- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.2 - Cite evidence that explains why rules and laws are necessary at home, in schools, and in communities.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.3 - Analyze classroom rules and routines and describe how they are designed to benefit the common good.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.4 - Explain why teachers, local community leaders, and other adults have a responsibility to make rules that are fair, consistent, and respectful of individual rights.

NJSLS ELA Reading

- RL.CR.1.1. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RL.CI.1.2. - Determine the central message and retell a sequence of events in literary texts (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, or how).
- RL.IT.1.3. - Describe characters, settings, and major event(s) in a story, using key details.
- RL.TS.1.4. - With prompting and support, explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information recognizing organization and features of literary texts (e.g., follows a story line, chronology of events, interprets illustrations) while drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types.
- RL.MF.1.6. - Use illustrations and details in a story to describe its characters, setting, or events.
- RL.CT.1.8. - Identify similarities in and differences between two literary texts on the same topic (e.g., characters, experiences, illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).

NJSLS ELA Reading Foundational Skills

Social Studies Grade 1

- L.RF.1.1 - Demonstrate mastery of the organization and basic features of print (including those listed under L.RF.K.1); recognize and understand the distinguishing features of a sentence (e.g., first word, capitalization, ending punctuation).
- L.RF.1.2 - Demonstrate mastery of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes) by using knowledge that every syllable must have a vowel sound to determine the number of syllables in a printed word.
- L.RF.1.2.a - Distinguish long from short vowel sounds in spoken single-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.2.b - Orally produce single-syllable words by blending sounds (phonemes), including consonant blends.
- L.RF.1.2.c - Isolate and pronounce initial, medial vowel, and final sounds (phonemes) in spoken single-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.3 - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.
- L.RF.1.3.a - Know the spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs (two letters that represent one sound).
- L.RF.1.3.b - Decode regularly spelled one-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.3.c - Know final -e and common vowel team conventions for representing long vowel sounds.
- L.RF.1.4 - Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.
- L.RF.1.4.a - Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.
- L.RF.1.4.b - Read grade-level text orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression.
- L.RF.1.4.c - Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

NJSLS ELA Writing Foundational Skills

- L.WF.1.1 - Demonstrate command of the conventions of writing (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.1).
- L.WF.1.1.a - Write the upper and lowercase alphabets from memory.
- L.WF.1.2 - Demonstrate command of the conventions of encoding and spelling common, regular, single-syllable words, (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.2)
- L.WF.1.3 - Demonstrate command and use of the conventions of writing, (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.3):
- L.WF.1.3.c - Capitalize the first word of a sentence, days of the week, months, names of people, and proper names.
- L.WF.1.3.d - Match periods, question marks, and exclamation points to statements, questions, commands, and exclamations.
- L.WF.1.3.h - Elaborate a simple subject or simple predicate, in response to questions who, what, where, when, how, or why.
- L.VI.1.3 - With guidance and support from adults, demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships and nuances in word meanings.
- L.VI.1.3.a - Identify words and phrases in stories or poems that suggest feelings or appeal to the senses.
- L.VI.1.3.b - Sort words into categories (e.g., colors, clothing) to gain a sense of the concepts the categories represent.
- L.VI.1.3.e - Distinguish shades of meaning among verbs differing in manner (e.g., look, peek, glance, stare, glare, scowl) and adjectives differing in intensity (e.g., large, gigantic) by defining or choosing them or by acting out the meanings.
- L.VL.1.2 - Ask and answer questions to determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 1 reading and content.
- L.VL.1.2.a - Choose flexibly from an array of strategies to determine the meaning of words and phrases.

Social Studies Grade 1

NJSLS ELA Writing

- W.NW.1.3. - With prompts and support, write narratives of several complete sentences based on real or imagined experiences or events.
- W.NW.1.3.a - Using words and pictures, establish a situation and/or introduce characters; organize an event sequence.
- W.NW.1.3.b - Provide dialogue and/or descriptions and details of experiences, events, or characters.
- W.NW.1.3.c - Use transitional words to manage the sequence of events.
- W.NW.1.3.d - Provide a reaction to the experiences or events.
- W.WP.1.4 - With prompts, guidance and support develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.

NJSLS ELA Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.1.1. - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 1 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
- SL.PE.1.1.a. - Follow agreed-upon norms for discussions (e.g., listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).
- SL.PE.1.1.b. - Build on others' talk in conversations by responding to the comments of others through multiple exchanges.
- SL.PE.1.1.c - Ask questions to clear up any confusion about the topics and texts under discussion.
- SL.II.1.2. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media.
- SL.ES.1.3. - Ask and answer questions about what a speaker says in order to gather additional information or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.1.4. - Describe people, places, things, and events with relevant details, expressing ideas and feelings clearly.
- SL.UM.1.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions when appropriate to clarify ideas, thoughts, and feelings.
- SL.AS.1.6. - Produce complete sentences when appropriate to task and situation.

NJSLS Social Studies Skills Table -

Effective strategies for accessing sources of information and historical evidence, determining their validity, and using them to solve a problem or find a solution to a public policy:

Skills	K-5
Chronological Thinking	-Place key historical events and people in historical eras using timelines -Explain how the present is connected to the past
Spatial Thinking	-Determine locations of places and interpret information available on maps and globes -Use thematic maps and other geographic representations to obtain, describe, and compare spatial patterns and information about people, places, regions, and environments.
Critical Thinking	-Distinguish fact from fiction -Identify and interpret a variety of primary and secondary sources for reconstructing the past (e.g., documents, letters, diaries, maps, photos, etc.).
Presentational	-Use evidence to support an idea in a digital, oral, and/or written form

Social Studies Grade 1

Skills	-Share information about a topic in an organized manner (e.g., provide a coherent line of reasoning with supporting/relevant evidence details, speaking clearly, and at an appropriate pace.

Holocaust Education is an important area of a balanced and inclusive Social Studies program. It is infused into teaching by including the following topics:

- Exploring the Uniqueness of Each Person
- Understanding and Applying Respect, Trust, and Caring
- Bullying
- Friendship
- Cultural Contributions of Ethnicities
- Prejudice
- Standing Up for What is Right
- Laws and Rules for Peace and Harmony

Amistad Bill (A1301), which became law in 2002, calls on New Jersey schools to integrate the history and contributions of African-Americans into the social studies curriculum, in order to provide an accurate, complete, and inclusive history.

Read alouds of exemplary children’s literature that include characters from various ethnicities, African-American contributions, problem solving, friendship, and leadership readily meet the requirements of including Holocaust Education and Amistad in the Social Studies curriculum.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies and Key Skills

Standard	Performance Expectations	Core Ideas
9.4.2.GCA:1	Recognize that there are relationships among living things.	Individuals from different cultures may have different points of view and experiences.
9.1.2.CR.1	Understand and take responsibility in becoming a good classroom citizen.	There are actions an individual can take to help make this world a better place.

Central Idea/Enduring Understanding:
Social Studies:

- Environmental characteristics influence the how and where people live.
- Respecting and understanding the views of others helps one learn about various perspectives, thoughts, and cultures.
- Certain character traits can help individuals become productive members of their community.

Essential/Guiding Question:
Social Studies:

- How and why is it important that people from diverse cultures collaborate to find solutions to challenges?
- How do landforms, climate and weather, and availability of resources impact where and how people live?
- How is culture expressed through and influenced by the behavior of people?
- How does stereotyping and prejudice lead to conflict?
- Why do we have rules and laws in homes, schools, and communities?

Social Studies Grade 1

- Rules and people who have authority are necessary to keep everyone safe, resolve conflicts and treat people fairly.
- Processes and rules should be fair, consistent, and respectful of the human rights of all people.

Reading/Writing:

- Readers understand that they improve their comprehension by identifying story elements.
- Writers understand that details play a role in explaining the events in a story.
- Learners understand that living things depend on one another.

- How are rules and laws made?

Reading/Writing:

- How do readers know what makes a good retelling?
- How do writers create interesting events?

Content:

Social Studies:

- Stellaluna by Janell Cannon - A baby bat is separated from her mother and lives with a mother bird and her babies.

Dragons and Giants from Frog and Toad Together by Arnold Lobel - A story of adventure and friendship.

Reading/Writing:

- Stellaluna by Janell Cannon - A baby bat is separated from her mother and lives with a mother bird and her babies.
- Dragons and Giants from Frog and Toad Together by Arnold Lobel - A story of adventure and friendship.
- Readers will retell stories, including key details.
- Writers will write a narrative story in which they recount one or more sequenced events.
- Learners will recognize that there are relationships among living things.

Skills(Objectives):

Social Studies:

- Cultures
- Collaborate
- Landforms
- Climate
- Resources
- Conflict
- Stereotypes
- Challenges/Solutions

Reading/Writing

- Retell a Story
- Word Choice
- Characters
- Categorize Words
- Compare Characters
- Sensory Details
- Story Events
- Story Endings
- Central Message
- Fiction and Nonfiction
- Write About Story Events
- Write About Characters' Relationship
- Write About Characters and Events
- Write Events in Order
- Write Details About Characters
- Write About a Character
- Write About a Setting
- Write Event Details
- Plan a Narrative
- Write a Narrative
- Revise and Edit a Narrative

Social Studies Grade 1

- Publish a Narrative

Interdisciplinary Connections:

The texts/activities in this unit will support the learning and understanding of the necessity of rules, character education, communities, different perspectives, good sportsmanship, and how to collaborate with each other. Texts/activities will support the learning of animal characteristics and adaptations. Students will determine the factors that contribute to healthy relationships.

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s):

Performance-Based Assessment:

- Social Studies Task: Students will work collaboratively to find solutions to classroom conflicts. (Conflict resolution)
- Narrative Task: Write About Friendship - Scholars will think about the friendship between the birds and Stellaluna. Then they will illustrate and write sentences about how the characters showed their friendship when they first met and then later in the story.
- Scholars will:
 - illustrate two events in the order in which they occurred in the story.
 - write a sentence to tell about each event and how the birds and Stellaluna showed their friendship.

Student Self-Assessment(s):

- Social Studies - Turn and Talk: How are you alike and different from classmates?

Other Evidence:

Beginning of Year Assessment:

- Baseline Assessment

Formative Assessments:

- Reading Keystones
 - Benchmark Vocabulary Practice
 - Text Analysis Practice/Application
 - Write in Response to Reading
- Reading Keystone Rubrics
 - Reading/Language Analysis
 - Write in Response to Reading
 - Benchmark Vocabulary
- Writing Keystones:
 - Checklists
- Writing Rubrics:
 - Narrative
 - Informative/Explanatory
 - Opinion
- Oral Reading Fluency Quick Checks

Summative Assessments:

- Social Studies - Students will express how to be a good friend.
- Selection Test - Anchor Text
- Performance-Based Assessment - Module A & B
- End-of-Unit Assessment

Stage 3: Learning Plan

Learning Opportunities/Strategies:

SOCIAL STUDIES: Interdisciplinary Connections

- Day 1-2: Discuss Stellaluna's habitat, how day and night is an influence, and things fruit bats do
- Day 3: Discuss similarities & differences between birds and bats, extend to similarities and differences amongst people

Social Studies Grade 1

- The Recess Queen by Alexis O'Neill - A student bullies classmates until a new student arrives and refuses to allow the bully to dominate her, reaching out to her in friendship.
- Readers will retell stories and demonstrate understanding of the central message.
- Writers will write an opinion and supply reasons for it.
- Learners will identify ways in which children contribute to a classroom community.

- Write a Reason to Support an Opinion
- Write and Support an Opinion About a Character
- Write an Opinion About a Story
- Write and Support an Opinion
- Write an Opinion Using Adjectives
- Create an Opinion Poster
- Plan an Opinion
- Revise, Edit, and Publish an Opinion

Interdisciplinary Connections:

The texts/activities in this unit will support the learning and understanding of the necessity of rules, character education, communities, different perspectives, good sportsmanship, and how to collaborate with each other. Texts/activities will support the learning of behaviors and relationships that are a key part for classroom communities. Students will identify self-care practices that support wellness.

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s): Performance-Based Assessment:

- Social Studies Task: Students will discuss/design anti-bullying posters
- Opinion Task: Write About Classroom Citizens - Scholars will think about The Recess Queen and A Fine, Fine School and how characters acted as good classroom citizens. Scholars will write their opinion about how good classroom citizens act and supply a reason for the opinion.
- Scholars will:
 - draw a picture that shows how a good classroom citizen acts.
 - write a sentence that states their opinion.
 - supply a reason that supports their opinion.

Student Self-Assessment(s):

- Social Studies - Turn and Talk: How can you be a classroom citizen?

Unit Title: Becoming A Classroom Citizen - Unit 2 Module B

Social Studies Grade 1

Overview: This unit of study focuses on behaviors and relationships among human beings and contributing to a global classroom community. Students will engage with the understanding of behaviors and relationships between people, places, and resources. Students will learn to be socially responsible, understanding school character education expectations and how to contribute to the global classroom community. Considering multiple perspectives, valuing diversity, and promoting cultural understanding are the goals.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.4: Explain how all people, not just official leaders, play important roles in a community
- 6.1.2.CivicsPD.1: Engage in discussions effectively by asking questions, considering facts, listening to the ideas of others, and sharing opinions.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPD.2: Establish a process for how individuals can effectively work together to make decisions.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.3: Analyze classroom rules and routines and describe how they are designed to benefit the common good.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.3: Explain how diversity, tolerance, fairness, and respect for others can contribute to individuals feeling accepted.
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.4: Identify examples of geospatial data (e.g., landmarks on the school grounds, the spatial location of each student's assigned seat in the classroom, needs more thought).
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.1: Use primary sources representing multiple perspectives to compare and make inferences about why there are different accounts of the same event.
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.2: Use evidence to demonstrate how an individual's beliefs, values, and traditions may change and/or reflect more than one culture.

NJSLS Reading

- RL.CR.1.1. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text.
- RL.CI.1.2. - Determine the central message and retell a sequence of events in literary texts (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RL.IT.1.3. - Describe characters, settings, and major event(s) in a story, using key details.
- RL.TS.1.4. -With prompting and support, explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information recognizing organization and features of literary texts (e.g., follows a story line, chronology of events, interprets illustrations) while drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types.
- RL.PP.1.5. - Identify who is telling the story at various points in a text.
- RL.MF.1.6. - With prompting and support, use illustrations and details in a story to describe its characters, setting, or events.
- RL.CT.1.8. - Identify similarities in and differences between two literary texts on the same topic (e.g., characters, experiences, illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Reading Language

- L.RF.1.1. - Demonstrate mastery of the organization and basic features of print (including those listed in RF.K.1); recognize and understand the distinguishing features of a sentence (e.g., first word, capitalization, ending punctuation).
- L.RF.1.2. - Demonstrate mastery of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes) by using knowledge that every syllable must have a vowel sound to determine the number of syllables in a printed word.
- L.RF.1.2.B. - Orally produce single-syllable words by blending sounds (phonemes), including consonant blends.
- L.RF.1.2.C. - Isolate and pronounce initial, medial vowel, and final sounds (phonemes) in spoken single-syllable words.

Social Studies Grade 1

- L.RF.1.2.D. - Segment spoken single-syllable words into their complete sequence of individual sounds (phonemes)
- L.RF.1.3. - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.
- L.RF.1.3.A. - Know the spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs (two letters that represent one sound).
- L.RF.1.3.B. - Decode regularly spelled one-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.3.F. - Read high-frequency and grade-level irregular words with automaticity (e.g. fly, walk, old)
- L.RF.1.3.G. - Recognize the parts of high-frequency words that are regular and the parts that are irregular
- L.RF.1.4. - Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.
- L.RF.1.4.A. - Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.
- L.RF.1.4.B. - Read grade-level text orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression.
- L.RF.1.4.C. - Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Writing Language

- L.WF.1.1. - Demonstrate command of the conventions of writing, (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.1):
 - A. Write the upper and lowercase alphabets from memory.
 - B. Write a common grapheme (letter or letter group) for each phoneme.
 - C. Orally segment the phonemes in any single syllable, spoken word.
 - D. Recognize that each syllable is organized around a vowel sound.
- L.WF.1.2. - Demonstrate command of the conventions of encoding and spelling common, regular, single-syllable words, including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.2), with:
 - A. Short vowels and single consonants.
- L.WF.1.3 - Demonstrate command and use of the conventions of writing (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.3):
 - A. Write sentences with increasing complexity.
 - B. Supply the “who,” “is doing,” “what,” in a subject-verb-object frame.
 - C. Capitalize the first word of a sentence, days of the week, months, names of people and proper names.
 - D. Match periods, question marks, and exclamation points to statements, questions, commands, and exclamations.
 - E. Use commas in dates and to separate single words in a series.
 - F. Distinguish between a complete sentence and a sentence fragment and supply the missing phrase or clause.
 - G. Write statements in response to questions, and questions transformed from statements, using conventional word order.
 - H. Elaborate a simple subject or simple predicate, in response to questions who, what, where, when, how, or why.
 - I. Use conjunctions appropriately in sentences (e.g., and, but, so, and because)
- L.VL.1.2. - Ask and answer questions to determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 1 reading and content.
 - A. Choose flexibly from an array of strategies to determine the meaning of words and phrases.
 - B. Identify words and phrases in stories or poems that suggest feelings or appeal to the senses.
- L.VI.1.3. - With guidance and support from adults, demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships and nuances in word meanings.
 - A. Identify words and phrases in stories or poems that suggest feelings or appeal to the senses.

Social Studies Grade 1

- B. Sort words into categories (e.g., colors, clothing) to gain a sense of the concepts the categories represent.
- C. Define words by category and by one or more key attributes (e.g., a duck is a bird that swims; a tiger is a large cat with stripes).
- D. Identify real-life connections between words and their use (e.g., note places at home that are cozy).
- E. Distinguish shades of meaning among verbs differing in manner (e.g., look, peek, glance, stare, glare, scowl) and adjectives differing in intensity (e.g., large, gigantic) by defining or choosing them or by acting out the meanings.

NJSLS Writing

- W.AW.1.1. - With prompts and support, write opinion pieces on a topic or texts.
- W.AW.1.1.A. - Introduce an opinion.
- W.AW.1.1.B - Support the opinion with facts or other information and examples related to the topic.
- W.AW.1.1.C - Provide a conclusion.
- W.WP.1.4. - With prompts, guidance and support develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
- W.WP.1.4.A - With prompts and support, identify audience and purpose before writing.
- W.WP.1.4.B - With prompts and support, find and correct errors of spelling, capitalization, and punctuation after skills have been taught.
- W.WR.1.5 - With prompting and support, generate questions through shared research about a topic and determine possible sources to obtain information on that topic.
- W.SE.1.6. - With guidance and support from adults, gather and select information from multiple sources to answer a question about a topic.
- W.RW.1.7 - Engage in discussion, drawing, and writing in brief but regular writing tasks.

NJSLS Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.1.1. - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 1 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
- SL.PE.1.1.A. - Follow agreed-upon norms for discussions (e.g., listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).
- SL.PE.1.1.B. - Build on others' talk in conversations by responding to the comments of others through multiple exchanges.
- SL.PE.1.1.C - Ask questions to clear up any confusion about the topics and texts under discussion.
- SL.II.1.2. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media.
- SL.ES.1.3. - Ask and answer questions about what a speaker says in order to gather additional information or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.1.4. - Describe people, places, things, and events with relevant details, expressing ideas and feelings clearly.
- SL.UM.1.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions when appropriate to clarify ideas, thoughts, and feelings.
- SL.AS1.6. - Produce complete sentences when appropriate to task and situation.

Effective strategies for accessing sources of information and historical evidence, determining their validity, and using them to solve a problem or find a solution to a public policy:

Skills	K-5
--------	-----

Social Studies Grade 1

Chronological Thinking	-Place key historical events and people in historical eras using timelines -Explain how the present is connected to the past
Spatial Thinking	-Determine locations of places and interpret information available on maps and globes -Use thematic maps and other geographic representations to obtain, describe, and compare spatial patterns and information about people, places, regions, and environments.
Critical Thinking	-Distinguish fact from fiction -Identify and interpret a variety of primary and secondary sources for reconstructing the past (e.g., documents, letters, diaries, maps, photos, etc.).
Presentational Skills	-Use evidence to support an idea in a digital, oral, and/or written form -Share information about a topic in an organized manner (e.g., provide a coherent line of reasoning with supporting/relevant evidence details, speaking clearly, and at an appropriate pace.

Holocaust Education is an important area of a balanced and inclusive Social Studies program. It is infused into teaching by including the following topics:

- Exploring the Uniqueness of Each Person
- Understanding and Applying Respect, Trust, and Caring
- Bullying
- Friendship
- Cultural Contributions of Ethnicities
- Prejudice
- Standing Up for What is Right
- Laws and Rules for Peace and Harmony

Amistad Bill (A1301), which became law in 2002, calls on New Jersey schools to integrate the history and contributions of African-Americans into the social studies curriculum, in order to provide an accurate, complete, and inclusive history.

Read alouds of exemplary children's literature that include characters from various ethnicities, African-American contributions, problem solving, friendship, and leadership readily meet the requirements of including Holocaust Education and Amistad in the Social Studies curriculum.

Unit Title: Unit 3 Module A - Making Choices

Overview: This unit of study focuses on the understanding that people make choices about spending money. Students will understand the value of money and the difference between needs and wants. Identify the factors that influence people to spend or save.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Social Studies Grade 1

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.GeoPP.1 - Explain the different physical and human characteristics that might make a location a good place to live (e.g., landforms, climate and weather, resource availability).
- 6.1.2.GeoSV.4 - Identify examples of geospatial data (e.g., landmarks on the school grounds, the spatial location of each student's assigned seat in the classroom, needs more thought).
- 6.1.2.EconET.4 - Explain the impact that decisions about savings, debt, and investment can have on individuals' lives.
- 6.1.2.EconET.5 - Describe how local and state governments make decisions that affect individuals and the community.
- 6.1.2.EconEM.2 - Describe the goods and services that individuals and businesses in the local community produce and those that are produced in other communities.
- 6.1.2.EconEM.3 - Identify the ways in which people exchange(d) goods and services today, and in the past (e.g., purchase, borrow, barter).

NJSLS Reading

- RL.CR.1.1. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text.
- RL.CI.1.2. - Determine central message and retell a sequence of events in literary texts (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RL.IT.1.3. - Describe characters, settings, and major event(s) in a story, using key details.
- RL.TS.1.4. -With prompting and support, explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information recognizing organization and features of literary texts (e.g., follows a story line, chronology of events, interprets illustrations) while drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types.
- RL.PP.1.5. - Identify who is telling the story at various points in a text.
- RL.MF.1.6. - With prompting and support, use illustrations and details in a story to describe its characters, setting, or events.
- RL.CT.1.8. - Identify similarities in and differences between two literary texts on the same topic (e.g., characters, experiences, illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Reading Language

- L.RF.1.1. - Demonstrate mastery of the organization and basic features of print (including those listed in RF.K.1); recognize and understand the distinguishing features of a sentence (e.g., first word, capitalization, ending punctuation).
- L.RF.1.2. - Demonstrate mastery of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes) by using knowledge that every syllable must have a vowel sound to determine the number of syllables in a printed word.
- L.RF.1.2.A. - Distinguish long from short vowel sounds in spoken single-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.2.B. - Orally produce single-syllable words by blending sounds (phonemes), including consonant blends.
- L.RF.1.2.C. - Isolate and pronounce initial, medial vowel, and final sounds (phonemes) in spoken single-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.2.D. - Segment spoken single-syllable words into their complete sequence of individual sounds (phonemes)
- L.RF.1.3. - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.
- L.RF.1.3.A. - Know the spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs (two letters that represent one sound).
- L.RF.1.3.B. - Decode regularly spelled one-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.3.C. - Know final -e and common vowel team conventions for representing long vowel sounds.

Social Studies Grade 1

- L.RF.1.3.D - Distinguish long and short vowels when reading regularly spelled one-syllable words
- L.RF.1.3.F - Read high-frequency and grade-level irregular words with automaticity (e.g. fly, walk, old)
- L.RF.1.3.G - Recognize the parts of high-frequency words that are regular and the parts that are irregular
- L.RF.1.4. - Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.
- L.RF.1.4.A. - Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.
- L.RF.1.4.B. - Read grade-level text orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression.
- L.RF.1.4.C. - Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Writing Language

- L.WF.1.1. - Demonstrate command of the conventions of writing, (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.1):
 - A. Write the upper and lowercase alphabets from memory.
 - B. Write a common grapheme (letter or letter group) for each phoneme.
 - C. Orally segment the phonemes in any single syllable, spoken word.
 - D. Recognize that each syllable is organized around a vowel sound.
- L.WF.1.2. - Demonstrate command of the conventions of encoding the spelling common, regular, single-syllable words, including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.2), with:
 - A. Short vowels and single consonants.
 - B. Consonant graphemes including qu, x, and -ck; digraphs (thin, shop, when, much, sing); and doubles letters (off, will, mess).
 - C. Initial and final consonant blends (must, slab, plump).
- L.WF.1.3 - Demonstrate command and use of the conventions of writing (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.3):
 - A. Write sentences with increasing complexity.
 - B. Supply the “who,” “is doing,” “what,” in a subject-verb-object frame.
 - C. Capitalize the first word of a sentence, days of the week, months, names of people and proper names.
 - D. Match periods, question marks, and exclamation points to statements, questions, commands, and exclamations.
 - E. Use commas in dates and to separate single words in a series.
 - F. Distinguish between a complete sentence and a sentence fragment and supply the missing phrase or clause.
 - G. Write statements in response to questions, and questions transformed from statements, using conventional word order.
 - H. Elaborate a simple subject or simple predicate, in response to questions who, what, where, when, how, or why.
 - I. Use conjunctions appropriately in sentences (e.g., and, but, so, and because)
- L.VL.1.2. - Ask and answer questions to determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 1 reading and content.
 - A. Choose flexibly from an array of strategies to determine the meaning of words and phrases.
 - B. Identify words and phrases in stories or poems that suggest feelings or appeal to the senses.
- L.VI.1.3. - With guidance and support from adults, demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships and nuances in word meanings.
 - A. Identify words and phrases in stories or poems that suggest feelings or appeal to the senses.
 - B. Sort words into categories (e.g., colors, clothing) to gain a sense of the concepts the categories represent.

Social Studies Grade 1

- C. Define words by category and by one or more key attributes (e.g., a duck is a bird that swims; a tiger is a large cat with stripes).
- D. Identify real-life connections between words and their use (e.g., note places at home that are cozy).
- E. Distinguish shades of meaning among verbs differing in manner (e.g., look, peek, glance, stare, glare, scowl) and adjectives differing in intensity (e.g., large, gigantic) by defining or choosing them or by acting out the meanings.

NJSLS Writing

- W.NW.1.3. - With prompts and support, write narratives of several complete sentences based on real or imagined experiences or events.
- W.NW.1.3.A - Using words and pictures, establish a situation and/or introduce characters; organize an event sequence.
- W.NW.1.3.B - Provide dialogue and/or description and details of experiences, events, or characters.
- W.NM.1.3.C - Use transitional words to manage sequence of events.
- W.NW.1.3.D - Provide a reaction to the experiences of events.
- W.WP.1.4. - With prompts, guidance and support develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
- W.WP.1.4.A - With prompts and support, identify audience and purpose before writing.
- W.WP.1.4.B - With prompts and support, find and correct errors of spelling, capitalization, and punctuation after skills have been taught.
- W.SE.1.6. - With prompting and support from adults, gather and select information from multiple sources to answer a question or write about a topic.
- W.RW.1.7 - Engage in discussion, drawing, and writing in brief but regular writing tasks.

NJSLS Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.1.1. - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 1 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
- SL.PE.1.1.A. - Follow agreed-upon norms for discussions (e.g., listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).
- SL.PE.1.1.B. - Build on others' talk in conversations by responding to the comments of others through multiple exchanges.
- SL.PE.1.1.C - Ask questions to clear up any confusion about the topics and texts under discussion.
- SL.II.1.2. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media.
- SL.ES.1.3. - Ask and answer questions about what a speaker says in order to gather additional information or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.1.4. - Describe people, places, things, and events with relevant details, expressing ideas and feelings clearly.
- SL.UM.1.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions when appropriate to clarify ideas, thoughts, and feelings.
- SL.AS1.6. - Produce complete sentences when appropriate to task and situation.

Social Studies Grade 1

Chronological Thinking	-Place key historical events and people in historical eras using timelines -Explain how the present is connected to the past
Spatial Thinking	-Determine locations of places and interpret information available on maps and globes -Use thematic maps and other geographic representations to obtain, describe, and compare spatial patterns and information about people, places, regions, and environments.
Critical Thinking	-Distinguish fact from fiction -Identify and interpret a variety of primary and secondary sources for reconstructing the past (e.g., documents, letters, diaries, maps, photos, etc.).
Presentational Skills	-Use evidence to support an idea in a digital, oral, and/or written form -Share information about a topic in an organized manner (e.g., provide a coherent line of reasoning with supporting/relevant evidence details, speaking clearly, and at an appropriate pace.

Holocaust Education is an important area of a balanced and inclusive Social Studies program. It is infused into teaching by including the following topics:

- Exploring the Uniqueness of Each Person
- Understanding and Applying Respect, Trust, and Caring
- Bullying
- Friendship
- Cultural Contributions of Ethnicities
- Prejudice
- Standing Up for What is Right
- Laws and Rules for Peace and Harmony

Amistad Bill (A1301), which became law in 2002, calls on New Jersey schools to integrate the history and contributions of African-Americans into the social studies curriculum, in order to provide an accurate, complete, and inclusive history.

Read alouds of exemplary children's literature that include characters from various ethnicities, African-American contributions, problem solving, friendship, and leadership readily meet the requirements of including Holocaust Education and Amistad in the Social Studies curriculum.

Social Studies Grade 1

- Readers will retell stories in appropriate sequence and demonstrate understanding of the stories' lessons.
- Writers will write a narrative of events using words to signal their sequence.
- Learners will understand that people make choices about spending money.

- Put Story Events in Order
- Add Time and Sequence Words
- Revise Sentences
- Write a Story Ending
- Write Story Events in Order
- Plan a Story
- Revise a Story
- Edit a Story
- Create a Final Book

Interdisciplinary Connections:

The texts/activities in this unit will support the learning and understanding of financial planning and budgeting. Recognize the implications of an interconnected global economy. Explain what a decision is and why it is advantageous to think before acting.

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s):

Performance-Based Assessment:

- Social Studies Task: Students will use resources to learn about money.
- Narrative Task: Write About Choices - The selections in this unit are about choices and making decisions. Scholars will write a short story about a choice they made to save or spend money.
- Scholars will:
 - write a short story with a beginning, middle, and end.
 - recount two or more appropriately sequenced events.
 - use temporal words to signal the sequence of events.

Student Self-Assessment(s):

- Social Studies - Turn and Talk: How can you save and spend money?

Other Evidence:

Unit Title: Unit 3 Module B - Making Choices

Overview: This unit of study focuses on the supply and demand and the impact of output of products. Students will understand producers versus consumers and the difference between goods and services. Identify similarities and differences between local businesses and global businesses. Talk about products and explain why some foods are healthier to eat than others.

Social Studies Grade 1

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.Geo.GI.1 - Explain why and how people, goods, and ideas move from place to place.
- 6.1.2.Geo.GI.2 - Use technology to understand the culture and physical characteristics of regions.
- 6.1.2.EconET.1 - Explain the difference between needs and wants.
- 6.1.2.EconET.2 - Cite examples of choices people make when resources are scarce.
- 6.1.2.EconET.3 - Describe how supply and demand influence price and output of products.
- 6.1.2.EconNE.2 - Describe examples of goods and services that governments provide.
- 6.1.2.EconEM.1 - Describe the skills and knowledge required to produce specific goods and services.
- 6.3.2.GeoGI.1 - Investigate a global issue such as climate change, its significance, and share information about how it impacts different regions around the world.

NJSLS Reading

- RL.TS.1.4. -With prompting and support, explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information recognizing organization and features of literary texts (e.g., follows a story line, chronology of events, interprets illustrations) while drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types.
- RI.CR.1.1. - Ask and answer questions about key details in an informational text (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RI.CI.1.2. - Determine the main topic and retell a series of key details in informational texts (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RI.IT.1.3. - Describe relationships among pieces of information (e.g., sequence of events, steps in a process, cause-effect and compare-contrast relationships) within a text.
- RI.TS.1.4. - With prompting and support, explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information, identifying various text features (e.g., heading, tables of contents, glossaries, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text while drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types.
- RI.PP.1.5. - Distinguish between information provided by pictures or other illustrations and information provided by the words in a text.
- RI.MF.1.6. - With prompting and support, use text features (e.g., diagrams, tables, animations) to describe key ideas
- RI.AA.1.7. - Identify the reasons an author gives to support points in a text and explain how that information is applied, with prompting as needed.
- RI.CT.1.8. - Identify similarities in and differences between two informational texts on the same topic (e.g., characters, experiences, illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Reading Language

Amistad Bill (A1301), which became law in 2002, calls on New Jersey schools to integrate the history and contributions of African-Americans into the social studies curriculum, in order to provide an accurate, complete, and inclusive history.

Read alouds of exemplary children's literature that include characters from various ethnicities, African-American contributions, problem solving, friendship, and leadership readily meet the requirements of including Holocaust Education and Amistad in the Social Studies curriculum.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies and Key Skills

Social Studies Grade 1

Standard	Performance Expectations	Core Ideas
9.1.2.FP.1	Explain how emotions influence whether a person spends or saves.	There is a relationship between an individual's values, emotions, and the ways he/she chooses to spend money
9.1.2.CR.2	List ways to give back, including making donations, volunteering, and starting a business.	There are actions an individual can take to help make this world a better place.

Central Idea/Enduring Understanding:

Social Studies:

- People make decisions based on their needs, wants, and the availability of resources.
- Economics is a driving force for the occurrence of various events and phenomena in societies.
- Interaction among various institutions in the local, national, and global economies influence policymaking and societal outcomes.
- The consumption of goods is related to the use of plastic bags. Plastics are a world problem

Reading/Writing:

- Readers understand that the details in a text support the author's main points.
- Writers understand that an opinion has to be supported with one or more reasons.
- Learners understand that people make decisions about how to spend what they earn

Essential/Guiding Question:

Social Studies:

- What is the difference between a want and a need?
- Why do incentives vary between and among producers and consumers?
- How does supply and demand influence price and output of products?
- What is the role and relationship among households, businesses, laborers, and governments within the economic system?
- How are the availability of private and public goods and services influenced by the global market and government?
- How are the production, distribution, and consumption of goods and services interrelated and affected by the global market and events in the world community?

Reading/Writing:

- How can readers use the details in a text to identify the reasons that support an author's points?
- How can writers use information to support an opinion?

Content:

Social Studies:

- Goods and Services by Janeen R. Adil - Defines terms related to the economy and shows the relationship between producer and consumer.
- Supermarket by Kathleen Krull - The text addresses how supermarkets came to be, how they are organized, how they are run, and how important they are to everyday life.

Skills(Objectives):

Social Studies:

- Wants and Needs
- Producers and Consumers
- Supply and Demand
- Public and Private
- Goods and Services
- Production, Distribution and Consumption of Goods and Services and how it impacts different regions around the world.

Social Studies Grade 1

Discuss the changes of how supermarkets don't use plastic bags.

Reading/Writing:

- Goods and Services by Janeen R. Adil - Defines terms related to the economy and shows the relationship between producer and consumer.
- Supermarket by Kathleen Krull - The text addresses how supermarkets came to be, how they are organized, how they are run, and how important they are to everyday life.
- Readers will state and explain the reasons an author gives to support points in a text.
- Writers will state and support an opinion and provide a conclusion.
- Learners will understand that people make decisions by considering choices.

Reading/Writing:

- Identify Main Topic and Key Details
- Know and Use Text Features
- Identify Reasons to Support Points in a Text
- Compare Ideas Between Texts
- Compare and Contrast Information
- Make Connections Between Two Ideas
- Identify Reasons That Support an Author's Point
- Use Information in Texts and Pictures
- Write an Opinion
- Write a Supporting Opinion
- Write an Opinion and a Supporting Reason
- Write Opinion Words
- Use Facts to Support an Opinion
- Write a Concluding Statement
- Sort Words into Categories
- Choose a Topic for an Opinion
- Write an Opinion and List Reasons
- Write a Supporting Reason
- Write a Conclusion to an Opinion
- Clarify Meanings of Words and Phrases
- Add Details to Support an Opinion
- Publish an Opinion Blog Post

Interdisciplinary Connections:

The texts/activities in this unit will support the learning and understanding of economic ways of thinking. Recognize the implication of financial institutions and decisions as a producer and/or consumer. Determine the importance of goods and services. Explain why some foods are healthier to eat than others.

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s):

Performance-Based Assessment:

- Social Studies Task: Students will sort and classify purchases into groups: goods versus services.
- Social Studies Task: Students will compose as a group an article about the ban on plastic bags to share with the school community.
- Opinion Task: Write About Making Choices - In this module, scholars read about goods and services and how people make choices about which goods and services they purchase. As a class, Scholars will compose a list of goods (e.g., paper products) and services (e.g., butcher, baker) they find at their local grocery store. Then each scholar will choose a good or service from the list that he or she feels is especially important and write his or her opinion about it. Scholars will support their opinion with a reason.

- Scholars will:
 - write a sentence that states their opinion about a good or service that is important to their family
 - supply a reason that supports their opinion.
 - write a concluding statement that restates their opinion.

Student Self-Assessment(s):

- Social Studies - Turn and Talk: What kind of services do you see in your community? What good do you feel is most important and why?

- Opinion

Stage 3: Learning Plan

Learning Opportunities/Strategies:

SOCIAL STUDIES: Interdisciplinary Connections

- Day 1-3: Using Goods and Services recognize and identify various goods and services. Distinguish between consumers and producers.
- Day 4- Understand and explore the different components that make up a supermarket. Know what goods/services are available in a supermarket. Identify the reason why plastic bags have been banned from supermarkets.
- Day 8- Recognize the differences between earning, spending, and saving.

Unit Title: Unit 4 Module A - Planting for the Future

Overview: This unit of study focuses on how physical and human characteristics affect where people live (settle). Students will understand and explore how plants grow and the human need of these plants. Students will learn about family connections and traditions that carry on from generations.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.1 - Explain how seasonal weather changes, climate, and other environmental characteristics affect people's lives in a place or region.
- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.2 - Describe how human activities affect the culture and environmental characteristics of places or regions (e.g., transportation, housing, dietary needs).
- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.3 - Identify cultural and environmental characteristics of different regions in New Jersey and the United States.
- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.4 - Investigate the relationship between the physical environment of a place and the economic activities found there.
- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.1 - Use multiple sources to create a chronological sequence of events that describes how and why your community has changed over time.
- 6.1.2.HistorySE.1 - Use examples of regional folk heroes, stories, and/or songs and make inferences about how they have contributed to the development of a culture's history.
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.2 - Use evidence to demonstrate how an individual's beliefs, values, and traditions may change and/or reflect more than one culture.
- 6.1.2.GeoPP.1 - Explain the different physical and human characteristics that might make a location a good place to live (e.g., landforms, climate and weather, resource availability).
- 6.3.2.GeoG1.2 - Collect data and consider sources from multiple perspectives to become informed about an environmental issue and identify possible solutions.

NJSLS Reading

- RL.CR.1.1. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text.
- RL.CI.1.2. - Determine central message and retell a sequence of events in literary texts (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RL.IT.1.3. - Describe characters, settings, and major event(s) in a story, using key details.
- RL.TS.1.4. -With prompting and support, explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information recognizing organization and features of literary texts (e.g., follows a story line, chronology of events, interprets illustrations) while drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types.
- RL.PP.1.5. - Identify who is telling the story at various points in a text.
- RL.MF.1.6. - With prompting and support, use illustrations and details in a story to describe its characters, setting, or events.
- RL.CT.1.8. - Identify similarities in and differences between two literary texts on the same topic (e.g., characters, experiences, illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).

Social Studies Grade 1

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Reading Language

- L.RF.1.1. - Demonstrate mastery of the organization and basic features of print (including those listed in RF.K.1); recognize and understand the distinguishing features of a sentence (e.g., first word, capitalization, ending punctuation).
- L.RF.1.2. - Demonstrate mastery of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes) by using knowledge that every syllable must have a vowel sound to determine the number of syllables in a printed word.
- L.RF.1.2.A. - Distinguish long from short vowel sounds in spoken single-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.2.B. - Orally produce single-syllable words by blending sounds (phonemes), including consonant blends.
- L.RF.1.2.C. - Isolate and pronounce initial, medial vowel, and final sounds (phonemes) in spoken single-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.2.D. - Segment spoken single-syllable words into their complete sequence of individual sounds (phonemes)
- L.RF.1.3. - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.
- L.RF.1.3.A. - Know the spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs (two letters that represent one sound).
- L.RF.1.3.B. - Decode regularly spelled one-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.3.C. - Know final -e and common vowel team conventions for representing long vowel sounds.
- L.RF.1.3.D. - Distinguish long and short vowels when reading regularly spelled one-syllable words
- L.RF.1.3.E. - Decode two-syllable words following basic patterns by breaking the words into syllables using knowledge that every syllable must have a vowel sound
- L.RF.1.3.F. - Read high-frequency and grade-level irregular words with automaticity (e.g. fly, walk, old)
- L.RF.1.3.G. - Recognize the parts of high-frequency words that are regular and the parts that are irregular
- L.RF.1.4. - Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.
- L.RF.1.4.A. - Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.
- L.RF.1.4.B. - Read grade-level text orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression.
- L.RF.1.4.C. - Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Writing Language

- L.WF.1.1. - Demonstrate command of the conventions of writing, (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.1):
 - A. Write the upper and lowercase alphabets from memory.
 - B. Write a common grapheme (letter or letter group) for each phoneme.
 - C. Orally segment the phonemes in any single syllable, spoken word.
 - D. Recognize that each syllable is organized around a vowel sound.
- L.WF.1.2. - Demonstrate command of the conventions of encoding the spelling common, regular, single-syllable words, including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.2), with:
 - A. Short vowels and single consonants.
 - B. Consonant graphemes including qu, x, and -ck; digraphs (thin, shop, when, much, sing); and doubles letters (off, will, mess).
 - C. Initial and final consonant blends (must, slab, plump).
- L.WF.1.3. - Demonstrate command and use of the conventions of writing (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.3):
 - A. Write sentences with increasing complexity.
 - B. Supply the “who,” “is doing,” “what,” in a subject-verb-object frame.

Social Studies Grade 1

- C. Capitalize the first word of a sentence, days of the week, months, names of people and proper names.

Standard	Performance Expectations	Core Ideas
9.4.2.CT.1	Gather information about an issue, such as climate change, and collaboratively brainstorm ways to solve the problem (e.g., K-2-ETS1-1, 6.3.2.GeoGI.2).	Critical thinkers must first identify a problem then develop a plan to address it to effectively solve the problem.
9.4.2.IML.3	Use a variety of sources including multimedia sources to find information about topics such as climate change, with guidance and support from adults (e.g., 6.3.2.GeoGI.2, 6.1.2.HistorySE.3, W.2.6, 1-LSI-2).	A variety of diverse sources, contexts, disciplines, and cultures provide valuable and necessary information that can be used for different purposes.

Central Idea/Enduring Understanding:

Social Studies:

- Places are jointly characterized by their physical and human properties.
- The physical environment can both accommodate and be endangered by human activities.
- Regions form and change (rural, urban, suburban) as a result of unique physical/ecological conditions, economies, and cultures.
- Personal, family, and community history is a source of information for individuals about the people and places around them.
- Cultures include traditions, popular beliefs, and commonly held values, ideas, and assumptions that are generally accepted by a particular group of people.
- The cultures with which an individual or group identifies change and evolve in response to interactions with other groups and/or in response to needs or concerns.

Essential/Guiding Question:

Social Studies:

- How do landforms, climate and weather, and the availability of resources impact where and how people live and work in different regions of New Jersey and the United States?
- How has human interaction impacted the environment in New Jersey & the United States?
- How do regions form and change as a result of culture, economics, and the physical environment?
- How have communities changed over time?
- How does the behavior of people influence culture?
- How does an individual’s beliefs, values, and traditions reflect more than one culture?

Unit Title: Unit 6 Module A - Celebrating Diversity

Overview: This unit of study focuses on the understanding that the United States is a special country because of the diversity of its people. Students will learn that many families come from different countries and have different cultures. Students will be able to compare and contrast how cultures are alike and different.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.Civics.DP.1 - Explain how national symbols reflect on American values and principles.
- 6.1.2.Civics.DP.3 - Explain how historical symbols, monuments and holidays reflect the shared values, principles, and beliefs of the American identity.
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.3 - Identify and describe the properties of a variety of maps and globes (e.g., title, legend, cardinal directions, scale, symbols,) and purposes (wayfinding, thematic).
- 6.1.2.History.CC.3 - Make inferences about how past events, individuals, and innovations affect our current lives.
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.4 - Identify examples of geospatial data (e.g., landmarks on the school grounds, the spatial location of each student's assigned seat in the classroom, needs more thought).

NJSLS Reading

- RL.CR.1.1. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a literary text.
- RL.CI.1.2. - Determine central message and retell a sequence of events in literary texts (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).

Social Studies Grade 1

- RL.IT.1.3. - Describe characters, settings, and major event(s) in a story, using key details.
- RL.TS.1.4. -With prompting and support, explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information recognizing organization and features of literary texts (e.g., follows a story line, chronology of events, interprets illustrations) while drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types.
- RL.PP.1.5. - Identify who is telling the story at various points in a text.
- RL.MF.1.6. - With prompting and support, use illustrations and details in a story to describe its characters, setting, or events.
- RL.CT.1.8. - Identify similarities in and differences between two literary texts on the same topic (e.g., characters, experiences, illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).
- RI.CR.1.1. - Ask and answer questions about key details in an informational text (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RI.CI.1.2. - Determine the main topic and retell a series of key details in informational texts (e.g., who, what, where, when, why, how).
- RI.IT.1.3. - Describe relationships among pieces of information (e.g., sequence of events, steps in a process, cause-effect and compare-contrast relationships) within a text.
- RI.TS.1.4. - With prompting and support, explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information, identifying various text features (e.g., heading, tables of contents, glossaries, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text while drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types.
- RI.MF.1.6. - With prompting and support, use text features (e.g., diagrams, tables, animations) to describe key ideas

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Reading Language

- L.RF.1.1. - Demonstrate mastery of the organization and basic features of print (including those listed in RF.K.1); recognize and understand the distinguishing features of a sentence (e.g., first word, capitalization, ending punctuation).
- L.RF.1.2. - Demonstrate mastery of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes) by using knowledge that every syllable must have a vowel sound to determine the number of syllables in a printed word.
- L.RF.1.2.A. - Distinguish long from short vowel sounds in spoken single-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.2.B. - Orally produce single-syllable words by blending sounds (phonemes), including consonant blends.
- L.RF.1.2.C. - Isolate and pronounce initial, medial vowel, and final sounds (phonemes) in spoken single-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.2.D. - Segment spoken single-syllable words into their complete sequence of individual sounds (phonemes)
- L.RF.1.3. - Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.
- L.RF.1.3.A. - Know the spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs (two letters that represent one sound).
- L.RF.1.3.B. - Decode regularly spelled one-syllable words.
- L.RF.1.3.C. - Know final -e and common vowel team conventions for representing long vowel sounds.
- L.RF.1.3.D - Distinguish long and short vowels when reading regularly spelled one-syllable words
- L.RF.1.3.E - Decode two-syllable words following basic patterns by breaking the words into syllables using knowledge that every syllable must have a vowel sound
- L.RF.1.3.F - Read high-frequency and grade-level irregular words with automaticity (e.g. fly, walk, old)
- L.RF.1.3.G - Recognize the parts of high-frequency words that are regular and the parts that are irregular
- L.RF.1.4. - Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.
- L.RF.1.4.A. - Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding.

Social Studies Grade 1

- L.RF.1.4.B. - Read grade-level text orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression.
- L.RF.1.4.C. - Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.

NJSLS Foundational Skills: Writing Language

- L.WF.1.1. - Demonstrate command of the conventions of writing, (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.1):
 - A. Write the upper and lowercase alphabets from memory.
 - B. Write a common grapheme (letter or letter group) for each phoneme.
 - C. Orally segment the phonemes in any single syllable, spoken word.
 - D. Recognize that each syllable is organized around a vowel sound.
- L.WF.1.2. - Demonstrate command of the conventions of encoding the spelling common, regular, single-syllable words, including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.2), with:
 - A. Short vowels and single consonants.
 - B. Consonant graphemes including qu, x, and -ck; digraphs (thin, shop, when, much, sing); and doubles letters (off, will, mess).
 - C. Initial and final consonant blends (must, slab, plump).
- L.WF.1.3 - Demonstrate command and use of the conventions of writing (including those proficiencies listed in L.WF.K.3):
 - A. Write sentences with increasing complexity.
 - B. Supply the “who,” “is doing,” “what,” in a subject-verb-object frame.
 - C. Capitalize the first word of a sentence, days of the week, months, names of people and proper names.
 - D. Match periods, question marks, and exclamation points to statements, questions, commands, and exclamations.
 - E. Use commas in dates and to separate single words in a series.
 - F. Distinguish between a complete sentence and a sentence fragment and supply the missing phrase or clause.
 - G. Write statements in response to questions, and questions transformed from statements, using conventional word order.
 - H. Elaborate a simple subject or simple predicate, in response to questions who, what, where, when, how, or why.
 - I. Use conjunctions appropriately in sentences (e.g., and, but, so, and because
- L.VL.1.2. - Ask and answer questions to determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 1 reading and content.
 - A. Choose flexibly from an array of strategies to determine the meaning of words and phrases.
 - B. Identify words and phrases in stories or poems that suggest feelings or appeal to the senses.
- L.VI.1.3. - With guidance and support from adults, demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships and nuances in word meanings.
 - A. Identify words and phrases in stories or poems that suggest feelings or appeal to the senses.
 - B. Sort words into categories (e.g., colors, clothing) to gain a sense of the concepts the categories represent.
 - C. Define words by category and by one or more key attributes (e.g., a duck is a bird that swims; a tiger is a large cat with stripes).
 - D. Identify real-life connections between words and their use (e.g., note places at home that are cozy).

Social Studies Grade 1

- E. Distinguish shades of meaning among verbs differing in manner (e.g., look, peek, glance, stare, glare, scowl) and adjectives differing in intensity (e.g., large, gigantic) by defining or choosing them or by acting out the meanings.

NJSLS Writing

- W.AW.1.1. - With prompts and support, write opinion pieces on a topic or texts.
- W.AW.1.1.A. - Introduce an opinion.
- W.AW.1.1.B - Support the opinion with facts or other information and examples related to the topic.
- W.AW.1.1.C - Provide a conclusion.
- W.WP.1.4. - With prompts, guidance and support develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
- W.WP.1.4.A - With prompts and support, identify audience and purpose before writing.
- W.WP.1.4.B - With prompts and support, find and correct errors of spelling, capitalization, and punctuation after skills have been taught.
- W.WR.1.5 - With prompting and support, generate questions through shared research about a topic and determine possible sources to obtain information on that topic.
- W.SE.1.6. - With guidance and support from adults, gather and select information from multiple sources to answer a question about a topic.
- W.RW.1.7 - Engage in discussion, drawing, and writing in brief but regular writing tasks.

NJSLS Speaking and Listening

- SL.PE.1.1. - Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 1 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.
- SL.PE.1.1.A. - Follow agreed-upon norms for discussions (e.g., listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).
- SL.PE.1.1.B. - Build on others' talk in conversations by responding to the comments of others through multiple exchanges.
- SL.PE.1.1.C - Ask questions to clear up any confusion about the topics and texts under discussion.
- SL.II.1.2. - Ask and answer questions about key details in a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media.
- SL.ES.1.3. - Ask and answer questions about what a speaker says in order to gather additional information or clarify something that is not understood.
- SL.PI.1.4. - Describe people, places, things, and events with relevant details, expressing ideas and feelings clearly.
- SL.UM.1.5. - Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions when appropriate to clarify ideas, thoughts, and feelings.
- SL.AS1.6. - Produce complete sentences when appropriate to task and situation.

NJSLS Social Studies Skills Table -

Effective strategies for accessing sources of information and historical evidence, determining their validity, and using them to solve a problem or find a solution to a public policy:

Skills	K-5
Chronological Thinking	-Place key historical events and people in historical eras using timelines -Explain how the present is connected to the past

Social Studies Grade 1

Spatial Thinking	-Determine locations of places and interpret information available on maps and globes -Use thematic maps and other geographic representations to obtain, describe, and compare spatial patterns and information about people, places, regions, and environments.
Critical Thinking	-Distinguish fact from fiction -Identify and interpret a variety of primary and secondary sources for reconstructing the past (e.g., documents, letters, diaries, maps, photos, etc.).
Presentational Skills	-Use evidence to support an idea in a digital, oral, and/or written form -Share information about a topic in an organized manner (e.g., provide a coherent line of reasoning with supporting/relevant evidence details, speaking clearly, and at an appropriate pace.

Holocaust Education is an important area of a balanced and inclusive Social Studies program. It is infused into teaching by including the following topics:

- Exploring the Uniqueness of Each Person
- Understanding and Applying Respect, Trust, and Caring
- Bullying
- Friendship
- Cultural Contributions of Ethnicities
- Prejudice
- Standing Up for What is Right
- Laws and Rules for Peace and Harmony

Amistad Bill (A1301), which became law in 2002, calls on New Jersey schools to integrate the history and contributions of African-Americans into the social studies curriculum, in order to provide an accurate, complete, and inclusive history.

Read alouds of exemplary children’s literature that include characters from various ethnicities, African-American contributions, problem solving, friendship, and leadership readily meet the requirements of including Holocaust Education and Amistad in the Social Studies curriculum.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies and Key Skills

Standard	Performance Expectations	Core Ideas
9.4.2.GCA:1	Articulate the role of culture in everyday life by describing one’s own culture and comparing it to the cultures of other individuals (e.g., 1.5.2.C2a, 7.1.NL.IPERS.5, 7.1.NL.IPERS.6).	Individuals from different cultures may have different points of view and experiences.
9.4.2.CI.1	Demonstrate openness to new ideas and perspectives (e.g., 1.1.2.CR1a, 2.1.2.EH.1, 6.1.2.CivicsCM.2).	Brainstorming can create new, innovative ideas.

- Add an Ending to a Book Review
- Review and Revise a Book Review
- Use Suggestions from a Peer Review
- Check Writing for Errors
- Publish a Book Review

Interdisciplinary Connections:

The texts/activities in this unit will support the learning and understanding of comparing and contrasting different kinds of families and cultures locally and globally. Students will recognize and explore cultural diversities amongst the classroom and community.

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s):

Performance-Based Assessment:

- Social Studies Task: Students compare and contrast 2 different cultures
- Opinion Task: Write a Book Review - Scholars will write a review that states their opinion of one of the texts they have read. They will include information from the text that helped them form their opinion.
- Scholars will:
 - introduce the topic by naming the book.
 - write a sentence that states their opinion of the book.
 - give reason for their opinion and support those reasons with information and details from the book.
 - provide a sense of closure.

Student Self-Assessment(s):

- Social Studies - Turn and Talk: Which celebrations are important in your culture?

Unit Title: Unit 6 Module B - Celebrating Diversity

Social Studies Grade 1

Overview: This unit of study focuses on the rich diversity of the United States and how it fosters understanding between cultures. Identify and understand how some landmarks may have changed over time. Recognize American symbols and their meanings.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies

- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.1 - Describe why it is important that individuals assume personal and civic responsibilities in a democratic society.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.2 - Use examples from a variety of sources to describe how certain characteristics can help individuals collaborate and solve problems (e.g., open-mindedness, compassion, civility, persistence).
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.1 - Explain how national symbols reflect on American values and principles.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.3 - Explain how historical symbols, monuments and holidays reflect the shared values, principles, and beliefs of the American identity.
- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.2 - Use a timeline of important events to make inferences about the "big picture" of history.
- 6.1.2.HistorySE.3 - Use historical data from a variety of sources to investigate the development of a local community (e.g., origins of its name, originating members, important historical events and places).
- 6.1.2.Geo.SV.3 - Identify and describe the properties of a variety of maps and globes (e.g., title, legend, cardinal directions, scale, symbols,) and purposes (wayfinding, thematic).
- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.1 - Use multiple sources to create a chronological sequence of events that describes how and why your community has changed over time.
- 6.3.2.CivicsPD.1 - With adult guidance and support, bring awareness of a local issue to school and/or community members and make recommendations for change.

NJSLS Reading

Central Idea/Enduring Understanding:

Social Studies:

- Immigrants can become and obtain the rights of American citizens.
- The world is composed of nations that are similar to and different from the United States.
- In an interconnected world, it is important to consider our own military community and cultural perspectives before proposing solutions to local, state, national, and global challenges.
- Immigrants come to New Jersey and the United States for various reasons and have a major impact on the state and the nation.
- Historical symbols and the ideas and events they represent play a role in understanding and evaluating our history.

Reading/Writing:

- Readers understand that illustrations and details in texts help them better comprehend what they read.
- Writers understand that valid opinions are supported by reasons.
- Learners appreciate how its diverse culture helps contribute to the unique character of the United States.

Essential/Guiding Question:

Social Studies:

- How do immigrants become United States citizens?
- How is the world divided into many nations that have their own governments, languages, customs, and laws?
- Why is it important for people from diverse cultures to collaborate to find solutions to challenges?
- Why do people immigrate into New Jersey and America?
- What challenges do immigrants encounter?
- How has immigration impacted the growth of America?
- How do historical symbols, monuments, and holidays affect the American identity?
- What challenges do military children encounter?

Reading/Writing:

- How can readers use illustrations and key details to understand texts?
- How do writers use what they read to develop and support an opinion?

Social Studies Grade 1

Content:

Social Studies:

- Whose Is This? by Narinder Dhami - A story about two girls who are introduced to different cultures at the town culture fair when they are looking for the owners of different objects in the lost and found box.
- L is for Liberty by Wendy Cheyette Lewison - An informational text that tells basic facts about the Statue of Liberty, explains the history and symbolism of the statue, and defines liberty.

Interdisciplinary Connections:

The texts/activities in this unit will support the learning and understanding of diverse cultures contributing to the unique dynamics of the United States. Recognize American symbols and meanings. Learn that the Statue of Liberty has stood proudly in New York Harbor, welcoming people from near and far.

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s):

Performance-Based Assessment:

- Social Studies task: Students will work collaboratively to list facts about America.
- Social Studies task: Students will collaboratively to list recommendations for how to welcome military students to our community.

Other Evidence:

Beginning of Year Assessment:

- Baseline Assessment

Formative Assessments:

- Reading keystones
 - Benchmark Vocabulary Practice
 - Text Analysis Practice/Application
 - Write in Response to Reading

Social Studies Grade 1

- Opinion Task: Write an Opinion Piece - Scholars will think about the lost items they read about in Whose is This? and decide which one they think was most interesting and why. They will write their opinion and include information from the text that helped them form their opinion.
- Scholars will:
 - introduce the topic by stating what they are writing about.
 - write a sentence that states their opinion.
 - give reasons for their opinion and support those reasons with information from the text.
 - provide a sense of closure.

Student Self-Assessment(s):

- Social Studies - Turn and Talk: What are some American symbols?

- Reading Keystone Rubrics
 - Reading/Language Analysis
 - Write in Response to Reading
 - Benchmark Vocabulary
- Writing Keystones:
 - Checklists
- Writing Rubrics:
 - Narrative
 - Informative/Explanatory
 - Opinion
- Oral Reading Fluency Quick Checks

Summative Assessments:

- Social Studies - Explain why there are so many different people and cultures in America.
- Selection Test - Anchor Text
- Performance-Based Assessment - Module A & B
- End-of-Unit Assessment

Stage 3: Learning Plan

Learning Opportunities/Strategies:

SOCIAL STUDIES: Interdisciplinary Connections

- Day 1-7: Using Whose is This? Identify and describe cultural differences (music, clothing, play activities)
- Day 8-10: Learners will identify the symbol (Statue of Liberty) and talk about the connection between the symbol and the idea it stands for.

Unit Title: Cultural Holidays, Observances, and Celebrations

Overview: This unit of study focuses on the recognition of the nuances of one's own and other cultures. Students will engage in the quest to use academic, experiential, and interpersonal skills to increase their understanding and appreciation of cultural differences and similarities within, among, and between groups of people.

Stage 1: Desired Results

Standards & Indicators:

NJSLS Social Studies:

- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.1: Describe roles and responsibilities of community and local government leaders (e.g., mayor, town council).
- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.4: Explain how all people, not just official leaders, play important roles in a community.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPI.5: Describe how communities work to accomplish common tasks, establish responsibilities, and fulfill roles of authority.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPD.1: Engage in discussions effectively by asking questions, considering facts, listening to the ideas of others, and sharing opinions.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPD.2: Establish a process for how individuals can effectively work together to make decisions.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.1: Explain how national symbols reflect on American values and principles.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.2: Use evidence to describe how democratic principles such as equality, fairness, and respect for legitimate authority and rules have impacted individuals and communities.
- 6.1.2.CivicsDP.3: Explain how historical symbols, monuments and holidays reflect the shared values, principles, and beliefs of the American identity.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.1: Determine what makes a good rule or law.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.2: Cite evidence that explains why rules and laws are necessary at home, in schools, and in communities.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.3: Analyze classroom rules and routines and describe how they are designed to benefit the common good.
- 6.1.2.CivicsPR.4: Explain why teachers, local community leaders, and other adults have a responsibility to make rules that are fair, consistent, and respectful of individual rights.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.1: Describe why it is important that individuals assume personal and civic responsibilities in a democratic society.
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.2: Use examples from a variety of sources to describe how certain characteristics can help individuals collaborate and solve problems (e.g., open-mindedness, compassion, civility, persistence).
- 6.1.2.CivicsCM.3: Explain how diversity, tolerance, fairness, and respect for others can contribute to individuals feeling accepted.
- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.2: Describe how human activities affect the culture and environmental characteristics of places or regions (e.g., transportation, housing, dietary needs).
- 6.1.2.Geo.HE.3: Identify cultural and environmental characteristics of different regions in New Jersey and the United States.
- 6.1.2.Geo.GI.1: Explain why and how people, goods, and ideas move from place to place.
- 6.1.2.Geo.GI.2: Use technology to understand the culture and physical characteristics of regions.
- 6.1.2.EconET.5: Describe how local and state governments make decisions that affect individuals and the community.

Social Studies Grade 1

- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.1: Use multiple sources to create a chronological sequence of events that describes how and why your community has changed over time.
- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.2: Use a timeline of important events to make inferences about the "big picture" of history.
- 6.1.2.HistoryCC.3: Make inferences about how past events, individuals, and innovations affect our current lives.
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.1: Use primary sources representing multiple perspectives to compare and make inferences about why there are different accounts of the same event.
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.2: Use evidence to demonstrate how an individual's beliefs, values, and traditions may change and/or reflect more than one culture.
- 6.1.2.HistoryUP.3: Use examples from the past and present to describe how stereotyping and prejudice can lead to conflict.
- 6.1.2.HistorySE.1: Use examples of regional folk heroes, stories, and/or songs and make inferences about how they have contributed to the development of a culture's history.
- 6.1.2.HistorySE.2: Analyze a variety of sources describing the same event and make inferences about why the accounts are different (e.g., photographs, paintings, cartoons, newspapers, poetry, novels, plays).
- 6.1.2.HistoryCA.1: Make an evidence-based argument how and why communities change over time (e.g., locally, nationally, globally).

NJSLS ELA Reading:

workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country.

- Commodore John Barry Day commemorates an important figure in American history. He is known as “The Father of the American Navy”. He was given the important task of putting together our navy as the American colonies were fighting for independence from England and was made a Captain in the Continental Navy. Commodore Barry remained head of the navy until his death on September 13, 1803. The Commodore Barry Bridge, in honor of Commodore John Barry, opened in 1974 which crosses the Delaware River connecting Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
- Constitution Day is observed on September 17 to commemorate the signing of the Constitution on September 17, 1787. Delegates to the Constitutional Convention met for the last time to sign the document.
- Indigenous Peoples' Day is a holiday that celebrates and honors Native American peoples and commemorates their histories and cultures.
- Veteran’s Day is a national holiday celebrated on November 11 to honor military veterans for their service. “World War I – known at the time as “The Great War” - officially ended when the Treaty of Versailles was signed on June 28, 1919, in the Palace of Versailles outside the town of Versailles, France. However, fighting ceased seven months earlier when an armistice or temporary cessation of hostilities, between the Allied nations and Germany went into effect on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. For that reason, November 11, 1918, is generally regarded as the end of “the war to end all wars.””
- Thanksgiving is a national holiday celebrated on the fourth Thursday in November commemorating a feast between Wampanoag Native Americans and Plymouth Colonists. This day provides an opportunity to recognize what we are grateful for, as the Colonists and Native Americans were

- Cultural Diversity
- Heroes
- Famous African American Inventors
- The Constitution of the United States
- Rules
- Patriotism
- Environmental Movement
- Famous Asian Pacific Americans

Social Studies Grade 1

grateful for the past year's harvest and survival. We can also take this time to learn more about Native Americans' culture and how they give thanks.

- Muslim Heritage Month recognizes the importance of the many religious and cultural traditions of Muslims. This month aims to promote awareness and appreciation of the many contributions of the members of the Muslim community.
- Dr. MLK, Jr. Day is an American federal holiday honoring the birthday of Dr. King which is celebrated on the third Monday in January. It is a time when the nation pauses to remember the life and work of Dr. King.
- Holocaust Remembrance Day is recognized on January 27th to honor the six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust and the millions of other victims of nazism between 1941 and 1945, as well as to prevent any future genocides. We can take this opportunity to see how others were treated poorly and learn from it for the future.
- Black History Month is an annual celebration of achievements by African Americans and a time for recognizing their central role in U.S. history. Also known as African American History Month, this time was designated to focus attention on the many contributions of African Americans to the United States. It honors all Black people from all periods of U.S. history. We can take this opportunity to teach and promote achievements by Black Americans and other peoples of African descent.
- National Freedom Day is an observance in the United States that honors the signing of a resolution that proposed the 13th amendment of the nation's constitution on February 1, 1865. Abraham Lincoln, who was the president at the time, signed the resolution to outlaw slavery. This anniversary is annually observed on February 1.

Social Studies Grade 1

- Presidents Day is a holiday celebrating United States presidents, especially Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. It originated as a day to recognize George Washington on his birthday and later included recognition of Abraham Lincoln. Today it is a day to recognize all of our country's presidents.
- Women's History month is celebrated to honor the important contributions and accomplishments of women. This is annually observed during the month of March.
- Diversity Month is celebrated to teach the variety of human-mankind. This prepares students to be global citizens by exposing them to people from different cultures and social groups. Students will gain an understanding of a broad scope of accepting others' differences and cultural backgrounds. The awareness of 'same but different', affirms students' cultural identities and enhances the learning environment.
- Emancipation Day is a holiday in Washington D.C. to mark the anniversary of the signing of the Compensated Emancipation Act, which president Abraham Lincoln signed on April 16, 1862.
- Earth Day is an annual event on April 22 to demonstrate support for environmental protection. It is a day to honor the Earth and the concept of peace. Earth Day includes a wide range of events coordinated globally by EarthDay.org including 1 billion people in more than 193 countries.
- Arbor Day, similar to Earth Day, is a holiday that celebrates nature. Its purpose is to teach children the appreciation of trees and their benefits. Use this day to arrange for students to plant trees and organize litter-collecting events in or around the community.
- Asian Pacific American Heritage Month is a period for the duration of the month of May for recognizing the contributions and influence of Asian Americans and Pacific Islander Americans to the history, culture, and achievements of the

United States.

- Memorial Day is observed on the last Monday of May. It commemorates all men and women who have died in military service for the United States.
- Flag Day is celebrated on June 14 in the United States. It commemorated the adoption of the flag of the United States of America. It is important because it symbolizes our united country under one symbol.
- Juneteenth is a celebration commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States. The Emancipation Proclamation became official on January 1, 1863 but it wasn't until June 19, 1865 that the news reached Galveston, Texas that all enslaved were freed.

Interdisciplinary Connections:

The discussions/activities in this unit emphasize character education initiatives, art and cultural celebrations, recognize and celebrate various cultures through month-long acknowledgement, word language awareness, climate and environmental conservation.

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s):

- Written Products
 - Interviews
 - Journal Responses
 - Learning Logs

Stage 3: Learning Plan

Learning Opportunities/Strategies:

Hispanic Heritage Month (September)

- Use Spanish words/phrases in context during Morning Meeting or other daily lessons
- Language activities that match common English words with Spanish words
- Explore Latin music and/or food
- Expose students to famous Hispanic Americans (Justice Sotomayor, Roberto Clemente, etc)

Labor Day

- Discuss community helpers (generally those who work in trades)
- Discuss working under adverse working conditions (including children) of the past

Commodore Barry

- Discuss the contributions Commodore John Barry made to the United States and that he is known as the father of the United States Navy. Show students pictures of ships used during the Revolutionary War. Discuss with students the difficulty of sailing during that time. Using a Venn diagram, have students compare ships of the revolutionary time to those of today.

Constitution Day

- Discuss with students how the Constitution provides everyone with rights, like the right to own personal property. Explain that all citizens have these rights. Compare these rights to classroom rules. Discuss how rules help protect students' individual rights and keep us safe.

Indigenous Peoples' Day

- Discuss what the students know about Native American culture.
- Expose students to various Native American/Inuit traditions.

Presidents' Day

- Watch and discuss a video about a president's job in the United States.
- watch videos about Abraham Lincoln and George Washington
- project or print venn diagram to compare and contrast the two presidents

Women's History Month (March)

- Throughout the month of March, set aside 15-20 minutes on various days you've chosen, to learn about one historical figure at a time. Watch a video or listen to a read aloud about each woman. Then use the printable blank booklet to have students record 1-2 facts about each woman from history and draw a picture of her. If you'd like to add more historical figures, there are more videos on brainpop and read alouds on youtube. You could print extra pages per student for the booklet if you choose to do this.

Diversity Month (April)

- Use a variety of books that honor diversity among children and cultures.
- Reference a difference yet a similarity among ourselves with discussion

- Multicultural Books
- Inspiring Gender EqualityBooks

Social Studies Grade 1

- Identify examples of togetherness in/outside of the classroom
- Respect for others and recognition of human mankind as citizens.

(All-Year idea)

Begin every morning with a multicultural greeting. This way, students really learn and remember the greeting vs a new one each day. Every month, choose a simple phrase from a new language and greet children. Repeating these phrases for the month is a fun way for students to also learn a bit of a foreign language.

Emancipation Day

- Read aloud The Patchwork Path: A Quilt Map to Freedom by Bettie Stroud. Discuss the meaning of slavery and explain the escape to freedom was difficult. Discuss how the quilt was a secret means of communication. Have students create a quilt square and assemble into a class quilt.
- Read aloud Aunt Harriet's Underground Railroad in the Sky by Faith Ringgold. Discuss how an underground railroad is not a train, but a way people helped each other. Students create a picture of something they can do because they are free and write a sentence about what they can do. Scaffold writing according to student ability.

Earth Day

- Listen to a story describing planet Earth (Here We Are by Oliver Jeffers)
- Discuss the 3 R's – reduce, reuse and recycle and how you can help save planet Earth
- Earth Day coffee filter craft

Arbor Day

- Listen to Arbor Day - PBS Kids: Learn the meaning of 'arbor'. Discuss the origin of Arbor Day, its significance to the environment. Gain a clear understanding of the holiday's purpose.
