Dear Baldwin High School Playhouse:

Building off last year's success in trying new things and new approaches, Footloose The Musical represents the Baldwin Playhouse's commitment to productions that are vehicles for student exploration.

Baldwin's strength has been the integration of our curricular programs with co-curricular experiences culminating in high quality public performances. The strength of our music program has typically been on full display for many years on the stage and in the pit orchestra, but we are calling attention to the integration of our Stage Crafts class building modular sets, purpose built, for our stage and building spaces and designed to be flexible, innovative solutions for our theater program.

Since last year, students have been playing a role in the makeup and hair support of our actors and singers. Watching students diversify by taking on roles outside of their comfort zone is a rewarding biproduct of our productions and an important way for students to explore interests and expand capabilities that may become career opportunities in the future.

We continue to have an incredibly talented and dedicated group of educators that maximize individual growth while supporting the highest expectations for teamwork. Our productions are powerful proving grounds for our students to persevere through challenges and develop capabilities that are transferable to any goal in life.

Proudly,

André H. Poprilo
Director of Fine & Performing Arts

WE ARE INNOVATIVE! WE ARE INCLUSIVE! WE ARE INVOLVED! WE ARE BALDWIN!

FROM THE DIRECTOR Mrs. Wilder

Last spring, we set out to find a show that was upbeat, fun, and full of energy, but also one that would challenge us. Footloose became that perfect choice. The dancing was your challenge, and you rose to the occasion with hard work, determination, and enthusiasm that exceeded every expectation.

The highlight of my day is coming to the high school and spending time with all of you. You are not only incredibly talented actors, singers, and dancers; you are remarkable human beings. Watching you lift one another up, support each other, and celebrate one another's successes is what makes this cast truly special.

To my seniors: I have had the privilege of working with many of you for over six years, watching you grow both on and off the stage. Our shows will not be the same without you, but I know you are moving on to bigger and better things. You will always hold a very special place in my heart.

To my co-directors—this show would not be possible without each one of you. Not only have I enjoyed working alongside you, but I have truly embraced the friendships that have formed through our collaboration. Thank you for your creativity, dedication, and unwavering support.

To our families, friends, and community members—thank you from the bottom of my heart for your continued support. These students have touched my heart, and tonight, they will surely touch yours.

Brandon

May your experience, dedication, and talent guide you,
and may your performance be as compelling as ever.
Keep shining on stage and in life!

LET'S DANCE!!!!

Love, Grandma and Grandpa, Uncle Bobby,
Aunt Theresa, Evan and Ryan

It has been a pleasure to watch you grow and mature as both a young man and a performer.
Your passion, tenacity, and hard work fill us
with pride every day.
Keep chasing your dreams!

Love, Mom and Dad

To the Whole Footloose Family,
Here's to a successful show to you all on stage,
in Krough and the pit. Congratulations!

As you take the stage for your final high school performance, we want you to know how incredibly proud we are of the young woman you've become. Your dedication to your academics, the passion you bring to your dreams, and the courage in which you pursue your goals inspire us every single day.

Sometimes it drives us crazy!

Watching you attempt to balance everything with grace and determination has been one of our greatest lessons. We let go, while holding on - but watching you bloom and grow in the process. You've never been afraid to work hard, to push yourself, or to stand tall in pursuit of what matters to you. That kind of bravery doesn't go unnoticed—it lights up every room you enter and touches everyone fortunate enough to know you. As you close the curtain on this production, remember this: the difference between a star and a beacon is that a star illuminates for others, while a beacon brings people into safety, guiding them along the way. You are a true beacon.

We love you more than words can express
Love, Mom, Dad & Mya
