The show opens Friday, December 5 at 7:30pm and runs through Saturday, December 13 at 4:00pm.

The show is based on Sara Gruen's bestselling novel and features a soaring score by the PigPen Theatre Co. and innovative circus acts like puppetry and aerial silks. The musical has received multiple Tony Award nominations, including for Best Musical and North Reading is one of three schools to obtain the rights across the US. The story unfolds as Jacob Jankowski, a veterinary student, runs away from home after his parents' death and hops a train that turns out to be the Benzini Bros. circus. He finds a new home and family with the circus performers.

Don't miss another amazing Masquers production. Get your tickets today!
