EHS Clubs, Organizations, Activities, and Sports

2025-2026

Academic

Business Professionals of America	Ana Harris	For students who plan to follow a career in a business field, BPA offers many opportunities and advantages. We compete at state and national levels in finance, administrative, and technology events. Community service and social activities are also a part of BPA.
HOSA Medical Occupation Club	Jennifer Weller	HOSA Medical Careers Club is an extra-curricular club for students interested in any aspect of the medical field. The club meets on Mondays to plan activities and events. This club offers professional affiliation with HOSA (Future Health Professionals) organization, community service, health care skill development and volunteer opportunities.
Edwardsville FFA Chapter	Joseph Birrirtier	The FFA is a National Organization designed to educate students in the many different careers in agriculture (Agri-business, Agri-Science, Horticulture, Landscaping and Veterinary Sciences). The FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agriculture education.
Literary Magazine	Lindsay Loesche	"Write something!" The Literary Magazine staff encourages all students to exercise their creative writing skills and write. Students at EHS submit their works of fiction, poetry, or essays to the LitMag staff or their English teacher, and our goal is to choose the works that best represent the diversity of the students at EHS and publish them in an online publication. We meet every other week after school from September to May. See Ms. Loesche in room A206 for details!
Math Team	Mollie Rice Camilla Eberlin Kelli Davis Melanie Molina	The Edwardsville High School Math Team's purpose is to develop high-level math skills through inter-scholastic competitions for advanced students.
Model U.N.	Christina House	Model United Nations is a simulation of the United Nation's system. Students assume the roles of delegates to the United Nations and debate current issues on the U.N.'s agenda. Model U.N. students seek ways the world community can deal with complex global concerns.
Newspaper	Amanda Thrun	Newspaper is a cocurricular activity whereby Honors Journalistic Composition students produce news, feature, opinion, and A&E pieces for the Tiger Times Online news site and the quarterly news magazine, The Claw. Students write on regular basis, often weekly, over the course of the year; create visual content to accompany their stories; and design the pages on which their print work appears. Students submit their work to regional and state-wide contests and participate in the IHSA Journalism competition in the spring.

Poetry Out Loud	Kirk Schlueter	Poetry Out Loud is a national poetry recitation contest. Students select poems to memorize and perform before an audience of judges and peers. Winners of the EHS contest can move on to the regional, state, and national rounds. Past EHS winners have been regional and state champions.
Robotics	Dan Morrissey	The Edwardsville High School Computer Team's purpose is to develop high-level computer skills through projects and robotics within the school and inter-scholastic competitions.
Tiger Teachers of Tomorrow	Amanda Arteberry Sara Chapman Nicole Heap	Tiger Teachers of Tomorrow is a club for any students interested in a career in education. We will collaborate, attend conferences, and attend competitions. This club will provide an opportunity for teaching experiences and include leadership opportunities. This club will be a local chapter of the Educators Rising national group that provides a clear pathway to increase teacher diversity and teacher quality.
Science Club	Marvin Allen	The Science Club provides a fun opportunity for students to broaden their knowledge of science and to interact with other students who have a shared interest in science. The club's members also are participating in activities provided by the American Chemicals Society's Chem Club and assist in science outreach activities in the community.
Science Fair	Julia Doll	The purpose of this group is to support students who want to enter projects in the Regional Science Fair at SIUE and/or Illinois Science and Humanities Symposium at SIUC. The group is open to any student interested in scientific research.
Science Olympiad	Marvin Allen	The Science Olympiad Team meets during the fall and early winter to prepare for the Regional Competition at SIU-Edwardsville. The team competes in events covering all science areas: Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Earth Science, and Technology.
Yearbook	Amanda Thrun Ashley Valenzuela	Yearbook is an extracurricular activity, and participation is by application and interview the April prior to the current school year. Yearbook students, like newspaper students, can submit design and photography work to regional and state-wide contests and participate in the IHSA Journalism competition in the spring.

Fine & Performing Arts
Drama Club	Ashley Melton	Students explore theater through acting, building, painting, creating costumes and props, and marketing. Members participate in plays, workshops, and creative projects, developing their skills and working together to bring stories to life. It's a fun, collaborative environment that fosters creativity and confidence. Want to join in? We have a meeting every Monday!
Marching Band	Ryan Lipscomb Dean Anderson	The marching band season begins with summer rehearsals and a two-week camp held within the school district. Once school begins, the marching band meets during the regularly scheduled band rehearsal time. Extra marching band practices are scheduled twice a week in the evenings from 6:30-8:30 pm.
Vocal Music Club	Emily Ottwein	There are two extra-curricular ensembles: "Bel Canto" (Treble Chorus), and "AcaFellaz" (Tenor/Bass Chorus).
Winter Guard	Ryan Lipscomb	The Winter Guard is a performance-based group that competes in the MCCGA and WGI circuits. Membership is by audition. Auditions are held in November and rehearsals are in the evenings twice each week and some Saturdays. The competition season begins in January and concludes in April.
Winter Drumline	Dean Anderson	The Winter Drumline is a performance-based group that competes in the MCCGA and WGI circuits. Membership is by audition. Auditions are held in November and rehearsals are in the evenings twice each week and some Saturdays. The competition season begins in January and concludes in April.
Language Clubs
American Sign Language Club	Kelly Dintleman	ASL Club is open to all students interested in learning American Sign Language and about Deaf Culture. The club meets weekly throughout the year and new members are always welcome.
French Club	Christel Schwarz Rachel Symanski	French club is open to all students at EHS. It strives to expand personal experience with French culture and language by celebrating holidays à la française such as Noël, Mardi Gras, National French Week, and others. Some additional activities are making crêpes from scratch, watching movies, making a float and being in the homecoming parade, cooking/baking contests, t-shirt decorating, French food sampling and so much more!
German Club	Levi Antrim Chris House	The German club offers opportunity to broaden the knowledge and culture and language through celebrations such as the Oktoberfest, sampling German cuisine at German restaurants and excursions to exhibits/concerts that reflect the German culture.

Spanish Club	Eleanor Trujillo	The Spanish Club is an organization designed to promote Hispanic cultural awareness and interest in the Spanish language. It has many events during the year. A dance group learns Mexican folk dance and a "news team" that makes videos for special classroom events.
National Honor Societies
Art Honors Society	Cassie Flynn	The National Art Honor Society program is to inspire and recognize students who have shown an outstanding ability and interest in art. The NAHS strives to aid members in attaining the highest standards in art scholarship, character, and service, and to bring art education to the attention of the school and community.
English Honor Society (NEHS)	Libby Rowan	This is a group led by students who share a passion for English and Literature. NEHS will serve the school and community through events and service projects that promote an interest in English. This is the first year for the society at EHS. We currently have approximately 70 members.
French Honor Society	Christel Schwarz	The aim of this organization is to stimulate interest in the study of French, to create enthusiasm and understanding of Francophone culture and civilization, along with the desire to promote and perpetuate international friendship efforts toward furthering solidarity in the French-speaking world. Students are eligible for membership after having an A for three consecutive semesters in French, a 3.5 overall GPA, and a commitment to the propagation of the French language and its culture.
German Honor Society	Chris House	Students who have completed five semesters of German and meet the grading standards in German and overall GPA may join the German Honor Society. Activities vary from year to year, but one of the responsibilities for GFHS members is to provide tutoring for students.
International Thespian Society-Troupe 534	Ashley Melton	This international honorary society recognizes outstanding students in high school theatre.
Mu Alpha Theta Math Honor Society	Camilla Eberlin	The Math Honor Society recognizes outstanding seniors in high school mathematics.
National Honor Society (NHS)	Amanda Shoemaker	The National Honor Society, founded in 1921, was created as an organization to recognize and encourage academic achievement while also developing other characteristics essential to citizens in a democracy. These ideals of scholarship, character, service, and leadership remain as relevant today as they were in 1921. Students plan and participate in service activities that benefit the community and school. Junior and senior students who meet specific academic requirements may apply for membership during the second semester.
Quill & Scroll Honor Society	Amanda Thrun	Quill & Scroll International Honorary Society for High School Journalists recognizes students who make extraordinary contributions to EHS publications/media, specifically yearbook and newspaper. Students are recommended for membership by publications advisers and are recognized at graduation.

Science National Honor Society	Melissa Barnett Sara Chapman	Students inducted into the Edwardsville High School Science National Honor Society meet the rigorous qualifications as set forth by the National Board of Science National Honor Society. In addition to the academic requirements, members of SNHS will complete science specific service hours and participate in group fundraising projects to support scientific endeavors in our school and community.
Spanish Honor Society	Emily Brown	Students who have completed five semesters of Spanish are invited to join this international honor society if they meet the standards concerning Spanish semester grades, overall GPA, and receive the recommendation of the Spanish department. An induction ceremony is held in the fall.
Tri-M Music Honor Society	Emily Ottwein	The Tri-M Music Honor Society, founded in 1936, is the international music honor society designed to recognize students for their academic and musical achievements, reward them for their accomplishments and service activities, and to inspire other students to excel at music and leadership. Students enrolled in a music ensemble at EHS and meet specific academic requirements may apply for membership in the Fall.
Service Clubs
Broadcasting Club	Levi Antrim	In EHS Broadcasting students learn all about livestreaming events including football, baseball, basketball, soccer and more as well as professional level productions such as District 7 School Board Meetings and EHS Graduation. Students also produce a weekly news show for the Friday morning announcements. EHS Broadcasting takes on several video production projects throughout the year, including the EHS Sports Hall of Fame, sports hype, and club advertisement videos.
Cards for Hospitalized Kids	Chelsey Richter	Cards for Hospitalized Kids is a club that crafts greeting cards that will be donated to the CFHK organization and distributed to hospitals across the nation.
Care Closet	Erin Kloster Jessica DeWald	Edwardsville Care Closet is an organization committed to helping low-income students focus on school, rather than worrying about how to acquire bare necessities, such as shelf-stable foods, hygiene products, and clothing items. The organization is an official 501{c}3 non-profit.
EPIC	Missi Sanders	EPIC…or Edwardsville Peer Influence Club…is a group of 9th-12th grade peer leaders. EPIC members educate elementary, middle, and high school students about the dangers of drug and alcohol use and about how to make responsible decisions in their lives. We organize multiple events and programs at the high school and spend time volunteering at the middle and elementary schools and in the community.
Environmental Club	Amy Burian	This club is responsible for recycling at EHS. We also volunteer at Watershed Nature Center along with raising funds to donate to various environmental groups. Social activities are scheduled each month. Come meet others who share your interest in the environment!

Key Club	Chris Sumpter	The EHS Key Club is a group of caring, dedicated students who volunteer their time to help those who are needy in our community. FOA (Friends of All) is a key club faction dedicated to forming true friendships with, and teaching tolerance of persons with disabilities.
Prom	Sairee Knabe Erin Kloster	The Prom Committee is made up of students who help plan, sell tickets, and decorate for the prom. We are looking for students who love to plan and execute big events! Since prom is for Juniors and Seniors, most students on the committee are upper class students, but all ages are welcome to join. Meetings will begin in the fall to start talking about potential themes.
Rotary Interact Club	Cassondra Jacinth	The EHS Interact Club is a youth organization of the Edwardsville Rotary Club. The club promotes the "Service Above Self" motto in community involvement throughout the school year. Open to all students, the club encourages high school students to strive to make their school, community, and world a better place.
Student Council	Jill Gibson Tricia Gray	Student council is an organization that helps the school, the students of EHS, and the community. They help organize the homecoming and volunteer with the Metro East Humane Society and Glen/Ed Food Pantry. The Student Council is an organization that gets things done for the school and has fun doing it.
Tiger Talk Podcast Club	Dave Lipe Nicole Pontius	The Tiger Talk Podcast Network guides students in planning, producing, publishing, and promoting two podcasts: The Jungle, the Official EHS Sports Podcast, and Tiger Spotlight, a Podcast Highlighting Our Tiger Community. Team members will acquire invaluable skills in podcast production and management, in addition to providing an impactful avenue of communication with our local community.
Student Clubs
Animal Rescue	Rachael Davis	The mission of the EHS Animal Rescue Club is to promote animal welfare through community outreach, education, and hands-on support. We strive to create a more humane and empathetic world for animals by volunteering at rescue centers, fundraising for local shelters, hosting guest speakers, and providing education on animal behavior. Through these efforts, we aim to build valuable connections and offer essential resources to support animals in need.
Asian Cultural Club	Lucas Mueller	The Asian Cultural Club aims to host a welcoming community for all students regardless of background while also bringing special emphasis to authentic Asian traditions. Members can expect to coordinate various Asian-oriented activities year-long to convey a positive and inclusive environment to the entirety of EHS. Meetings typically fall on Fridays.
Black Student Union (BSU)	Troy Cobb	The Black Student Union (BSU) at Edwardsville High School is a student-led group that celebrates Black culture, history, and achievements while creating a welcoming space for everyone. Our goal is to build community, encourage leadership, and spark important conversations that matter to students today. BSU hosts fun events, service projects, and discussions that bring people together and highlight the value of diversity at EHS. Whether you're Black or an ally, joining BSU means being part of a supportive group that stands for unity, positivity, and making a difference in our school and community.

Chess Club	Nathan Rassi	We meet weekly to play casual games among ourselves. See Mr. Rassi in room 338 for more information.
Creative Writing Club	Kirk Schlueter	A group devoted to all forms of creative writing. Students come together to share their own poems, short stories, novels, plays, scripts, and offer feedback on one another's work. The club is built on fostering a positive and collaborative atmosphere where students are supported and challenged to make their best creative work possible. Members of our club have gone on to major in English in college and have their work published in national journals.
Debate Club	Beth Warner	This club features a round-table discussion of a current event. Students are given background material when they arrive so that every student has some data from which to draw opinions and questions. Students are encouraged to suggest topics for discussion. We meet every other week throughout the school year. Also see Teens Speak Out!
Diversity Club	Erin Kloster	Diversity Club is dedicated to celebrating and embracing the rich tapestry of cultures, identities, and perspectives within our school! Our club offers a welcoming space for open dialogue, cultural events, and educational activities that promote understanding and respect. Whether you're passionate about social justice, eager to learn about different cultures, or simply want to make new friends, we invite you to come and make a difference with us. Let's build a more inclusive and connected community together!
Engineering Club	Nathan Rassi	November through April – Teams are formed to compete in the annual LCCC trebuchet contest. See Mr. Rassi in 338 in November for more information.
Ethics Bowl	Kirk Schlueter	A competitive philosophy group. Students will meet to discuss moral dilemmas, ethical challenges, and philosophical ideas. The Ethics Bowl team competes against other schools beginning in January.
Fellowship of Christian Athletes	Tim Funkhouser	The EHS Fellowship of Christian athletes are a student led Christ-centered, Bible-based organization. FCA's mission is to present to athletes and coaches, and all whom they influence, the challenge of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, serving Him in their relationships and in the fellowship of church. Meetings are held bi-weekly.
Filmmakers Club	Dene Schickedanz	The Filmmaker's Club is all about creating short films and creativity. Students will learn how to write, produce, direct, film and edit videos with their friends. In the spring, club members can submit their work to the Wildey Student Film competition and compete against students from other local high schools for cash prizes. The club meets every Monday after school in room A122.

Future Aviators Club	Rachael Davis	The Future Aviators Club offers high school students unique opportunities to explore and excel in aviation. Through hands-on flying experiences, engaging guest speakers, educational trips to aviation facilities, and dynamic fundraising events, we provide valuable connections and resources. Our mission is to inspire and support students in their journey to become the next generation of aviation professionals.
Mind Matters	Eleanor Trullijo	m&m, making minds matter. Spreading awareness and providing support for our youth's mental health with a unique approach: peer-to-peer connection.
Poetry Out Loud	Kirk Schlueter	Poetry Out Loud is a national poetry recitation contest. Students select poems to memorize and perform before an audience of judges and peers. Winners of the EHS contest can move on to the regional, state, and national rounds. Past EHS winners have been regional and state champions.
S.A.G.A.	Deanne Voegele	SAGA is EHS's gay-straight alliance. Its mission is to promote acceptance of alternative lifestyles at EHS, making the school a safer and more inviting place for everyone.
Student Venture	Ronna Renken	A non-denominational, student-led prayer and Bible study group.
Trap Club	Missi Sanders	The Trap Club is designed to introduce participants to the safe and responsible sport of Clay target Shooting. We currently meet every Tuesday night at the Edwardsville Gun club and will shoot competitively in the OLIN High School League on Thursday nights. There will also be other opportunities to compete in other State and National Shoots.
Wargames Club	Keith Baker	Daily opportunity where students can match their wits with each other and faculty members playing wargames, role-playing games, CCG's, and miniatures.
