

Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policies

Part I – School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Barack Obama Elementary School will work collaboratively with parents to develop, review, and update the Barack Obama Elementary School Parent and Family Engagement Policy. Once finalized, the policy will be shared with all families of enrolled children and made accessible to the wider community. Barack Obama Elementary School will accomplish this through:

- An annual end-of-year parent survey will gather feedback on current practices and procedures.
- Sharing the Parent Handbook with all families.
- Ensuring all families are on Parent Square.
- Consistently using the school website and sending home printable flyers.
- Hosting the annual Title I meeting in September.

To ensure that families understand and can participate fully in the Title I program, Barack Obama Elementary School will hold an annual meeting at a time convenient for parents. During this meeting, Barack Obama Elementary School will explain its Title I status, outline program requirements, and describe parents' rights and opportunities for involvement. Barack Obama Elementary School will determine the meeting details and communication methods by:

- Sending home printable flyers.
- Uploading social media updates.
- Communicating through Parent Square.
- Hosting community walks.
- Sharing PTA Updates.

Barack Obama Elementary School is committed to offering flexible opportunities for parent engagement. Meetings will be scheduled at various times, including mornings and evenings. When possible, Barack Obama Elementary School will provide transportation, childcare, or home visits, supported by Title I funds. Flexibility will be ensured through:

- Having virtual and evening meeting options.
- Ensuring that activities for children are available.
- Providing refreshments for evening events.

Parents will be actively involved throughout the year in planning, reviewing, and improving Barack Obama Elementary School's Title I plan, including the requirements outlined in Sections 1112, 1114, and 1116. This ongoing involvement will occur through

- Parents participating in PTA.

Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policies

- Parents being able to share concerns as a family representative.
- Parent Surveys being readily available.

To support families of English learners, Barack Obama Elementary School will implement effective outreach and provide information in languages and formats that are easily understood by parents. These efforts will help families participate in their child's education and assist their children in attaining English proficiency, achieving at high levels, and meeting State academic standards. Outreach will be carried out by:

- Leveraging the Language Justice Department.
- Usage of the language line.
- Having on-site interpreters for school events.

Barack Obama Elementary School will also ensure that parents receive timely information about Title I programs, along with clear explanations of the school's curriculum, academic assessments, and expected proficiency levels. Upon request, parents will be offered opportunities to meet regularly, share suggestions, and collaborate in decisions related to their child's education, with Barack Obama Elementary School responding promptly to input. These commitments will be fulfilled by:

- Sending information through Parent Square.
- Teachers and Admin Weekly Newsletters.
- Hosting Parent Teacher Conferences (two per year).
- Sharing Interim Reports and Report Cards with parents/guardians.

If parents are not satisfied with the schoolwide program plan, their comments will be collected and submitted to the LEA upon sharing the plan. Barack Obama Elementary School will uphold this requirement by:

- Having an open-door policy for communicating and scheduling meetings with the administration.

Part II – Building Capacity for Parents and Staff

To ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among Barack Obama Elementary School, parents, and community to improve student academic achievement, each school and LEA must engage families and staff in activities that will assist parents in understanding the challenging State academic standards, how to monitor their child's progress, and how to work collaboratively with educators.

These efforts will include providing guidance, resources, and opportunities for parents to engage directly with staff and students, and will be carried out through:

- o Providing the Testing Schedules.
- o Sharing SOLs and Pacing Guides.
- o Having Printable Diagnostic Assessments and Summaries.

To further support families, Barack Obama Elementary School will provide materials and training to help parents work with their children at home. This may include literacy instruction, technology training, and guidance on responsible digital practices, including the harms of copyright piracy. Resources and training will be offered through:

- o The School website.
- o Title I events with take home materials.
- o The VDOE resource site.

Barack Obama Elementary School will also provide professional development for teachers, specialized instructional personnel, and other staff to increase understanding of the value of parent engagement and the role of families and communities in promoting student achievement. Staff development will include:

- o Professional Development on Family Engagement.
- o Monthly staff meetings.
- o School-wide departmental representation when planning family engagement activities.
- o Data-centered outreach.

Parent engagement will be coordinated and integrated with other federal, state, and local programs, including public preschool programs. Additional initiatives, such as parent resource centers, will be conducted to encourage and support meaningful family participation. Coordination and implementation will occur through:

- o Ensuring that Parent engagement activities are aligned across Special Education, ELL services, Counseling, and Attendance to provide consistent communication and support.

Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policies

Barack Obama Elementary School will ensure that information about programs, meetings, and other engagement activities is provided to parents of enrolled children in formats and languages they can understand, to the extent possible. Communication and outreach will be maintained through:

- o Providing take-home materials in various languages.
- o Weekly email newsletters shared through Parent Square.
- o Available interpretation services.
