

Welcome from Damon Smith

"Don't be an 8:30-2:30 Student"

Encouraging kids to participate in after school activities

Highlights of the First Three Weeks of School

- 1) Level Up – 90% of Students are taking Honors English for 9th grade (next year, Phase II honors history)
 - a. Seminars to support kids
 - b. Most classes are 18 or smaller
- 2) Giving out Chrome Books
 - a. Two-year implementation phase – 9th grade only this year
 - b. Next year, all grades
 - c. Measurement will be test in the spring (exit exam) to measure how well this is working
- 3) 50% of seniors applying early action or decision

Tom Aria – athletic director

-38 athletic opportunities at CRLS

-Important for kids to be part of something

-Adding orienteering and fencing are new

-52% of kids participate in sports

Question from Damon Smith

The school committee is wondering about the term "College Prep" (misnomer).

- What does it mean to you?
- What have you heard about it?

Attendees:

Damon Smith

Greta Hardina

Ross Benson

Liz Atwood

Teresa Walker

Mike Frutkoff (can't read email)

Merline Sylvain-Williams merlines1980@yahoo.com

Ajani Acloque ejaniacloque@gmail.com

Brad Kay Goodman bradkg@mit.edu

Elisabeth Kanner eliskanner@yahoo.com

Maray-Ann Matyas ma.matyas98@gmail.com

Jodie Siegel jodie@clear-your-space.com

Kim Kaufman kimberleysevenoff@gmail.com

Alice Bredin

Nasrat Lamisa Jahan lamisa15jahan@gmail.com

David Emerson demerson@jri.org

HacKyung Chung hkmallorca@gmail.com