

West Contra Costa Unified School District

Citizen's Bond Oversight Committee

Resolution 14-1

Adopted 12-10-2014

Comprehensive Planning for the WCCUSD School Construction Program Using Different Resource Scenarios / "The End Game"

WHEREAS

1. There has not been a new formal Master Plan for WCCUSD since 2007 while 2 more bond measures have passed and many changes have occurred in the district.
2. The passage of more bonds and the approval of debt ceiling waivers to provide more resources cannot necessarily be assumed.
3. If another bond measure were to be sought, a greater level of advance planning based on specific resource constraints would create more confidence on the part of the public in supporting such a measure.
4. Changes in the district leadership at the BOE and staff levels provide an excellent opportunity for a new look at the program.

BE IT RESOLVED THAT

1. The Committee requests that the district staff produce a plan including projects and timing for the following scenarios:
 - a. No further bond authorizations are passed.
 - b. A bond authorization similar to the failed Measure H 2014 is passed in 2016.The differences in what would be done between each scenario should be highlighted. This plan itself would not be considered binding on the District.
2. This plan shall be presented to the Committee no later than its February 2015 meeting.
3. The Chair of the Committee is authorized to form an ad hoc subcommittee to monitor progress on plan development and to provide feedback on the format and substance of the plan.
4. Upon presentation of the plan, the Committee will then decide what to do next. Some options that might be considered include:
 - a. Using the plan as the basis for an on-going conversation among the staff, the Committee, and the public about the overall direction of the bond program
 - b. Recommending that the BOE discuss the plan
 - c. Recommending the adoption of the plan by the BOE with amendments, if any, proposed by CBOC
 - d. Recommending the development of a more formal Master Plan to replace the 2007 Master Plan upon adoption by the BOE
