OPERATION HORNET HOODIES COMES FULL CIRCLE

EDMONTON, Ky. (December 17, 2025) – Metcalfe County High School celebrated its fourth annual Operation Hornet Hoodies today, where every student was gifted a new MCHS hooded sweatshirt.

Students in this year's senior class were the first to receive the hoodies in 2022, when they were freshmen, thanks to generous donations made by our community sponsors.

Operation Hornet Hoodies reminds students that they are valued members of our Hornet family and the Metcalfe County community. It also provides them with something new and warm to wear at Christmas time.

“On behalf of Metcalfe County High School, I want to extend a massive thank you to our incredible community sponsors for their generosity in providing Hornet Hoodies for every single student,” Principal Joseph Eaton said. “Seeing our hallways filled with school pride is a direct result of your support. You haven't just provided a piece of clothing, you've fostered a sense of belonging and unity across our entire campus. Thank you for investing in our kids and showing us your Hornet Hustle!”

Community sponsors were invited to MCHS to personally hand out the hoodies during a special celebration. Metcalfe County Schools would like to thank the following donors:

- Gerald Printing
- Kentucky Farm Bureau
- TJ Regional Health
- Edmonton State Bank
- South Central Bank
- NewView
- Cumberland Family Medical
- Carhartt
- LifeSkills
- City of Edmonton
- Kingsford
- Butler Funeral Home
- Edmonton Tire & Auto
- Sumitomo
- The Salvage Store
