

Dear Conrad School Community,

As we enter the winter season, I want to extend warm wishes to all of our students, families, and staff. This time of year, offers a meaningful opportunity to reflect on our progress and look ahead with renewed purpose. I am proud to share that we have successfully wrapped up the first marking period and are well on our way toward a strong completion of the first semester.

At Conrad, our commitment to student achievement and success remains at the forefront of everything we do. This year, we have continued to strengthen initiatives that provide students with the academic and social-emotional support they need to thrive. Our newly structured advisory program has become an intentional space for mentorship, connection, and academic readiness. Likewise, our content-based advisory rooms and after-school tutoring program are designed to offer targeted support, reinforce classroom instruction, and ensure that every student has access to the tools and resources necessary for success.

I am continually inspired by the dedication of our staff, the resilience of our students, and the unwavering partnership of our families. As we move through the winter months, I encourage all members of our Red Wolf community to stay engaged—whether through athletics, performing arts events, service opportunities, or academic supports.

Thank you for your continued collaboration and trust. Together, we will finish this semester strong and carry that momentum into the new year.

Warmly,

Kendra Todd-Dixon, Principal
