

LUCY FLYNN O'BRIEN '36 SCHOLARSHIP

The Lucy Flynn O'Brien '36 Scholarship is available to a new or returning student in grades 6-12 at Villa Duchesne. This student should exemplify a great desire to learn, demonstrate a commitment to education, and exhibit leadership skills.

One (1) scholarship will be awarded each academic year, and the scholarship is renewable each year provided the student maintains eligibility. Eligible recipients must be strong academically, as demonstrated by a grade point average (GPA) of 3.0, and provide both a personal and academic letter of recommendation. Annual renewal eligibility includes a GPA of 3.0 or greater and continued demonstration of respect to self, peers, and Villa Duchesne through strong personal conduct.

Lucy Flynn O'Brien '36 Scholarship eligibility criteria:

- Financial need and academic merit
- Personal and academic recommendations
- Desire and openness to learning and furthering personal growth
- Demonstrate an active participation in her faith
- Submission of a reflective essay on the Goals and Criteria of Sacred Heart education, what community means to the student and their family, and how the student will make a difference within our community.

To apply for the Lucy Flynn O'Brien '36 Scholarship, the following are required:

- ☐ A completed Lucy Flynn O'Brien '36 Scholarship application (see next sheet);
- ☐ A Villa Duchesne school application form (Admissions brochure or online);
- ☐ The Archdiocesan Catholic High School Application form, indicating Villa Duchesne as first choice for secondary education;
