TPRS Permian High School Newsletter 2025

Thank You to The Bridge Church

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to The Bridge Church for generously supporting our teen parent students at Permian High School. Their thoughtful Thanksgiving basket donations will help our students and their families enjoy the holiday season. Your kindness truly makes a difference! This support also strengthens TPRS in our mission to empower students by helping them remove barriers so they can continue their education and thrive. Pictured below is Azul receiving a food box and gift card. Azul shared, "Thank you so much; this really helps my family."

We are deeply grateful for community partners like The Bridge Church who remind our students that they are seen, supported, and valued.

More Agencies Support

TPRS would like to thank the various community agencies who supported our TPRS students.

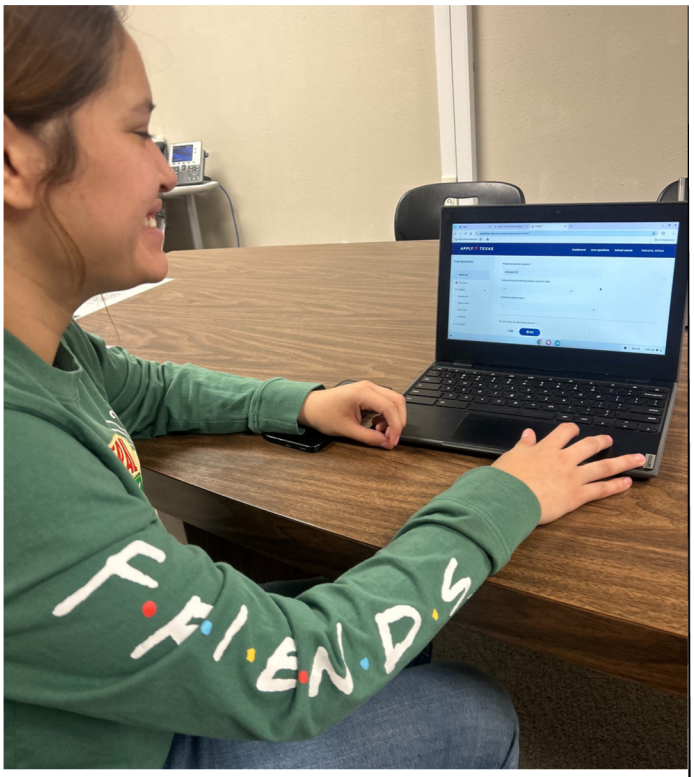

Stonegate Church Thanksgiving Basket

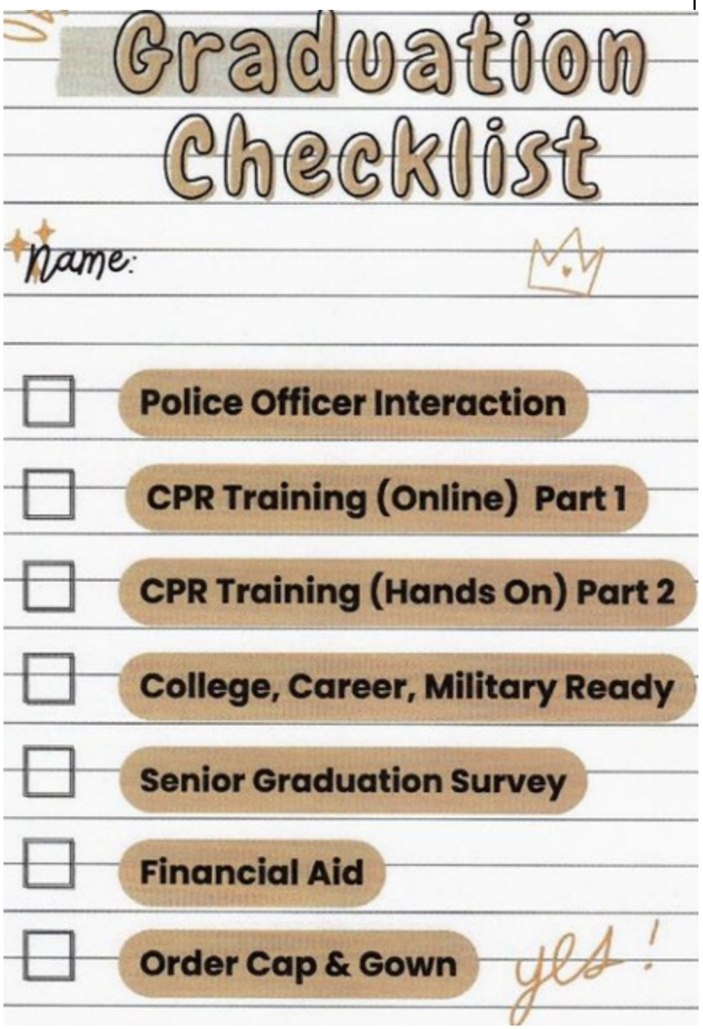

We appreciate Stonegate Church for providing Thanksgiving baskets to our teen parent students. Your generosity makes a meaningful difference this season.

Alayna was so happy to receive the turkey and goods for her family.

Supporting Our Seniors on the Path to College

The TPRS team is dedicated to ensuring every senior meets 100% of their graduation requirements and is fully prepared for college. This week, we are proud to highlight Jalissa, a hardworking teen parent who is taking the next step toward her future by completing her ApplyTexas application to Odessa College. Our staff continues to provide individualized support to all seniors as they complete both the FAFSA and ApplyTexas applications, helping them confidently transition into their post-secondary goals.

Attention Seniors

It is important to make sure you complete all of your senior requirements. Stop by the TPRS office in C12 for assistance with graduation tasks, college applications, FAFSA completion, and any other graduation requirements listed. Our team is here to help you finish strong and prepare for your next steps.

Donation for ECISD TPRS Students

Thank you Crossroads Church for your continued support and generosity towards the TPRS program. This is your third year blessing our teen parent students with donations of snacks, pampers, wipes, and other essential items that make a meaningful difference in the lives of our students and their babies.
Words cannot fully express how thankful we are for your kindness and commitment to our program. Your partnership truly impacts our families in a powerful way. It truly helps TPRS support our students helping them remove barriers to allow them to continue their education.

Thank You to Crossroads Church!
Faith Torres, pictured below with her family, received a lovely baby shower from Crossroads Church. We appreciate your support to help our students stay in school.
