READING

What should my child learn in Grade 6?

Fluency

- Read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at grade level.

Vocabulary

- Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.
- Use common, grade-appropriate Greek or Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., audience, auditory, audible).
- Consult reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print/digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning or its part of speech.
- Verify the determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).

Comprehension

- Analyze text to cite textual evidence that is explicitly stated and to make inferences.
- Determine theme and central ideas of a text.
- Summarize a text based on facts.
- Describe how a story's plot unfolds and how the characters respond or change as the plot moves toward a resolution.
- Compare and contrast the point of view of the narrator or characters in a text.
- Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text. Distinguish claims supported by evidence and claims that are not.
- Compare and contrast one author's presentation of events with that of another (e.g., a memoir written by and a biography about the same person).

How Can I Help My Child Learn at Home?

- Provide time and space for your child to read independently that is free from distractions.
- Ask your child what topics, events, or activities he or she likes. Look for books, magazines, or other materials about topics that would motivate your child to read.
- Make time for conversation at home. Discuss current events, shared interests, and future aspirations for education and career.
- Visit museums, zoos, theaters, historical sites, aquariums, and other places to help increase your child's exposure to new knowledge and vocabulary.
- Use technology to help build your child's interest in reading. Students can read books or articles online at many websites.
