Party Given For Children

On Friday, October 29, at 4 p.m. the Medical Assistants and their instructor, Mrs. Virginia Prince, R.N., held a costume Halloween party at Lakeville Hospital for the handicapped and bed ridden children in the pediatric wards. All the students in the Medical Assistant class worked to make this party a success. They brought dozens of cupcakes and brownies, bags of candy and lollipops, and over 50 witches hats for the children. Those students who did not work after school dressed in costumes for the party. The girls makeup was handled expertly by Mrs. Paula Bernstein, Dental Hygienist instructor. The children thoroughly enjoyed the party and found the cat the most attractive of their guests. They indicated this, by biting the cat's tail and removing her bell.

DEER CAUSES PANIC

Camden, S.C.--Kershaw county Memorial Hospital construction workers were near panic when a 150-pound deer leaped through a plate glass window, then out, and smashed through plate glass into the cafeteria before one of the workers felled it with a pick.

ECOLOGY CORNER

By Brian Henry

The plight of wildlife's not as sensational as mercury or oil pollution, but still does effect ecology. About 900 species of animals are now in danger of becoming extinct. For an example, the whales are dying. The greatest part of 42,226 sea mammals, died at the hands of Japan and the Soviet Union. The United States plans to start a precedent, by conducting hearings on resolutions calling for a 10 year moratorium on killing whales.

Even if the House does pick up on the Senate passed measure, there is not much hope that other nations would support it. A small, but some what significant step has been taken by Pan American Airlines. The company has refused to book any tours which would involve killing endangered species.

Movie Review

By Paul Ouellette

In the case of LeMans, you can say that love is blind. What else can you say about an actor who is so in love with racing cars that he makes a movie starring them? Steve McQueen, as most of his fans know, likes nothing better than varooming around on motorcycles and in souped-up cars. In making LeMans, he probably thought that he was sharing his pleasure with the average moviegoer. But LeMans is nothing but an endless footage of cars racing and crashing, This does not make a movie because this film lacks necessary items such as plot, characterization, and dialogue. To sum it up, this overlong look at the Grand Prix would probably be worth your time and money, if you are an avid racing enthusiast.

COMFORTING THOUGHT

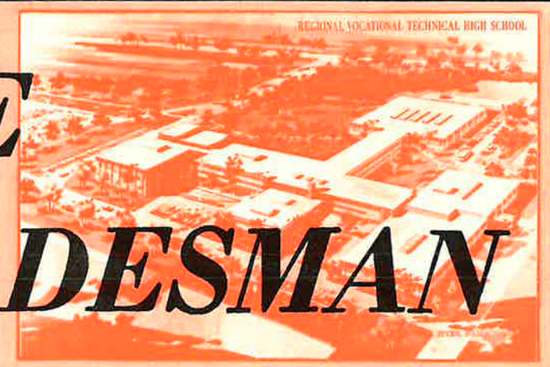

A father was looking over his son's report card. After a long silence, he finally said, "Well, there's one thing in your favor. With these grades, you couldn't possibly be cheating".

Soccer Team State Finalists

Diman's State Finalists with Mr. Booth, their coach.

by Dale Souza

Diman Regional is the first Fall River team to make it into the State Soccer Tournament. Coach Russ Booth's Artisans are in second place with an impressive 8-1-1 record behind New Bedford High whose 12-0-0 record also qualified them for the tournament.

Carlos Couto has been the top scorer for the team with Bob Vezina and Ramiro Vasconcellos behind him. The Artisans have lost goal tender Manny Carvalho who had given up only one goal and helped the team rack up six shutouts. Unfortunately, he will be ineligible to play for the remain der of the season.

Debate Team Visits Diman

by Gerard Vaillancourt

The University of Massachusetts' Debate Team visited Diman, Tuesday , October 19. The purpose of this assembly was to show the student body a college-level debate team in action. The team debated on the pros and cons of using violence to achieve civil rights. Despite the lively presentation. The debate was not what had been expected from college students.

Did you hear about the scientist who crossed a potato with a sponge? It tastes terrible but holds a lot of gravy.

What is Key Clubbing?

By Frank Santos

The Key Club is a group of students dedicated to the community and school. For Thanksgiving they are planning to prepare food baskets and donate them to low income families. They are also planning to do the same for Christmas. The club will be collecting toys for the annual toy drive. These toys will be donated to a local home for children.

The Key Club operates a store which sells pens, pencils, notebooks, school jackets and sweatshirts. The store is located next to the work study room on the second floor and is open each morning before 8:00.

Anyone interested in joining should write a composition explaining why you would like to join the club. Then give this composition to Mr. Pratt in Room B 230.

The club meetings are held on Mondays during the 8th period for Week I and during the 4th period for Week II.

The officers for the club are:
President - Michael Hutzol
Vice President - James Silvia
Secretary - Frank Santos
Treasurer - Wayne Rogers

RECORD GROOVES

By Roger Robillard

Well, its time to review some of the latest records to see what's behind the grooves ..... Let's get this phonograph into 33 and check out some new L.P. releases.

.... The Who's latest album, entitled "Who's Next" is a very sophisticated, thunderous hard rock L.P. The best cuts are, "Baba O'Reilly", "Bargain", and the cut that made a single, "Won't Be Fooled Again".

.... Rod Stewart's album, "Every Picture Tells A Story" is by far one of the most impressive albums of the year. The album was released toward the end of the summer, and two of the cuts "Maggie May" and "Reason to Believe" are still within the top 40.

.... Since the four Beatles broke up the one making the most popularity is John Lennon. Much attention has been centered on him again with the release of his second album,"Imagine", which contain such songs as "How Do You Sleep?" and "Crippled Inside." It's worth listening to.

We'll see you next month, but until then keeping'em spinning!

BOOK REVIEW

By Ray Morrissette

The words ecology pollution, and conservation are common in everyday conversation. Prior to the publication of books like Rachel Carson's Silent Spring, environmental preservation was rarely discussed. Since Miss Carson's publication, public awareness has increased.

Last year Frank Graham, Jr. published Since Silent Spring. In this book Mr. Graham, an authority on conservation and pollution tries to describe the origin of Miss Carson's book and the furor it caused which resulted in some solid gains, but also much verbal abuse by powerful corporations.

A variety of interesting outlooks on the subject of environment is The Arthur Godfrey Environmental Reader. In this book Godfrey excerpts material from a group of exceptional sources to emphasize the need for environmental concern on the part of everyone.

If you are interested in saving your environment why not take a book at the following places ; the library or your favorite bookstore.

Silent Spring Rachel Carson
Houghton Mifflin, 1962
The book that ignited public concern.

Since Silent Spring Frank Graham, Jr.
Houghton Mifflin, 1970
Reveals that the battle is not won.

Breath of Life Donald E. Carr
Norton, 1965
The problem of our poisoned air.

Not So Rich As You Think
George R. Stewart
Houghton Mifflin, 1968
The nightmare costs of pollution.

Conservation: Now or Never
Nicholas Roosevelt
Dodd, 1970
Past battles encourage future action.

Death of the Sweet Waters
Donald E. Carr
Norton, 1966
An antidote for complacency

SEAT OF JUDGEMENT

While learning to drive the family car, a wife hopelessly snarled up traffic as she tried to make a left turn. In a panic, she screamed at her husband: "What do I do now?"
"I don't know," he replied, "but I'm sure if you'll just climb into the back seat, you'll be able to figure it out."

Cross Country Team Finishes Third

by Ron Picard

Somerset High School which dominated the league during the regular cross country season, captured the All-Narry Title. This is the second consecutive year that Somerset has taken the title.

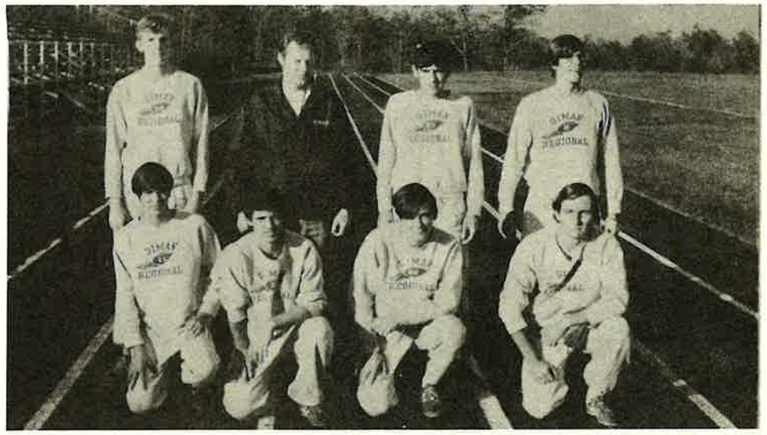

Diman was in the competition all the way as Ed Hill and Russ Boulay put out a little extra and finished in the top ten. The ten finalists were awarded medals, except for Andy Murphy of Somerset who was awarded a trophy for capturing first place. The teams finished in the following order: Somerset, Seekonk, Diman, Connolly, Case, Old Rochester, and Westport.

The Cross Country team also finished third in the Vocational Technical Invitational at Bristol Aggie. Diman was surpassed only by Southeastern and Lynn in a field of seven teams. Two team members, Russ Boulay and Don Gamache, placed sixth and eigth in the competition and were awaded trophies.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

A father was buying a fountain pen for his son's birthday gift. "I suppose it's to be a surprize, sir," said the clerk.

"I'll say it is," replied the father "He's expecting a new car!"

Looking Forward To Next Year

by Paul Tetuan

Head football coach, Mr. James Ashley, is looking forward to next year's football season.

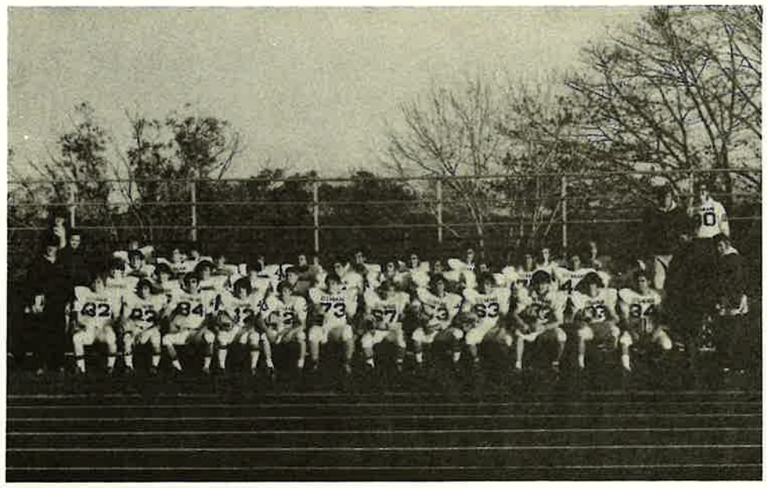

All of this year's team members will be back next year except for three seniors, backs Al Landry and Ray Bouchard, and center Mike Souza.

When asked if he though the team could do better, Mr. Ashley said, "Yes, because the team improves every week. We have a young team. You cannot develop a team in one or two years. It takes attitude, spirit, and team play."

Mr. Ashley also said that the team has a great amount of juniors and sophomores, but he would like a greater amount of freshman on the team.

Mr. Ashley is also looking forward to playing in the new all sport conference. He thinks it will definitely help the team because Diman will be playing teams of its own caliber. Overall, Mr. Ashley thinks that the conference will be good for area sports because it allows a greater amount of competitiveness, greater flexibility in scheduling, and better sports programs in all schools.

Mr. Ashley, the Athletic Director, said,"At Diman we have a six sport program which allows for a greater number of students participating in interscholastic athletics than we have at the present. Therefore, I urge all students who have any idea that they would like to participate in our sports program to try out for a sport which they feel as though they would like to play. There is room for all and more room can be made."

NO COMPLAINTS

A salesman grew tired of his work and decided to join the police force. After a few months, he met one of his former associates.

"How do you like your new job?" asked the ex - salesman's friend.

"Terrific," he replied. "The customer is always wrong".
