

Nicaragua

Nicaragua is the country I have researched. Its size covers 130,370km and its population is 7.14 million people. Nicaragua got its name Nicaragua, after a chief of the Indigenous people, also the word Nicaroa is a Latin word that means water. Nicaragua is located in the continent of Central America. The capital of Nicaragua is Managua. The largest city in Nicaragua is the capital Managua with a population of 1.7 million. The tallest mountain is Pico Mogoton which is 2,085m. The longest river is Rio Coco being 523m.

Nicaragua doesn't have states but it has 15 departments (It's Nicaragua's way of saying of States). Nicaragua's neighboring countries are Honduras on the north, and Costa Rica on the south.

The President of Nicaragua is Daniel Ortega and Rosario Murillo.

Nicaragua's flag represents peace, unity, and freedom. The blue stripes of the flag symbolizes the oceans and the white stripes symbolizes peace.

A historical fact about Nicaragua is that it's unique as in Central America it was colonized both by the British and Spain. Some famous people from Nicaragua are Oscar Duarte (He is a famous soccer player), Dennis Martinez (He is a famous baseball player), Barbara Carrera (She is a famous actress), and Ruben Dario (He is a famous poet).

Some religions in Nicaragua are Christianary and Roman Catholic.

Some traditional foods are Gallo Pinto, Queso Frito, and the famous desert Tres Leches Cake.

The traditional clothes men wear are guayabera shirts with trousers, and women use folkloric dresses.

Marimba, El Gueguenes and Polo de Maya are all music and dances of Nicaragua.

Some important holidays in Nicaragua are Independence Day, Christmas, Semana Santa, La Parisma, La Griteria, Battle of San Jacinto Day, Mother's Day and so much more.

Some Famous Landmarks in Nicaragua are Granada, Lake Nicaragua, Masaya Volcano National Park, Indio Maiz Biological Reserve, Ometepe Island, Apoyo Lagoon, The National Palace Of Culture and so much more.

I hope you learned a lot about Nicaragua while reading this!

Antonio Ramos

5th grade-Mrs. Jackson

Country research 2025