Barry Bridge, in honor of Commodore John Barry, opened in 1974 which crosses the Delaware River connecting Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

- National Hispanic Heritage Month is observed from September 15 - October 15 each year. During this month, Americans celebrate the histories, cultures, and contributions of American citizens whose ancestors came from Spain, Mexico, the Caribbean, and Central and South America. We honor the contributions that Latinos have made to the nation, and also honor the cultural richness of Hispanics (who come from Mexico, Central America, South America, and the Caribbean).
Mexican Independence Day - On September 16, Mexicans around the world celebrate the anniversary of the country's independence from Spain.
- Constitution Day is observed on September 17 to commemorate the signing of the Constitution on September 17, 1787. Delegates to the Constitutional Convention met for the last time to sign the document.
- National Indigenous People Day is a U.S. holiday that commemorates the landing in the New World on October 12, 1492. We explore how the discovery affected the Native American peoples.
- Veteran's Day is a national holiday celebrated on November 11 to honor military veterans for their service. World War I – known at the time as “The Great War” - officially ended when the Treaty of Versailles was signed on June 28, 1919, in the Palace of Versailles outside the town of Versailles, France. However, fighting ceased seven months earlier when an armistice or temporary cessation of hostilities, between the Allied nations and Germany went into effect on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. For that reason, November 11, 1918, is generally regarded as the end of “the war to end all wars.”
- Thanksgiving Day is a national holiday that is celebrated on the 4th Thursday of November each year. The first Thanksgiving was celebrated by the Pilgrim colonists and the Wampanoag Native Americans in 1621 in which both groups of people shared an autumn harvest that lasted three days.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

- Martin’s Big Words by D. Rappaport (or similar book)

Social Studies Grade K

- Read aloud Martin's Big Words by D. Rappaport. Discuss why Martin Luther King's speeches had such a great impact on America.
- Have students share information they know about Dr. King and record on a KWL chart. Read A Picture Book of Martin Luther King, Jr. by David A. Adler. Encourage children to share the connections they are making between Dr. King's childhood and their own.

Holocaust Remembrance Day

- Read aloud What Makes Us Unique by Dr. Jillian Roberts. Explain to students that we are all different. Have students draw a picture of themselves and have them write or share one thing that makes them special or unique.
- Listen/watch Harry Kindergarten Song - We Show Acceptance. Have students turn and talk with a partner about how they are different and alike from one another.

Freedom Day

- Read One by Kathryn Otoshi. Discuss with students rights and freedoms. Have students identify who had the power, who were oppressed, what ended the oppression, and what can be done to prevent it in the future.

Black History Month

- Watch the video/song Black People Who Change the World. Have students draw a picture of how they can change the world or what they would like to be when they grow up.
- Watch the video Civil Rights Act of 1964 - Montgomery Bus Boycott for Kids. Have the students use words to describe Rosa Parks (brave, strong, hero, etc.)
- Read Mae Among The Stars by Roda Ahmed. Discuss how Mae Jemison persevered. Mae believed in something and worked hard for it and she was able to attain it. Give students a blank piece of paper and have them follow a direct drawing of a rocketship.
- Listen to Karamo Brown read, I Am Perfectly Designed. A father and son share memories, talk about their feelings, and find strength in being exactly who they are. Have students identify something they love about themselves.

Presidents' Day

- Read President's Day by Anne Rockwell or The Little President: A Presidential Primer by Joan Holub. Discuss with students George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and other presidents of the United States of America.
- George Washington and Abraham Lincoln Craft: Using Construction paper to create faces of both presidents, including key details (hats, beards, hair, etc) to easily identify each president.
- Writing Task: If I Were President
- Read Duck for President by Doreen Cronin. Discuss with students if they would want to become the President. Have students create campaign posters, using words and phrases to describe themselves.

Women's History

- Read aloud A is For Awesome by Eva Chen and discuss 23 iconic women in history. Have students select an iconic woman and tell about her.

Diversity Month

- Read All Are Welcome by Alexandra Penfold and discuss the word "diversity".
- Read It's Okay to be Different by Todd Parr and have students create a self portrait.
- Read We're Different, We're the Same by Bobbi Kates and have students share interests, discuss similarities and differences.
- Have families share traditions, music, or food that is unique to their culture.

Emancipation Day

- Read aloud Aunt Harriet's Underground Railroad in the Sky by Faith Ringgold. Discuss how an underground railroad is not a train, but a way people helped each other. Students create a picture of something they can do because they are free and write a sentence about what they can do. Scaffold writing according to student ability.

Earth Day and Arbor Day

- Students watch/sing Earth Day Song and do a turn and talk to brainstorm how they can care for the Earth.
- Writing Task: I can care for my Earth by...

- Earth craft: Paper plate with small pieces of blue and green paper to look like the Earth.
- Read a book about trees and discuss their importance.
- Watch a video clip of Arbor Day facts for kids.
- Plant seeds to grow new trees and/or plants.
- Create a bark rubbing using paper and a crayon.

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month

- Demonstrate Southeast Asia and the Pacific Islands on a map on Smartboard and point out specific lands or islands that students may be unfamiliar with (Samoa, Fiji, etc.).
- Show clips of Polynesian dances (resources attached). Discuss that Polynesian culture and traditions have influenced the United States. Focus on how Polynesian dances and the clothing worn have become accepted in the United States and in many movies that the students are familiar with, such as Moana and Lilo and Stitch.
- Students learn and practice Polynesian dance moves (dance video resource attached). Students can perform Polynesian dance steps for other staff, students, and parents.

Memorial Day

- Read the story Hero Dad by Melinda Hardin. Discuss the terms courage, bravery, and heroism with students. Have students draw a picture of something they did that was brave. Discuss the importance of Memorial Day and how Americans show their pride on American holidays. Have students create a windsock with construction paper and streamers.

Flag Day

- Read aloud I Pledge Allegiance by Bill Martin, Jr. Discuss the meaning of the words to "The Pledge of Allegiance." Discuss why the flag has 13 stripes and 50 stars. Students use construction paper and other art materials to make an American flag. Have students use their flags in a patriotic parade to celebrate Memorial Day or Flag Day.
- Review the word, patriotism and what it means. Discuss that people show patriotism by displaying the American flag. Students think of reasons to fly the flag. Students draw a self-portrait, add a picture of the American flag to

Juneteenth

- Explain to students that Juneteenth is a celebration of freedom. One of those freedoms was the freedom to learn. Slaves were kept from learning to read and write until slavery was abolished. Show students pictures of African-American inventors and their inventions. Discuss their contributions.

Labor Day

- Explain to students that labor day celebrates the contributions of workers in America. Show a short video about Labor Day facts for kids.
- Read the story Clifford Gets a Job by Norman Bridell. Make a word web of different kinds of jobs. Students draw a picture of a job they would like to have.

Commodore Barry

- Discuss the contributions Commodore John Barry made to the United States and that he is known as the father of the United States Navy. Discuss how the term father is used to explain that someone helped start something or came up with a new idea. Students draw a picture of themselves starting something new.

Hispanic Heritage Month

- Read Amelia's Show and Tell Fiesta by Mimi Chapra (book from Journeys reading series). Discuss Amelia's island home and her special dress that she brings in for her first show and tell. Discuss why the dress is important to Amelia. Encourage students to bring in an item from home for show and tell that is special to them.
- Read *Gracias*Thanks* by Pat Mora. In this book, a Mexican-American boy discusses all of the things he is thankful for in Spanish and in English. After reading, make a class list of things in our world to be thankful for. Students will draw a picture of something they are thankful for. Can be made into a class book.
- Make a mini Pinata for an art project. Can read I Love Saturdays y Domingos from ReadyGen, or just display the illustration of the character hitting the pinata at her birthday party.

Constitution Day

- Read aloud We the Kids: The Preamble to the Constitution of the United States by David Catrow. Review the meaning of the Preamble with students. Discuss the diversity of the children depicted in the book.
- Discuss with students how the Constitution provides everyone with rights, like the right to own personal property. Explain that all citizens have these rights. Compare these rights to classroom rules and those rules help protect students' individual rights.

National Indigenous People Day

- Read the story Kamik: An Inuit Puppy Story. Discuss traditions of long ago and the history of Native Americans.
- Acknowledge the Native American peoples that were encountered and how they were affected.
- Watch the short video presented by Hey! Let's Go! to show the importance of Indigenous Peoples Day.

Veteran's Day

- Read Veterans - Heroes in Our Neighborhood by Valerie Pfundstein. Discuss with students the branches of the military.
- Discuss the importance of the Memorial Monument in Browns Mills located at the intersection of Trenton Road and Circle Drive. Have students draw a picture of a monument to honor future Veterans.
- History of Veteran's Day

Thanksgiving

- Discuss the first Thanksgiving by reading the book The Very First Thanksgiving Day by Rhonda Gowler Greene. Discuss characteristics of the Wampanoag Native Americans and the Pilgrims. Make a Native American craft (such as a paper bag Native American, Native American Headdress, or popsicle stick teepee). Make a Pilgrim craft (such as a pilgrim hat, Mayflower, or paper plate Pilgrim).
- Read the story Thanks for Thanksgiving by Julie Markes. Make a list of things to be thankful for. Discuss the meaning of the word gratitude. Have the students draw a picture of something they are thankful for.
