

Grade 8
Applied Technology

Applied Technology

In Eighth Grade Applied Technology engineering, science, and math skills are developed as students create solutions to technological problems presented to them. Students design, build, and test models of products from a variety of areas within the subject of technology.