Toni Dennis, ACT President reported that it has been a busy month talking about the re-districting and other things. She stated that tomorrow is Veteran's Day and there are a lot of wonderful programs going on throughout the district. Mrs. Dennis stated she wanted to brag on one of our teachers this evening, Mrs. Henderson. She stated that she does a "celebrity" spelling test each week. She stated that even the students that have test anxiety are doing really well because they get excited to see who will be coming in for the test.

There were no comments from the floor regarding agenda items.

Superintendent Reid gave the following report:

- Superintendent Reid thanked all of our Veterans and commended all of our school sites for holding outstanding Veteran's Day activities to honor those who have served. He added that these are always special events and it not only shows gratitude to the military men and women of this nation, but it demonstrates to each of our students how to display proper respect. A special thank you goes out to the CHS AFJROTC for making sure they have a crew available for each of our sties to have a flag presentation. These presentations started today and will continue through Veteran's Day tomorrow. A special thanks to CNP CFO and proud Marine Veteran, Chad Allcox for guest speaking at the CHS assemblies today. Superintendent Reid asked if anyone else in the audience is a veteran or a spouse of a veteran. Superintendent Reid thanks those who raised their hands for their service.
- Next week is Support Personnel Week so I would like to publicly say thank you and acknowledge all support employees for their outstanding work. This is a group who often works behind the scenes with little recognition, but without them, we wouldn't have school as we know it.
- CHS Football will host PCN this week in the opening round of state playoffs this Friday at 7:00 p.m. on Jensen Field.
- Tonight, we will be discussing the redistricting process and allow the board the opportunity to weigh in on and present any questions they may have. This is a historic night as it will possible be the first full-scale redistricting in CNP since Westfall was built in 1984.
- Finally, as a reminder, Thanksgiving Break will be November 24-28.

Mrs. Salinas-Dengler moved, seconded by Mrs. Modisette to approve 36 white Nike jerseys and 23 blue Nike jersey declared as surplus. The vote was unanimous.

Kelli Hosford, Assistant Superintendent of Students Services shared that she attended the Lincoln Douglas Debates at SEARCH on October 30th and witnessed the debate about "Should Cell Phones be Allowed in School"? Jennifer Bynum and Leah Stone do an amazing job with our SEARCH Program. She reported that state testing will be conducted in the regular manner for this upcoming school year. She stated that there may be changes down the road, but for now it is testing as usual. Mrs. Hosford stated that we received our preliminary Data Analysis Report which shows if we are meeting the 17 indicators set forth by the state and federal level for special education. The preliminary results are excellent and the test scores will be added to that report before the final results. Mrs. Hosford shared that our Special Education Round Table discussions are going well. Lisa Miller has presented on EdPlan and Brian Sasser on Transition. These are geared toward new special education teachers but all are invited to attend. She reported that our October 1 Child Count has been completed and certified for this school year. In closing, Mrs. Hosford stated that Shanna has been leading their book study which is “Motivating Students Who Don’t Care”. She shared that this book study is for all, not just special education and stated that we have an excellent group participating in this student.

Dr. Debbie Worley stated that Dr. Gaona is sick this evening but she would be sharing a report regarding the Edge Program. Dr. Worley reported that our CNP EDGE Virtual Academy continues to thrive. She stated that EDGE courses are for first-time credit only in grades 6th-12th and they utilize the Edmentum online platform. She reported that there are 84 full-time middle school and high school students. There are 32 students that are taking three of their four courses through EDGE, 101 students that are taking two of their four courses and 222 that are taking one of their four courses. She added that a total of 439 students are enrolled in the EDGE Program. Dr. Worley shared that we also allow high school students to utilize the EDGE program to take an additional “plus one” course each semester if they demonstrate a need. This fall, she stated that we have an additional 79 students taking a “plus one” course bring the total number of students impacted by the EDGE program to 518. Dr. Worley shared that approximately 44% of students taking an online course are taking it for an elective, while approximately 56% of students are taking core classes online, including English, Math, Science or Social Studies. She added that to maximize the use of our online contract with Edmentum, we also use the courses available though our current contract to run a credit recovery program in May and June of each year. This program is utilized by students who have failed core courses and need to retake them to recover the credits. In 2025, we served 34 students who recovered a total of 46 core credit during the summer months.
