

Defining our Charter Words

Confident

Motivated

Respected

Safe

What do these words mean and how can we have a school where students feel confident, motivated, respected and safe?

What does it mean to feel confident?

When people are confident they are sure of themselves and their abilities - not in an arrogant or superior way. Confident people are secure and have an inner knowledge that they are capable.

What does it look like or sound like when students feel confident?

What does it mean to feel motivated?

When people are motivated, they have a strong desire to work hard, do well and succeed.

What does it look like or sound like when students feel motivated?

What does it mean to feel respected?

What does it look like or sound like when students feel respected?

People who feel respected feel that others appreciate them, relate to them, admire them and care about them.

What does it mean to feel safe?

What does it look like or sound like when students feel safe?

People who feel safe feel that they are secure from harm or danger.

At I.S. 162, We want to be.....

Confident
Motivated
Respected
Safe

Think about our charter words and how they fit you and how you want to feel at school.

We will revisit these words in a few weeks and check-in whether or not they need to be changed.