Module Title	Word Play	Unit Duration (days)	36 Days
Enduring Understanding/ Essential Question	How and why do writers play with words?

GA DoE Standards

FOCUS STANDARDS:

Foundations:

5.F.F.1.c. Read a wide range of grade-level texts aloud with accurate and automatic prosody (phrasing, expression, juncture/pause, and intonation) to aid comprehension.

Language:

5.L.GC.2.a: Apply understandings of sentence structure to comprehend a wide variety of grade-level texts.

5.L.GC.2.b: Use a variety of simple, compound, and complex sentences to strengthen clarity and coherence, maintaining consistent verb tense throughout the entire text.

5.L.V.2.a: Deconstruct words using knowledge of Greek and Latin roots, root words, and affixes to determine meaning.

5.L.V.2.b: Explain the connection between roots, root words, affixes, and parts of speech to determine the meaning of words (e.g., discuss as a verb vs. discussion as a noun).

5.L.V.3.a: Use context (e.g., cause/effect relationships and comparisons in text) to determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases.

5.L.V.3.b: Identify analogies and use synonyms, antonyms, homophones, and homographs to clarify intended meaning.

5.L.V.3.d: Use print and digital reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses) to check spelling and determine or clarify the precise meaning of words and phrases.

Texts:

5.T.C.2.a: Describe how a narrator or speaker's perspective influences the text.

5.T.C.1.c: Create multimodal texts, using features of pre-selected modes for a specific purpose and audience.

- 5.T.SS.1.a: Describe how text features (e.g., chapter titles, diagrams) and text structure (e.g., chapters, problem/solution) function together to represent ideas and information coherently in texts.
- 5.T.SS.2.b: Use figurative language for intentional effects when expressing ideas or conveying information.
- 5.T.T.1.a: Analyze the use of narrative techniques to present ideas, design texts, and convey information about characters, setting, and plot.
- 5.T.T.1.b: Analyze how setting, events, conflict, and characterization contribute to the plot.
- 5.T.T.1.c: Explain how a theme is demonstrated through a character’s growth or conflict resolution.
- 5.T.T.1.e: Apply narrative techniques (e.g., character, setting, conflict, climax, resolution, and dialogue) to develop a real or imagined experience using descriptive details, clear event sequences, and a conclusion.
- 5.T.RA.2.a: Refer to specific passages or quotations from a text to support an idea, answer, or opinion, recording the referenced information’s page number.
- 5.T.RA.2.c: Use basic parenthetical citations to credit the source used.

Practices:

- K-12.P.EICC.1.e Participate in a community of readers and writers by developing group norms, discussing texts, sharing individual writing, listening as others share their writing, and offering and responding to feedback.
- K-12.P.EICC.3.g Determine the meanings of unfamiliar words and concepts by applying knowledge of context and of academic vocabulary and word parts
- K-12.P.EICC.4.f Evaluate the text’s effectiveness based on self-review or feedback from others, determining whether the text matches the purpose and goals for writing.
- K-12.P.EICC.4.h Edit the text, ensuring it adheres to the conventions of written language.
- K-12.P.AC.2.a Integrate literary, expository, and persuasive (grades K-5) or rhetorical (grades 6-12) elements to appeal to target audiences and achieve specific purposes
- K-12.P.AC.3.a Explore and create texts in various modes and genres, developing and applying knowledge of how specific features impact meaning, tone, style, purpose, and audience.
- K-12.P.CP.1.a Arrive to group discussions and collaborative meetings prepared to be an active participant in the work.
- K-12.P.CP.1.c Contribute to discussions and shared projects by offering ideas, listening to the ideas of others, and providing feedback.
- K-12.P.CP.2.a Communicate clearly to present ideas, information, and texts.

Assessment	Elements that Support Success on EOM Task/Success Criteria
FQT1. Write an explanatory paragraph to explain how words create both confusion and humor in Bud Abbott and Lou Costello’s comedy routine “Who’s on First?”	Identify the source of confusion and humor of words in context. Explain how a conflict in understanding can lead to confusion and humor.

FQT2. Write a “character snapshot” scene featuring Milo and an invented character from Abandon Elementary School, including wordplay to describe both the setting and the character.	Use descriptions and sensory language to show not tell about the setting, characters, and situation. Describe a setting and a character’s traits using wordplay.
FQT3. Write an “exploded moment” scene featuring Milo and an invented character from Abandon Elementary School, including dialogue sequences to show conflicting ideas between characters.	Use dialogue and description to effectively pace dialogue sequences. Develop plot with a clear conflict and a new learning or understanding.
FQT4. Write an explanatory paragraph to identify one overarching theme in Norton Juster’s The Phantom Tollbooth, and explain how Juster reveals this theme by revealing how the main character, Milo, changes from the beginning to end of the story.	Identify and explain a theme from a novel. Focusing Question 2: How can writers use wordplay to develop a story's setting and characters?
Lesson	Texts	Content Framing Question	Craft Framing Question	Learning Goals
5	The Phantom Tollbooth, Map of the Lands Beyond and Chapter 1	Reveal What does a deeper exploration of the main character, Milo, reveal in chapter 1 of The Phantom Tollbooth?		Make inferences about Milo's traits, based on the illustration and author's descriptions in chapter 1 of The Phantom Tollbooth. Explore the relationships between wisdom, knowledge, and ignorance to deepen understanding of each word's meaning.
6	The Phantom Tollbooth, pages 16-27	Wonder What do I notice and wonder about the places Milo visits and the characters he meets in chapter 2?	Examine Why is description of settings and characters important in stories?	Infer word meanings based on descriptions and illustrations of settings and characters in The Phantom Tollbooth, and explain how their names are examples of wordplay. Distinguish shades of meaning for words related to think, using a dictionary.
7 QS	The Phantom Tollbooth, pages 28-31	Organize What's happening in chapter 2 of The Phantom Tollbooth?	Examine Why are snapshots important in stories and especially in The Phantom Tollbooth?	Make observations and inferences about the king's advisors from their dialogue. Generate sensory details to develop a setting "snapshot" of the Word Market from The Phantom Tollbooth. Analyze the effect of word choice in conveying ideas in descriptive writing.
8	The Phantom Tollbooth, pages 32-47	Wonder What do I notice and wonder about Dictionopolis and its people?	Experiment How does sensory language in a setting snapshot work?  Examine Why is precise word choice important in descriptive writing?	Make observations and inferences about the king's advisors from their dialogue. Generate sensory details to develop a setting "snapshot" of the Word Market from The Phantom Tollbooth. Analyze the effect of word choice in conveying ideas in descriptive writing.
9	The Persistence of Memory, Salvador Dalí	Reveal	Experiment How does a snapshot of a Juster-like setting work?	Identify surrealist elements and examples of juxtaposition in two paintings, and explain what the juxtaposition of everyday objects reveals.

	Time Transfixed, René Magritte	What does a deeper exploration of juxtaposition reveal in the paintings?		Develop a setting “snapshot” of an imaginary place using description and sensory language. Analyze the meaning of surreal by studying its word parts.
10 QS	The Phantom Tollbooth, Chapter 4	Reveal What does a deeper exploration of characters’ traits reveal?	Excel How do I improve word choice in a setting snapshot?  Experiment How can prepositional phrases add precise detail to sentences?	Infer the meaning of humbug based on the description and illustration of this character in The Phantom Tollbooth to better understand wordplay with characters. Revise a setting snapshot to add stronger verbs and concrete details. Add precise details to a setting snapshot using prepositional phrases.
11	The Phantom Tollbooth, pages 58-65	Reveal What does a deeper exploration of characters’ traits reveal?	Examine Why is it important to “show-not-tell” in a character snapshot?	Interpret the meaning of the phrase short shrift based on the description of Officer Short Shrift in The Phantom Tollbooth to better understand wordplay with characters. Analyze how a writer uses the technique of “showing-not-telling” to reveal a character’s traits and the wordplay of her name.
12 FQT2	The Phantom Tollbooth, pages 65-70	Reveal What does a deeper exploration of the Which and her story reveal?	Execute How do I plan a character snapshot of a Juster-like character?	Explain how Faintly Macabre’s name and title, the “Which,” are examples of wordplay reflected in the description and story of her character. Generate ideas for a character snapshot involving wordplay by describing the character’s inner and outer qualities. Clarify and explain the meaning of adages and proverbs.
13 QS	The Phantom Tollbooth, Chapter 6	Distill What is the essential meaning of Faintly Macabre’s story of Rhyme and Reason?	Execute How do I plan a character snapshot of a Juster-like character to “show-not-tell?”	Infer the larger significance of Rhyme and Reason’s banishment in the story, supporting ideas with text evidence. For a Juster-like character snapshot, generate ideas about how to reveal a character’s traits and beliefs through words and actions. Demonstrate understanding of differences in meaning between closely related words controversies, disputes, grievances, and quarrels.
14 NR1	The Phantom Tollbooth, pages 80-88	Organize What does a deeper exploration of wordplay in the royal banquet scene reveal?	Execute How do I establish characters, setting, and a situation in a lead for my character snapshot?	Draft a lead for a character snapshot that establishes characters, setting, and a situation. Analyze how and why Norton Juster uses wordplay in a scene from chapter 7 of The Phantom Tollbooth. Interpret the meaning of adages and clarify their meanings using a dictionary.

15	The Phantom Tollbooth	Know How does The Phantom Tollbooth build my knowledge of how writers can play with words?	Excel How do I improve my character snapshot to “show-not-tell?”  Excel How do I improve word choice in my character snapshot?	Craft a short narrative “snapshot” of a character from the imaginary “Abandon Elementary School,” using dialogue and description to reveal character related to the meaning of the character’s name and the word abandon. Illustrate a character snapshot, drawing on details in one’s own writing, and explain how it supports and enriches the writing. Revise a character snapshot to strengthen word choice with vivid verbs, concrete details, and prepositional phrases that add detail.
