

Grade 7
Family & Consumer Sciences

Family Consumer Sciences is a 7th grade mandatory elective focusing on life skills in food science & nutrition, financial & resource management, child development, and balancing family, work, & community responsibilities. Students are given the opportunity to learn kitchen basics with food labs and other life skills through individual and group projects.