Minutes

Mr. Montedoro shared the following on the Survey Updates:

- responses from the committee were received and changes implemented
- reached out to surrounding districts for details on their surveys
- changes effective for fall sports
- survey to be sent out to parents of athletes and athletes

5. New Business

5.a. State of Union in Athletics

Minutes

Mr. Montedoro shared the following on the State of the Union in Athletics:

- PIAA approved NIL (Name, Image, & Likeness) for high school students
- any NIL high school agreements must go through the Athletic office and reported to the state before signing into an agreement
- if proper channels aren't followed the student may become ineligible to play the sport
- quite a few high school students across the country, few in PA, have received NIL's across the country
- business must be registered with NIL at the state level, or the student loses eligibility
- college level athletes are making more money than they will as a professional
- still learning as the details are being released
- information to be shared on the website and at all parent meetings

Sports success this year:

- wrestling - 11 students were sent to sectionals with two advancing to districts
- cheer Team - qualified for Disney and had an awesome experience
- swim Team - numerous medals over the last three months
- baseball having a good turnout
- girls Lacrosse still undefeated
- boys Tennis team only one loss for the season

5.b. Coaches' Handbook to Review

Minutes

Mr. Montedoro shared the following on the Coaches' Handbook:

- athletic Eligibility - CAOLA being adjusted due to fluctuating grades during the marking period
- handbook to be the point of reference - currently in draft form, will be available on website, coaches will receive paper copy
- physicals - PIAA is undecided but may be moving the fall physical date to May 1st instead of June 1st due to schools already out for summer break the first week of June
- letter jackets - more parents asking for them, will be working with Standard Pennant to design the jackets, four options will be available starting the spring of 2024, cost will be $180-275
- letter of Intent signing days - three a year
