EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS AND OPERATIONS
REPLACEMENT LEVY

Voters last approved the Educational Programs and Operations Replacement Levy in 2022, and it will expire in 2026. The proposed replacement levy would continue this important local funding through 2030. Renewing the Educational Programs and Operations Replacement Levy helps maintain the people and programs that make a difference in our schools ensuring students are supported, engaged, and ready for their futures.

Funds from the Educational Programs and Operations Replacement Levy fills the 14.6% state funding gap and would be used to:

Ensure students have access to more teachers and caring adults on campus - including significantly more school psychologists, paraeducators (learning assistants), and substitutes - than the state provides. It also funds the district's school resource officers who are based at our high schools.

Help fund special education services so students with diverse learning needs receive the individualized support they deserve.

Provide academic supports and summer learning for all students.

Support students in building stronger connections to their education through after-school athletics, performing arts, clubs, and other activities that promote mental well-being, emotional growth, and academic success.

What would the Replacement Levy for Technology, Safety and Facility Improvements fund if approved?

THE SNOHOMISH SCHOOL DISTRICT WILL HAVE TWO REPLACEMENT LEVY PROPOSITIONS ON THE FEBRUARY 10, 2026, BALLOT.

These measures help bridge the nearly 18% funding gap between what the state provides and what it truly costs to offer a full, well-rounded education in safe and secure schools for the district students. These are not new taxes - they would replace existing levies that expire at the end of 2026 and would continue essential local funding through 2030.
