4.6 Superintendent Report

Enrollment: Alview 194; Dairyland 216 Total District: 410

- Students had a great experience at 6th Grade Camp last week.
- Last Tuesday, Data Works was at Dairyland to work with teachers on engagement strategies and paraprofessionals on explicit direct instruction and ELD curriculum. They were at Alview today for the same coaching.
- Our sports teams have been doing well. Football and Volleyball B won at Washington, Volleyball A had their first loss; tomorrow, games will be at El Nido, 3:00
- Mobile home inspections are scheduled for Thursday; we should have reports within a week after inspections are complete.
- After-School STEM GATE, Art, Drawing and Creative Writing classes are all up and running.
- A Stanford research group will be visiting both campuses in November to observe math instruction and curriculum. They will also be interviewing teachers and administrators to glean information to inform new math framework development.
- We started Adult ESL classes last week. High school volunteers are babysitting for community service hours.

- The Assembly bill to increase long-term substitute teacher time in a classroom from 30-60 days was vetoed by the governor last week.
- Williams items are all complete—a representative from MCSOS will be at our next meeting to review the report.
- AB 495 was signed into law on Sunday expanding the definition of caregivers.
- End of First Quarter is Friday

- Upcoming October Events:
 - Red Ribbon Week
 - Alview Book Fair
 - Parent-Teacher conferences
 - Halloween carnival
