

SUCCESS INDICATORS

ATTENDANCE

Consistent attendance and clear communication about absences are essential to staying on track and minimizing the impact on your learning.

INDEPENDENCE

You are expected to advocate for your needs by independently communicating with teachers and counselors so you can access support and adjust successfully to a new environment.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Following through on expectations—especially meeting deadlines—demonstrates responsibility and helps you succeed in the program.

GRADES

Your grades help counselors understand your readiness for new challenges and ensure you remain on track for graduation.

COUNSELOR AWARENESS

Discussing the classes you hope to take and communicating regularly with your counselor ensures they understand your interests and current path.

FUTURE PLANS

Keeping your EDP updated and expressing your long-term aspirations helps your counselor determine whether this opportunity aligns with your goals
